Ruhland, 2025-06-02 This volume interrogates the role of the manuscript medium in conveying history to medieval and early modern readers The contributors adopt a capacious understanding of history to explore history writing in its materiality from a variety of methodological and disciplinary perspectives The core contentions of this book are that the material features of manuscripts helped shaping historical narratives and defining history conceptually and that therefore the makers of these manuscripts played an instrumental role in history writing alongside authors Ranging from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries and comprising materials from across Western Europe in Latin and the vernaculars the ten chapters of this volume uncover stakes and strategies tied to highly specific contexts such as late thirteenth century Corbie or fifteenth century Zurich yet partaking in a shared practice of history writing with manuscripts Manuscript makers made history through layout rewriting illumination compilation choice of script and annotation and conferred history writing its material dimension This volume therefore situates the writing of history in its material dimension and invites us to consider medieval and early modern historiography in its medium The Production of Books in England 1350-1500 Alexandra Gillespie, Daniel

The Art of Anatomy in Medieval Europe Taylor McCall, 2023-08-15 A new history of the medieval illustrations that birthed modern anatomy This book is the first history of medieval European anatomical images Richly illustrated The Art of Anatomy in Medieval Europe explores the many ways in which medieval surgeons doctors monks and artists understood and depicted human anatomy Taylor McCall refutes the common misconception that Renaissance artists and anatomists such as Leonardo da Vinci and Andreas Vesalius were the fathers of anatomy who performed the first human dissections On the contrary she argues that these Renaissance figures drew upon centuries of visual and written tradition in their works A World of Beasts: A Thirteenth-Century Illustrated Arabic Book on Animals (the Kitāb Na't al-Ḥayawān) in the Ibn Bakhtīshū' Tradition Anna Contadini, 2011-11-11 The Kit b Na t al ayaw n is the earliest of a group of illustrated manuscripts dealing with the characteristics of animals and their medicinal uses The present study considers both the confluence of textual traditions within this work and the stylistic and iconographic relationships of its illustrations which make it a key witness to early thirteenth century Arab painting After a re evaluation of previous approaches emphasis is placed on relating image to text on stylistic affiliations and on the modalities of production supported by technical analyses undertaken for the first time In elucidating the particular context of this unique manuscript the study contributes to our understanding of a critical period in the development of Middle Eastern painting and art Christine de Pizan Angus J. Kennedy, 2004 Illuminating the Roman D'Alexandre Mark Cruse, 2011 Survey of one of the most important surviving medieval manuscripts reveals much of its contemporary cultural literary and social milieu Oxford Bodleian Library MS Bodley 264 is one of the most famous and most sumptuous illuminated manuscripts of the entire Middle Ages Completed in 1344 in Tournai in what is now Belgium the manuscript preserves the fullest version of the interpolated Old French Roman d Alexandre Romance of Alexander the Great and some of the most vivid illustrations of any medieval romance ranking amongst the greatest achievements of the illuminator s art its borders in particular offering a panorama of medieval society and imagination A celebration of courtliness a commemoration of urban chivalry a mirror for the prince instructing in the arts of rule and a meditation on crusade it manifests the extraordinary richness and creativity of late medieval manuscript culture This study examines the manuscript as a monumental expression of the beliefs and social practices of its day placing it in its historical and artistic context it also analyzes its later reception in England where the addition of a Middle English Alexander poem and of Marco Polo s Voyages reflects changing concepts of language historiography and geography Mark Cruse is Assistant Professor of French School of International Letters and Cultures Arizona State University The Mongol Archive in Late Medieval France Mark Cruse, 2025-02-15 The Mongol Archive in Late Medieval France is the first comprehensive study of contact between France and the Mongols in the late Middle Ages As these realms expanded across Eurasia the French through crusade and settlement the Mongols through conquest their encounters altered each other s understanding of the world and their place in it The Mongol influence on French culture is visible in what Mark Cruse calls the Mongol archive a wide range of materials including chronicles crusade treatises encyclopedias manuscript illuminations maps romances and travel accounts revealing how the French court made sense of a people previously unknown to the European intellectual tradition Cruse mines this archive of Franco Mongol contact to reassess France's place in the continental history of medieval Eurasia By comparing the French and Mongol courts Cruse shows how their similarities allowed meaningful communication between them and highlights the surprising connections diplomatic intellectual and genealogical across vast distances The library of King Charles V r 1364 1380 one of the largest in medieval Europe is a monument to the richness of these encounters which anticipate the global interconnectedness of the modern world Ultimately the innovative approach in The Mongol Archive in Late Medieval France toward French conceptions of and relations with the Mongols demonstrates how a global perspective transforms our understanding of the medieval world

The Waxing of the Middle Ages Charles-Louis Morand-Métivier, Tracy Adams, 2023-04-14 Johan Huizinga's much loved and much contested Autumn of the Middle Ages first published in 1919 encouraged an image of the Late French Middle Ages as a flamboyant but empty period of decline and nostalgia Many studies particularly literary studies have challenged Huizinga's perceptions of individual works or genres Still the vision of the Late French and Burgundian Middle Ages as a sad transitional phase between the High Middle Ages and the Renaissance persists Yet a series of exceptionally significant cultural developments mark the period The Waxing of the Middle Ages sets out to provide a rich complex and diverse study of these developments and to reassert that late medieval France is crucial in its own right The collection argues for an approach that views the late medieval period not as an afterthought or a blind spot but as a period that is key in understanding the fluidity of time traditions culture and history Each essay explores some cultural form to borrow Huizinga's expression to expose the false divide that has dominated modern scholarship
