 Nigel Hunt, 2019-08-08 Integrating trauma studies with historical research and social psychology Landscapes of Trauma examines a range of battlefields from across history including Waterloo the Battle of Sedan the Battle of the Ebro and the Battle of Normandy to bring to light what these battlefields say about our collective and individual psyches Hunt explores how war shapes the nature of trauma not only by its innate horror but also by the historical and societal contexts it is fought in from the cultural and social conventions of the period to the topography of the settings This book provides a deep analysis of how war is experienced and remembered in different eras and by different generations Moving beyond the clinical concept of post traumatic stress disorder Hunt discusses how trauma can be understood socially and historically as well as through the lens of individual suffering This book also investigates the psychological foundations of memorialisation remembrance and commemoration that shape the legacy of the battles discussed Using interviews with veterans their letters journals and diaries as well as literary and historical sources Hunt locates the battlefield as a place where humans explore the parameters of human behaviour thought and emotion This book is an important resource for students and scholars interested in the psychology of trauma and war as well as military history Moments in Time Jim Keys, 2011-06-28 The fourth in the series purposes in time and in eternity This book is a must read for anyone who desires to lead with integrity and purpose It
