Many Colored Land 1st Edition:

Gender-Biased Sex Selection in South Korea, India and Vietnam Laura Rahm, 2019-07-18 This book provides an in depth analysis of the influence of public policy on sex selection Three Asian countries were chosen for the comparative policy analysis namely South Korea India and Vietnam that share in common a historical legacy of son preference high levels of sex imbalances and active policy response to curbing the growing demographic masculinization of their nations The research based on the data collected from field work in the three countries shows that despite the adoption of very similar anti sex selection policies the outcomes have been markedly different for each of the three countries These unexpected diverse outcomes are explained partly by their different historical and cultural contexts and partly to the different social political and economic institutions and dynamics This monograph offers careful and detailed explanations of both within and across country diversities in policy outcomes pointing to the importance and the limits of cross national policy learning and adoption and raising questions about the efficacy of international organizations current approaches to global policy and knowledge transfer

Science Fiction Literature through History Gary Westfahl, 2021-07-19 This book provides students and other interested readers with a comprehensive survey of science fiction history and numerous essays addressing major science fiction topics authors works and subgenres written by a distinguished scholar This encyclopedia deals with written science fiction in all of its forms not only novels and short stories but also mediums often ignored in other reference books such as plays poems comic books and graphic novels Some science fiction films television programs and video games are also mentioned particularly when they are relevant to written texts Its focus is on science fiction in the English language though due attention is given to international authors whose works have been frequently translated into English Since science fiction became a recognized genre and greatly expanded in the 20th century works published in the 20th and 21st centuries are most frequently discussed though important earlier works are not neglected The texts are designed to be helpful to numerous readers ranging from students first encountering science fiction to experienced scholars in the field

A Nation Gone Blind Eric Larsen, 2006-03-29 America's citizens seem plagued by despair and frustration much deeper today than the malaise President Jimmy Carter noted twenty years ago Our political and social cultures are driven by issues morally complex and yet presented with simple minded hostility What's the matter with Kansas What has happened to the once proud leader of the free world How secure is our future Does the republic stand or have we lost it already Born in 1941 novelist critic and teacher Eric Larsen sees his own lifetime as paralleling the arc of a national dissolution and in three penetrating essays he describes an increasingly desperate situation A blindness has set in he argues producing writers no longer able to write professors more harmful than helpful a replacement virtually nation wide of thinking with feeling while the population seems unable to grasp even the remotest outlines of such dangerous radical change In the tradition of George Orwell Upton Sinclair Paul Goodman and Christopher Lasch Larsen offers an impassioned critique of where we once were where we are and where

Davin,2006-01-01 Partners in Wonder revolutionizes our knowledge of women and early science fiction Davin finds that at least 203 female authors published over a thousand stories in science fiction magazines between 1926 and 1965 This work explores the distinctly different form of science fiction that females wrote offers a comprehensive bibliography of these works and provides biographies of 133 of these women authors The Golden Torc Julian May,1982-01-27 Second in the series that portrays one of the best thought out futures ever encountered in science fiction from the author of The Many Colored Land Joe Haldeman Six million years in the past a proto Europe is inhabited by two extraterrestrial races the chivalric Tanu and the dwarfish forest dwelling Firvulag both of which possess far reaching psychic powers But now time traveling humans from a future society have become involved in the age old struggle between the two One group of captured humans is brought to Muriah the stately capital of the Tanu kingdom Among them is Elizabeth Orme who was once in her own world a Grand Master Metapsychic In spite of Tanu harassment she begins to recover her lost powers The other human group which has managed to overcome its Tanu guards and escape into the northern forests includes Chief Burke a Native American and Felice Uindry an athlete gifted with certain psychic powers of her own This group with the ambiguous aid of the Firvulag determines to launch an attack against the very heart of Tanu dominance At the end of the Grand Combat tournament between Tanu and Firvulag comes the astonishing climax to this astonishing novel Praise for the Saga of Pliocene Exile Enchanting and engrossing I was captivated Fritz Leiber Julian May has woven a many colored tapestry of exotic adventure Roger Zelazny Action oriented and vivid Vonda McIntyre An amazing journey from the distant future to the distant past High adventure SFReviews net [Catalog of Copyright Entries.
