Sexscapes of Pleasure Elena Zambelli, 2022-11-11 Focusing on Italy this book discusses how women negotiate sexuality and social status in a Western sexscape constituted by multifaceted articulations of women s sexuality commodities and modernity Drawing from ethnographic research this book brings together the narratives of Italian and migrant women pole dancing for leisure women pole and lap dancing for work as well as women selling sex By tracing commonalities in women's processes of subjectivation and othering across the non sex working women divide the book foregrounds the intersecting structures of oppression under which women negotiate selfhood Special Issue Austin Sarat, 2016-02-17 This volume carefully examines the relationship between gender equality and power across an array of realms sex reproduction pleasure work money It identifies social political economic developmental and psychological and somatic forces operating both internally and externally that complicate the expression and constraint of power The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Sexuality Education, 2024-12-23 This Encyclopedia provides a comprehensive map of the field of sexuality education It offers an entry point for those interested in this topic providing a robust summary of issues and directing them to its best scholarship Comprehensive in scope it covers diverse global locations to highlight the significance of context when defining sexuality education The rapid development and increase in accessibility of digital technologies which has broadened sexuality education to include digital and media platforms is also reflected Masturbation in Pop Culture Lauren Rosewarne, 2014-10-15 Through reference to over six hundred scenes from film and television as well as a diverse and cross disciplinary academic bibliography Masturbation in Pop Culture investigates the role that masturbation serves within narratives while simultaneously mirroring our complicated relationship with the practice in real life and sparking discussions about a broad range of hot button sexual subjects From sitcoms to horror movies teen comedies to erotic thrillers autoeroticism is easily detected on screen The portrayal however is not a simple one Just as in real life a paradox exists where most of us masturbate and accept it as normal and natural there simultaneously exists a silence about it that we do it but we don't talk about it that we enjoy it but we laugh about it The screen reflects this conflicted relationship It is there hundreds and hundreds of times but it is routinely whispered about mocked and presented as a punchline and is inevitably portrayed as controversial at the very least Masturbation in Pop Culture investigates the embarrassment and squeamishness sexiness and inappropriateness of masturbation showcasing and analyzing how our complex off screen relationship is mirrored in film and television Techniques of Pleasure Margot Weiss, 2011-12-20 In this lively ethnography Weiss studies the pansexual BDSM community in the San Francisco Bay Area Weiss finds that BDSM practice is not as transgressive as the participants imagine nor is it simply reinforcing of older forms of social domination Instead she shows how fantasy play depends on pre existing social hierarchies even as it also participates in a commodification of desires Making Sense of AIDS Leslie Butt, Richard Eves, 2008-05-09 In Melanesia rates of HIV infection are among the highest in the Pacific and increasing rapidly with grave humanitarian development and political implications There is a great need for social research on HIV AIDS in the region to provide better insights into the sensitive issues surrounding HIV transmission This collection the first book on HIV and AIDS in the Pacific region gathers together stunning and original accounts of the often surprising ways that people make sense of the AIDS epidemic in various parts of Melanesia The volume addresses substantive issues concerning AIDS and contemporary sexualities relations of power and moralities themes that provide a powerful backdrop for twenty first century understandings of the tensions between sexuality religion and politics in many parts of the world Human Pharmaceuticals, Hormones and Fragrances Thomas Ternes, Adriano Joss, 2007-01-30 The observed concentrations of pharmaceuticals and personal care products PPCPs in raw wastewater confirm that municipal wastewater represents the main disposal pathway for the PPCPs consumed in households hospitals and industry In sewage treatment plant effluents most PPCPs are still present since many of these polar and persistent compounds are being removed only partially or in some cases not at all Treated wastewater therefore represents an important point source for PPCPs into the environment After passing a sewage treatment plant the treated wastewater is mostly discharged into rivers and streams or sometimes used to irrigate fields If drinking water is produced using resources containing a substantial proportion of treated wastewater e g from river water downstream of communities the water cycle is closed and indirect potable reuse occurs Human Pharmaceuticals Hormones and Fragrances provides an overview of the occurrence analytics removal and environmental risk of pharmaceuticals and personal care products in wastewater surface water and drinking water The book covers all aspects of the fate and removal of PPCPs in the whole water cycle consumption and occurrence analytical methods the legal background environmental risk assessment human and animal toxicology source control options wastewater and drinking water treatment as well as indirect reuse The book presents a summary of the results obtained during the EU project Poseidon combined with further expert knowledge on the field and is written at a level appropriate for professionals involved in management of water resource quality Professionals in the field including decision makers engineers and scientists as well as students entering the field will find this an invaluable source of information First comprehensive study on the assessment fate and removal of pharmaceuticals and personal care products in wastewater and drinking water treatment Emphasises the importance of micropollutants in the water cycle provides methods for quantifying their fate and technologies for their removal Sexualities in Context Rebecca Plante, 2014-11-13 Written in an accessible and clear manner Sexualities in Context presents focused overviews and explorations of some of the most timely issues in the social construction of sex This brief text is the only book of its kind to address sexualities from a social perspective Plante s analysis of the context of sexuality sexual behaviors and identities is both intelligent and readable With contemporary topics such as hooking up sexual fantasies and bisexualities along with examples of how to apply critical thinking students are empowered to think outside their comfort zones and encouraged to explore the topic of sex in a new context Paid to Party Jamie L. Mullaney, Janet Hinson Shope, 2012-01-31 On any given night in living rooms across America women gather for a fun girls night out to eat drink and purchase the latest products from Amway to Mary Kay cosmetics Beneath the party atmosphere lies a billion dollar industry Direct Home Sales DHS which is currently changing how women navigate work and family Drawing from numerous interviews with consultants and observations at company sponsored events Paid to Party takes a closer look at how DHS promises to change the way we think and feel about the struggles of balancing work and family Offering a new approach to a flexible work model DHS companies tell women they can in fact have it all and not feel guilty In DHS work time is not measured by the hands of the clock but by the emotional fulfillment and fun it brings
