Many Paths A Catholic Approach To Religious Pluralism:

Many Paths Eugene Hillman, 2008-06-01 In Many Paths Eugene Hillman a pioneer in the area of interreligious dialogue and Catholic thought argues that the wider ecumenism to which Christians were summoned by Vatican II may prove to be the most radically demanding of the Council's many calls. It requires a reexamination of christology of ecclesiology of missiology and a coming to terms with the reality of religious pluralism. By exploring religion's historico-cultural dimensions examining the Church's tradition and practice vis-à-vis other cultures and religions and explicating the challenges of a post-Vatican II ministry Many Paths makes a vital contribution to the development of interreligious dialogue. A Fundamental Theological Study of Radical Secularization and its Aftermath Alpo Penttinen, 2024-01-17 In the wake of various secularization processes a growing number of people in Western societies are now describing themselves as non-religious. But what does this sociological fact really mean for the Church and for society at large? Has human religiosity a future after secularization? It does, this book argues, but in a radically altered form. Taking its cue from Pope Francis's suggestion that globalizing humanity is presently living through a genuine epochal shift, this book presents an original analysis of the transformative effect of secularization on our spiritual predicament in the Western, now definitively post-Christian world. Instead of succumbing to the all too common polarizations in contemporary religious discourse, this book aspires to overcome the religious vs. secular dichotomy through developing the logic of Radical Secularization, arguably the genuine novelty of the particularly Western process of secularization. The past homogeneously religious culture is certainly dusking, but this only paves the way for the dawn of the future and radically open horizon for our human search for meaning. This challenging book will offer intellectual impulses and spiritual incentives to everybody who ponders the future of human religious evolution after secularization. The Catholic Tradition, Second Edition Timothy G. McCarthy, 2012-04-16 This expanded edition of a Loyola Press best seller traces profound changes in Catholicism's institutional, intellectual, and devotional life in this century. Organized by theme, authority, mission, social justice, sexual morality, and others, the book explains Church thinking prior to Vatican II, Church thinking now, and the how and why of Council changes. It shows the Church struggling to find the best way to maintain and hand on the Catholic tradition even as it engages in intrafaith and interreligious dialogue. A new chapter on women in the Church, their contributions, and issues completes the update.

African Religion in the Dialogue Debate Laurenti Magesa, 2010 Dialogue between African Religion and other world religions has regrettably been a much neglected area in formal religious discourse in Africa to date Moreover up to now the imperative of dialogue in the process of evangelism figures only peripherally if at all in the study of African Christian Theology This book is probably the first deliberate extensive and well argued attempt by an African theologian to fill this unfortunate lacuna How can Christian and African spiritualities interact with and enrich each other on the basis of mutual respect without as has historically been the case the one necessarily seeking to eradicate the other This is the fundamental question of dialogue discussed in the pages of this book Dr Laurenti Magesa is Senior Lecturer in African Theology at the Maryknoll Institute of African Studies and the Jesuit School of Theology Catholic University of Eastern Africa Nairobi Kenya

One Earth, Many Religions Paul F. Knitter, 1995 One of the world's foremost exponents of the pluralist position as the most adequate Christian theological account of religious diversity turns to a new and urgent issue facing the community of world religions For Paul Knitter the spectre of environmental and social injustice looms over any serious discussion of humankind's future As urgent as it is to have peace among the world's believers to achieve peace among nations it is urgent that these communities unite in understanding and defending of the earth In One Earth Many Religions Knitter looks back at his own dialogical odyssey and forward to the way that interfaith encounters and dialogue must focus attention on new challenges Nothing less than enlisting the commitment of the world's religions on the task of saving our common home will do In making that case

Knitter makes clear the complex structures political economic and social as well as religious that face those who approach this task While articulating a this worldly soteriology necessary to overcome our eco human plight Knitter offers practical considerations on actions and projects that have and should have been undertaken to stem the tide of environmental and human suffering The global crisis is both at the center of One Earth Many Religions and a test case for Knitter and others engaged in the dialogue of religions Can religious differences concerning the nature of the transcendent themselves be transcended in order to promote eco human well being The issue seems basic and clear if interreligious dialogue cannot effect such a change then one must question whether religion is of any use whatsoever

American Religious Leaders Timothy L. Hall, 2014-05-14 Profiles the lives and achievements of more than 270 spiritual leaders arranged alphabetically who made major contributions to the history of American religious life

Dialectics of Faith-Culture Integration Michael Muonwe, 2014-02-21 This book navigates the contours of cultural and theological hermeneutics in order to critique affirm as well as reconceptualise the vital underpinnings and subtleties of faith culture intercourse and reciprocation It questions claims to effective inculturation by theologians and church authorities even as it acknowledges the inevitability of the tension between inculturation process and syncretic formations It is an irresistible asset for teachers and students of theology cultural and religious studies for pastors and missionaries and for all Christians in need of finding Christian beliefs and practices more meaningful to them in their daily lives The hope is that it challenges the straitjacketed conceptual and pastoral frameworks that have often characterised the church's evangelisation initiatives and assists in making Christian faith a concrete and living possession of every age and culture Michael Muonwe is a priest of the Catholic diocese of Awka Nigeria He holds Licentiate and Doctorate in Theology and Religious Studies from the Catholic University of Leuven Belgium He obtained Bachelors in Philosophy from Bigard
