Many Tongues One People The Making Of Tharu Identity In Nepal:

Many Tongues, One People Arjun Guneratne, 2018-08-06 The Tharu of lowland Nepal are a group of culturally and linguistically diverse people who only a few generations ago would not have acknowledged each other as belonging to the same ethnic group Today the Tharu are actively redefining themselves as a single ethnic group in Nepal's multiethnic polity In Many Tongues One People Arjun Guneratne argues that shared cultural symbols including religion language and common myths of descent are not a necessary condition for the existence of a shared sense of peoplehood. The many diverse and distinct socio cultural groups sharing the name Tharu have been brought together Guneratne asserts by a common relationship to the state and a shared experience of dispossession and exploitation that transcends their cultural differences Tharu identity the author shows has developed in opposition to the activities of a modernizing centralizing state and through interaction with other ethnic groups that have immigrated to the Tarai region where the Tharu live This books claims have wide implications for the study of ethnic identity and are applicable far beyond Nepal The emergence of the category of Native American for example may be considered an analogous case because that ethnic identity like the Tharu subsumes people of different cultural origin and has been defined both through the state and against it The Bullet and the Ballot Box Aditya Adhikari, 2014-10-07 The Bullet and the Ballot Box offers a rich and sweeping account of a decade of revolutionary upheaval When Nepal's Maoists launched their armed rebellion in the nineties they had limited public support and many argued that their ideology was obsolete Twelve years later they were in power and their ambitious plan of social transformation dominated the national agenda How did this become possible Adhikari s narrative draws on a broad range of sources including novels letters and diaries to illuminate the history and human drama of the Maoist revolution An indispensible account of Nepal's recent history the book offers a fascinating case study of how communist ideology has been reinterpreted and translated into political action in the twenty first century Nation-Building and Federalism in Nepal Krishna Hachhethu, 2023-06-08 Nation Building and Federalism in Nepal primarily deals with the presentation and elucidation of identity based federalism a unique concept and a novel form of federalism The most notable source of first hand information was garnered through the author's involvement in constitution making by proxy as a member of the High Level State Restructuring Recommendation Commission and as a facilitator of several interaction programmes conducted in dialogue form that is dialogues with citizens stakeholders members of the Constituent Assembly office bearers within political parties intra party and leaders across the parties inter party This book therefore discusses these issues and helps provide insights into the politics behind the parties shifting positions on contentious issues related to the constitution at the time of its making understand better the conflicting aspirations from and competing perceptions of restructuring the Nepali state among the people from different ethnic backgrounds and capture the role played by intermediate agencies at a critical time of its constitution making 2006 2015 A History of Nepal John Whelpton, 2005-02-17 A comprehensive and accessible

Maycock,2018-12-07 South Asia is the region with the highest number of slaves globally according to the Global Slavery Index Bonded labour affects between 15 and 20 million labourers within the region and is shaped by locally specific interconnections between ethnicity class caste and critically gender structures Masculinity and Modern Slavery in Nepal explores the role of masculinity in shaping the structures and experience of slavery and subsequent freedom While many I NGOs and human rights organisations use freedom from slavery as a powerful and emotive goal the lived reality of freedom for many bonded labourers often results in disappointment and frustration as they navigate diverse expectations of masculinity Taking Nepal as a case study the book illustrates how men s gendered experiences of bondedness and freedom can inform perspectives on the transition to freedom and modernity in South Asia more broadly Researchers of modern slavery gender studies and South Asian studies will be interested in the rich analysis on offer in this book The Maoist Insurgency in Nepal Mahendra Lawoti, Anup Kumar Pahari, 2009-10-13 The book deals with the dynamics and growth of a violent 21st century communist rebellion initiated by the Communist Party of Nepal Maoist explaining the different causes factors that contributed to its growth strategies employed by the rebels and the state and the consequences of the insurgency

Living Language Laura M. Ahearn, 2016-10-06 Revised and updated the 2nd Edition of Living Language An Introduction to Linguistic Anthropology presents an accessible introduction to the study of language in real life social contexts around the world through the contemporary theory and practice of linguistic anthropology Presents a highly accessible introduction to the study of language in real life social contexts around the world Combines classic studies on language and cutting edge contemporary scholarship and assumes no prior knowledge in linguistics or anthropology Features a series of updates and revisions for this new edition including an all new chapter on forms of nonverbal language Provides a unifying synthesis of current research and considers future directions for the field Towards A Democratic Nepal Mahendra Lawoti, 2005-02-17 Providing a comprehensive critique of the Constitution adopted in 1990 this book identifies it as an important factor in the exclusion of various ethnic and minority groups It examines the causes for the lack of democratic consolidation in Nepal and outlines alternative institutions that can give voice to the various socio cultural groups in the country Dr Lawoti makes a case for setting up a new Constituent Assembly and for following the principle of self determination to reform the polity He also makes several important recommendations for the construction of an inclusive and democratic Nepal Anthropological Perspectives on Education in Nepal Karen Valentin, Uma Pradhan, 2022-12-31 What is education and who counts as an educated person amidst competing religious political and pedagogical ideologies which have shaped contemporary educational practices and institutions in Nepal How have social and political changes an increasing commodification of education a continued reliance on foreign aid and expanded geographical horizons contributed to a reshaping of the educational landscape of Nepal and thereby altered opened up and closed avenues of learning available to the Nepali people

Grounded in the intersection between anthropology sociology and development studies and based on rich ethnographic evidence the essays in this edited volume illuminate educational transformations and avenues of learning in the context of wider social and political changes in Nepal They capture diverse and competing educational experiences and trajectories examine the process of construction and transmission of knowledge in different sites within and beyond institutions of formal education and explore the interconnections between education state and society Planning Families in Nepal Jan Brunson, 2016-03-29 Based on almost a decade of research in the Kathmandu Valley Planning Families in Nepal offers a compelling account of Hindu Nepali women as they face conflicting global and local ideals regarding family planning Promoting a two child norm global family planning programs have disseminated the slogan A small family is a happy family throughout the global South Jan Brunson examines how two generations of Hindu Nepali women negotiate this global message of a two child family and a more local need to produce a son Brunson explains that while women did not prefer sons to daughters they recognized that in the dominant patrilocal family system their daughters would eventually marry and be lost to other households As a result despite recent increases in educational and career opportunities for daughters mothers still hoped for a son who would bring a daughter in law into the family and care for his aging parents Mothers worried about whether their modern rebellious sons would fulfill their filial duties but ultimately those sons demonstrated an enduring commitment to living with their aging parents In the context of rapid social change related to national politics as well as globalization a constant influx of new music clothes gadgets and even governments the sons viewed the multigenerational family as a refuge Throughout Planning Families in Nepal Brunson raises important questions about the notion of planning when applied to family formation arguing that reproduction is better understood as a set of local and global ideals that involve actors with desires and actions with constraints wrought with delays stalling and improvisation Paradise Lost? Ali Riaz, Subho Basu, 2007-01-01 Paradise Lost examines the state society relationships in Nepal and demonstrates that the nature of the state disjuncture between the state and the society and the rupture of the ideological hegemony of the ruling class of Nepal have created a situation where existing institutional frameworks are disintegrating and the state is rapidly unraveling Dr Ali Riaz and Dr Subho Basu analyze the roles of ethnicity identity and deprivation in engendering discontent and the rise of the Maoists as a formidable political force Mindful of the geo strategic importance of the country this book contextualizes these domestic developments within the post 9 11 global world Jointly authored by a political scientist and a historian this book brings together structural and historical perspectives Written in an engaging language Paradise Lost will appeal to political scientists historians sociologists and those interested in current affairs Unstable Constitutionalism Mark Tushnet, Madhav Khosla, 2015-09-17 Although the field of constitutional law has become increasingly comparative in recent years its geographic focus has remained limited South Asia despite being the site of the world's largest democracy and a vibrant if turbulent constitutionalism is one of the important neglected regions within the field This book remedies this lack of attention by providing a detailed examination of constitutional law and practice in five South Asian countries India Pakistan Sri Lanka Nepal and Bangladesh Identifying a common theme of volatile change it develops the concept of unstable constitutionalism studying the sources of instability alongside reactions and responses to it By highlighting unique theoretical and practical questions in an underrepresented region Unstable Constitutionalism constitutes an important step toward truly global constitutional scholarship The Oxford Handbook of Caste ,2023-10-31 Beginning with the 1990s the subject of caste has seen a profound increase in interest among scholars What was until then approached as a fossilized tradition of the ritual obsessed Hindus refusing to see the progressive spirits of the emerging world and studied as a branch of anthropology suddenly began to be seen as a complex reality deeply embedded in a range of institutions and social practices attracting scholars from a wide range of disciplines sociology political science history literature and even economics Underlying this opening of the subject of caste were many factors epistemic empirical and political Caste is no longer approached through the classical binaries of traditional and modern the East and the West or the closed and open systems of stratification With the growing consolidation of caste based identities among those ranked lower down in the hierarchy since the 1990s raising questions of citizenship and dignity the subject has acquired a new salience As the emerging research shows the realities of caste on the ground have always been diverse across regions often contested and ever changing This Handbook presents a wide range of essays written by authors representing diverse academic disciplines and perspectives bringing together the emerging trends in the research imaginations and lived realities of caste Across Divides Anna Marie Stirr, 2017-09-29 An ethnographic study of music performance migration and circulation Singing Across Divides examines how forms of love and intimacy are linked to changing conceptions of political solidarity and forms of belonging through the lens of Nepali dohori song The book describes dohori improvised dialogic singing in which a witty repartee of exchanges is based on poetic couplets with a fixed rhyme scheme often backed by instrumental music and accompanying dance performed between men and women with a primary focus on romantic love The book tells the story of dohori's relationship with changing ideas of Nepal as a nation state and how different nationalist concepts of unity have incorporated marginality in the intersectional arenas of caste indigeneity class gender and regional identity Dohori gets at the heart of tensions around ethnic caste and gender difference as it promotes potentially destabilizing musical and poetic interactions love sex and marriage across these social divides In the aftermath of Nepal's ten year civil war changing political realities increased migration and circulation of people media and practices are redefining concepts of appropriate intimate relationships and their associated systems of exchange Through multi-sited ethnography of performances media production circulation reception and the daily lives of performers and fans in Nepal and the UK Singing Across Divides examines how people use dohori to challenge and uphold social categories while also creating affective solidarities Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict in Nepal Mahendra Lawoti, Susan Hangen, 2013 Ethnic and nationalist movements surged forward in Nepal after restoration of democracy in 1990 This book analyses the rise in ethnic mobilization the dynamics and trajectories of these movements and their consequences for Nepal Realities and Aspirations for Asian Youth Suzanne Naafs, Tracey Skelton, 2020-06-09 This comprehensive volume explores the remarkable expansion of higher education systems and institutions in Asia in recent decades alongside changing forms of consumerism mobility and global economic conditions It demonstrates how recent changes in training education and employment have sparked new aspirations for possible and desirable livelihoods among the younger generation while also generating fresh problems and tensions The authors in this volume critically interrogate the links between education and employment normative understandings about youth and adulthood as well as personal national and regional level aspirations for economic success Comparative chapters on Cambodia China Hong Kong India Indonesia Japan Laos Nepal Singapore and Taiwan illustrate how young people are having to forge innovative pathways into the future while being confronted with ever increasing insecurities Offering important insights into the kinds of education and employment landscapes that Asian youth are navigating reworking or trying to avoid this collection is an essential reference for students and scholars of Asian Studies Cultural Anthropology Development Studies Human Geography and Youth Studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Children's Life, Illness, and Death in Contemporary South Asia Matsuo Mizuho, Nakamura Sae, Funahashi Geographies Kenta, 2023-02-22 This book explores the experiential and affective dimensions of structural transformation in South Asia through contemporary and historical accounts of life ageing illness and death The contributions to this book include analyses from various regions in South Asia and topics discussed uncover how people's experiences of life ageing illness and death are entangled with the technology of governance biomedicine neoliberal restructuring and other national international policies Structured in three parts governance technology and citizenship well being and restructuring of the social waiting hesitation and hope as attitudes in facing the precariousness and fundamental uncertainty of life the book brings to light the ways in which people face and continue to engage with their own and others lives cautiously waveringly but with a sense of hope A novel contribution to the study of how people struggle or navigate their lives through the conditions of inequity and precariousness in South Asia this book will be of interest to researchers studying anthropology sociology history medical and development studies of South Asia as well as to those interested in cultural and social theory Governing Biodiversity through Democratic Deliberation Mikko Rask, Richard Worthington, 2015-05-15 This book discusses political controversies involved in global biodiversity policy and the practical opportunities that are opened up in solving them through increased citizen participation and democratic deliberation It examines the emerging practice of deliberative global governance and its political consequences The collection focuses on the intersection of global biodiversity policy and the promise of deliberative democracy In doing so it examines how new discursive logics emerge in global citizen deliberation that might destabilize the impasses encountered in biodiversity negotiations how a global citizens voice emerges in deliberative processes despite the dominance of national institutions in the lives of those citizens the most effective and innovative ways to amplify the results of large scale deliberations to policy makers and broader audiences and how future citizen deliberations can be designed to make them fair feasible and consequential processes in general and for biodiversity issues in particular This highly original contribution to the field provides theoretical discussions empirical analyses and local experiences of biodiversity policy making it an invaluable resource for students and scholars of environmental politics governance and sociology particularly those interested in deliberative democracy citizen participation and biodiversity Modern Slavery and Bonded Labour in South Asia Elena Samonova, 2019-04-01 This book investigates one of the most pervasive forms of modern slavery bonded labour whereby labour is linked with a credit agreement leaving a debtor bound to repay their debt through long term servitude Drawing on cases from Nepal and India the author adopts a human rights based approach interpreting slavery as a violation of human rights and focusing on the empowerment of slaves as rights holders Ultimately the book aims to explore the links between rights power inequality and oppression and to uncover ways to achieve the full liberation of bonded labourers Identifying the factors and forces that contribute to and reinforce the situation of bonded labour in South Asia the book demonstrates how systems of bonded labour are connected to long term processes of colonisation dispossession migration nationalisation of natural resources and the introduction of private land ownership Despite the fact that the United Nations has reported debt bondage as the most prevalent form of forced labour worldwide there it is still little known about the real practical impacts of this approach to the lives of marginalised people Based on extensive ethnographic research this book will be a useful guide to students and scholars of modern slavery international development and South Asian studies
