Manyeyed Landscapes:

Hierophantic Landscapes Richard Leviton, 2011-09-26 The Earth is poised to make a great disclosure Its a hierophant But whats a hierophant A person who reveals the holy light But it can also be a landscape or a planet And whats the holy light It is the structure of reality and consciousness a map of the heavenly realms the engineering blueprint of Creation Some people call this imminent disclosure the Apocalypse and run for cover But that is mistaken Apocalypse means the revelation of the divine revelation It means the end of our picture of the world as we know it The world itself will be fine even better than fine Splendid Illumined The Architect of reality lays down His cards face up and you see the whole deck Here is the truth of yourself and the Earth How will this disclosure work What we call sacred sites and holy landscapes will start revealing themselves in full to us in all their geomantic and visionary richness Thats the inner patterning of their design their arrays of Light temples and subtle palaces primed for our visionary adventures and edification The Earth needs us to have these adventures and visions because thats how we keep the planet healthy Hierophantic Landscapes visits five landscapes from Norway and England to California and Mexico providing firsthand reports on the visions and adventures of a small band of geomancers as they seek to unravel the mysteries of the Earth Maybe not such a small band because along the way we encounter angels landscape devas Nature Spirits and otherworldly mentors and revel in vistas of the ancient past of the Earth when that revelation was as fresh as a sunrise as it will soon be again Wire Dancing Patricia Sykes, 1999 Circus as drama and risk as exuberance and irrepressible spirit is the central metaphor Patricia Sykes uses to open a world where public and private share the same tightrope The poems speak of women searching for footholds along the spectrums of politics power history culture and relationships Theirs are performances of celebration and hope as they wire dance through circumcision and incest madness and suicide genocide and war There is passion and resistance hot comedy and fire in the belly Falling is the first victory balance is the ultimate skill Road Of Stars To Santiago Edward F. Stanton, 2021-10-21 In the tradition of Colin Fletcher s The Man Who Walked Through Time and William Least Heat Moon s Blue Highways Edward F Stanton has written a quietly beautiful and engrossing account of his own pilgrimage Road of Stars to Santiago is a personal story of his journey along what has been called the premier cultural route of Europe I undertook a five hundred mile walk along the ancient Camino de Santiago from the French Pyrenees to Santiago de Compostella in northwest Spain the supposed burial site of the apostle St James the Elder and beyond to Finisterre Land s End on the Atlantic coast On my journey I followed the old road whenever possible passing through mountains medieval forests and remote villages as well as modern towns and cities I slept in fields abandoned schools or wherever I could on a thirty day trip that brought me into contact with a whole cross section of Spanish society and with pilgrims from France Belgium Holland Germany and England Most of the book has to do with my own trials and joys on the Road the physical struggle to walk about twenty miles a day in the heat or rain to find a place to eat and sleep with the psychological changes that take place when one leaves home family and routine with the contradictions inherent to a pilgrimage in the late twentieth century with experiences that ranged from the spiritual to the picaresque with the people I met on the way from shepherds and peasants to astrologers and philosophers There are plenty of humorous situations and unexpected turns Edward F Stanton Books in Print ,1991

Landscape and the Visual Hermeneutics of Place, 1500-1700 Karl A.E. Enenkel,Walter Melion,2020-12-29 This volume examines the image based methods of interpretation that pictorial and literary landscapists employed between 1500 and 1700 The seventeen essays ask how landscape construed as the description of place in image and or text more than merely inviting close viewing was often seen to call for interpretation or better for the application of a method or principle of interpretation Contributors Boudewijn Bakker William M Barton Stijn Bussels Reindert Falkenburg Margaret Goehring Andrew Hui Sarah McPhee Luke Morgan Shelley Perlove Kathleen P Long Lukas Reddemann Denis Ribouillault Paul J Smith Troy Tower and Michel Weemans The Windsor Magazine ,1908 Teens and the New Religious Landscape Jacob Stratman,2018-08-28 How are teenagers religious experiences shown in today s young adult literature How do authors use religious texts and beliefs to add depth to characters settings and plots How does YA fiction place itself in the larger conversation regarding religion Modern YA fiction does not shy away from the dilemmas and anxieties teenagers face today While many stories end with the protagonist in a state of flux if not despair some authors choose redemption or reconciliation This collection of new essays explores these issues and more with a focus on stories in which characters respond to a new often shifting religious landscape in both realistic and fantastic worlds Directory of American Poetry Books ,1995

The Five Senses Michel Serres, 2016-10-20 Marginalized by the scientific age the lessons of the senses have been overtaken by the dominance of language and the information revolution With The Five Senses Serres traces a topology of human perception writing against the Cartesian tradition and in praise of empiricism he demonstrates repeatedly and lyrically the sterility of systems of knowledge divorced from bodily experience The fragile empirical world long resistant to our attempts to contain and catalog it is disappearing beneath the relentless accumulations of late capitalist society and information technology Data has replaced sensory pleasure we are less interested in the taste of a fine wine than in the description on the bottle s label What are we and what do we really know when we have forgotten that our senses can describe a taste more accurately than language ever could The book won the inaugural Prix M dicis Essai in 1985 The

Revelations edition includes an introduction by Steven Connor      Color and Culture John Gage,2025-01-28 A groundbreaking award winning analysis of color in Western culture from the ancient Greeks to the late twentieth century by one of the most foremost authors on the subject What does the language of color tell us Where does one color begin and another end Is it a radiant visual stimulus an intangible function of light or a material substance to be molded and arrayed Color is fundamental to art yet so diverse that it has hardly ever been studied in a comprehensive way Art historian John Gage considers every conceivable aspect of the subject in this groundbreaking analysis of color in Western culture from the ancient Greeks to the late twentieth century Gage describes the first theories of color articulated by Greek philosophers and subsequent attempts by the Romans and their Renaissance disciples to organize it systematically or endow it with symbolic power He unfolds its religious significance and its use in heraldry as well as how Renaissance artists approached color with the help of alchemists He explores the analysis of the spectrum undertaken by Isaac Newton and continued in the nineteenth century by artists such as Georges Seurat traces the influence of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe s color theory and considers the extraordinary theories and practices that attempted to unite color and music or make color into an entirely abstract language of its own A seminal undertaking to suggest answers to many perennial questions about the role of color in Western art and thought Color and Culture throws fresh light on the hidden meanings of many familiar masterpieces      The Making of a Mystic Evelyn Underhill,2024-03-18 Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 achieved international fame with the publication of her book Mysticism in 1911 Continuously in print since its original publication Mysticism remains Underhill s most famous work but in the course of her long career she published nearly forty books including three novels and three volumes of poetry as well as numerous poems in periodicals She was the religion editor for Spectator a friend of T S Eliot her influence is visible in his last masterpiece Four Quartets and the first woman invited to lecture on theology at Oxford University Her interest in religion extended beyond her Anglican upbringing to embrace the world s religions and their common spirituality In time for the centennial celebration of her classic Mysticism this volume of Underhill s letters will enable readers and researchers to follow her as she reconciled her beliefs with her daily life The letters reveal her personal and theological development and clarify the relationships that influenced her life and work Hardly aloof she enjoyed the interests mirth and compassion of close friendships Drawing from collections previously unknown to scholars The Making of a Mystic shows the range of Evelyn Underhill's mind and interests as well as the immense network of her correspondents including Sir James Frazier and Nobel Prize laureate Rabindranath Tagore This substantial selection of Underhill's correspondence demonstrates an exceptional scope beginning with her earliest letters from boarding school to her mother and extending to a letter written to T S Eliot from what was to be her deathbed in London in 1941 as the London Blitz raged around her The Malahat Review, 1978
