Americans and Their Land Anne Mackin, 2006. Publisher Description Map Guide to American Migration Routes, 1735-1815 Bill Dollarhide, 1998* New York State Censuses and Substitutes William Dollarhide, 2006. Census records and name lists for New York are found mostly at the county level which is why this work shows precisely which census records or census substitutes exist for each of New York's sixty-two counties and where they can be found. In addition to the numerous statewide official censuses taken by New York this work contains references to census substitutes and name lists for time periods in which the state did not take an official census. It also shows the location of copies of federal census records and provides county boundary maps and numerous state census facsimiles and extraction forms.

Getting Started in Genealogy Online William Dollarhide, 2006. Designed as a beginner's guide its 64 pages pack more clout than any 64 pages ever written on the subject of online genealogy. If you ever wanted to trace your family tree online this book will help you do it.

Three Dobbins Generations at Frontiers Robert Z. Callahan, James F. McConnell, 2012-01-01. James Dobbins b 1740 Ireland story begins in Augusta Co Va. James and Elizabeth Stephenson Dobbins spent their formative years were married and began their family. Their sons Robert Boyd and John were b 1783-85. The family migrated to Abbeville Pendleton SC. James Elizabeth had seven children. Four daughters and their husbands were Mary w John H Morris emigrated to Franklin Co TN. Elizabeth w George H Hillhouse emig to Giles Co Lawrence Co TN. Sarah w Hugh F Callahan emig to St Clair Co Ala. Jane w George Liddell emig to Noxubee Co Winston Co MS. Their last born James Jr b 1790 died young at home. They their spouses families were Scotch Irish settlers in backcountry of SC. Ten families representing two generations were pioneers and products of history geography and culture of frontiers in SC. Six children migrated west north south to new frontiers. Grandchildren of James Elizabeth became the third Dobbins generation at farther frontiers.

Raised Country Style from South Carolina to Mississippi Bettye B. Burkhalter, 2010-03-31. The saga continues with Dr Burels children moving west. His son James led the Mississippi bound wagons from South Carolina into another untamed frontier. Their first Christmas in Attalaville Mississippi was a grand celebration of their newfound life only to have the New Year bring tragedy.

Mississippi's Golden Years brought prosperity to the pioneers as landowners and independent farmers. Too soon the Civil War swept across their land leaving King Cotton reeling and survivors coping with shattered lives. Sympathetic eyes of the world watched as they searched for ways to survive the aftermath of total war. Lisbeth Burel struggled with the heartbreak of losing the war, her husband James, and her youngest son. Bracing to survive post-war defeat and economic ruin, Lisbeth and her oldest son learned to cope with the nagging pain and hatred of a useless war. With the burden of the world on William Riley's back, he turned to God and self-reliance to get them through the bleak future. Recovery was slow and families joined hands to plant new fields of cotton, corn, and sorghum cane. Thirty years of worry and hard work turned William into an old, sick man long before his time. On a cold October morning, the stooped and frail man shuffled toward the sugarcane mill and furnace. Assuring the old family recipe and tradition continued, he taught his grandson how to cook molasses to be as smooth as silk. A couple months later, Williams' family celebrated the biggest Christmas since the war. Sadly, two days later, the celebration was marred as his thirteen proud children mourned the loss of their Pa. After the war, William Riley took great pain to instill the belief that they and their kind were the moral fiber offering the best hope for rebuilding the New South. And they were.

Everton's Genealogical Helper, 2001-07 Puritans, Patriots and Pioneers: An Elwell Family History Frank Bevc, 2016-05-12 Like leaves in the wind, the lives of seven generations of the Elwell family were driven by early American history to both progress and peril. Back cover British Atlantic, American Frontier Stephen John Hornsby, 2005 A pioneering work in Atlantic studies that emphasizes a transnational approach to the past Benjamin Lightbourne/Lightburn of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania and His Descendants Robert C. Lightburn, 2019-03-16 I first became interested in genealogy when I was about twelve. It was then that my paternal grandmother first introduced me to a book entitled Genealogy of the Fell Family in America. Descended from Joseph Fell, this book which was published in 1891 included my grandfather, Charles McConnell Lightburn. I was struck by the time span covered by the book, nearly three hundred years, and was fascinated by the fact that all of the people in that book were related to one another and to me, either by blood or marriage. My grandmother later gave me that book, and it became the first book in my genealogical library. My grandfather and my great aunt Mary told me that their father had fought for the North during the Civil War by the side of his older brother who was a brigadier general. This fascinated me. They also told me that there was a town in West Virginia called Lightburn. I couldn't wait to find it on a map. My own genealogical research did not begin until the late 1970s when I requested the Civil War records of my great grandfather, Calvin Luther Lightburn, and his brothers from the National Archives. During the 1980s I continued my research, albeit at a very low level of activity. It was not until the early 1990s when I moved to the Washington, DC area that I became intensively involved in, some might even say addicted to, genealogy. The resources in the Washington, DC area are extensive, and I ended up spending many happy and sometimes frustrating hours conducting research in the National Archives Library of Congress and the library of the Daughters of the American Revolution By 1999 I had amassed a great deal of genealogical information most of which was stuffed in cardboard boxes I was encouraged to put what I had on paper by Faye M Brown Lightburn who had published her book Revolutionary Soldier Samuel Brown and Some of his Family in 1993 So after attending several related sessions at the National Genealogical Society Conference in the States which was held that year in Providence Rhode Island I finally screwed up my courage and plunged in I published the original book in 2003 This book is the second and probably last edition Genealogy Bulletin,1998
