Mapping The Language Of Racism:

Mapping the Language of Racism Margaret Wetherell, Jonathan Potter, 1992 Explores racism and issues of social structure power relations and ideology Part 1 provides the theoretical framework within which representations of race can be studied part 2 an empirical illustration from New Zealand of the arguments of part 1      White Supremacy and Racism in the Post-civil Rights Era Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, 2001 Is a racial structure still firmly in place in the United States White Supremacy and Racism answers that question with an unequivocal yes describing a contemporary system that operates in a covert subtle institutional and superficially nonracial fashion Assessing the major perspectives that social analysts have relied on to explain race and racial relations Bonilla Silva labels the post civil rights ideology as color blind racism a system of social arrangements that maintain white privilege at all levels His analysis of racial politics in the United States makes a compelling argument for a new civil rights movement rooted in the race class needs of minority masses multiracial in character and focused on attaining substantive rather than formal equality      Discourse Sara Mills, 2004 Offering an accessible analysis of the term discourse this second edition is updated to include new advances in critical discourse analysis coverage of theorists such as Zizek and Bourdieu and a revised section on social psychology      Political Languages of Race and the Politics of Exclusion Andy R. Brown, 2018-08-16 First published in 1999 Political Languages of Race and the Politics of Exclusion examines the post race signification logic of languages used to promote and achieve the exclusion and stigmatisation of migrant groups within post war Britain Re examining the time of Smethwick and Powellism as well as extensive Parliamentary debates this book develops an original thesis to show how Backbench racism became legitimated as Frontbench commonsense The book argues that the achievement of the success of post war Parliamentary racism has been made possible by the development of a ubiquitously anecdotal narrative of the travails of the Forgotten Englishman awoken to a multi cultural nightmare in Britain's decaying inner cities While the concept of race has remained under erasure the logic of post race signification discourse has allowed the re making of racism in public Britain      The International Encyclopedia of Language and Social Interaction, 3 Volume Set Cornelia Ilie, Todd Sandel, 2015-06-08 The International Encyclopedia of Language and Social Interaction is an invaluable reference work featuring contributions from leading global scholars available both online and as a three volume print set The definitive international reference work on a topic of major and increasing importance in a new series of sub disciplinary international encyclopedias Provides state of the art research for scholars in a highly interactive and accessible format available both online and as a three volume print set Covers key research topics in the field with contributions from a team of experienced global editors Successfully brings into a single source explication of all of the fascinating and ground breaking Language and Social Interaction work developing globally and across subjects Part of The Wiley Blackwell ICA International Encyclopedias of Communication series published in conjunction with the International Communication Association Online version available at www.wileyicaencyclopedia.com

The Routledge International Handbook of Discrimination, Prejudice and Stereotyping Cristian Tileagă, Martha Augoustinos, Kevin Durrheim, 2021-08-29 This handbook explores prejudice stereotyping and discrimination primarily as phenomena embedded in the social organization of societies and connected to structural factors and larger societal systems It offers a unique critical and cross disciplinary approach to the study of contemporary manifestations of prejudice stereotyping and discrimination New socio psychological analyses of the most pressing social problems of our age bring into view future directions of research on prejudice stereotyping and discrimination oriented to social change and collective action and that engage with wider systems of norms and discourse The editors draw on social psychology sociology social policy clinical psychology cultural studies and feminist antiracist and decolonizing social science to show how social psychology can successfully rekindle its intellectual dialogue with kindred social science fields to create broader foundations for the exploration of the paradoxes lodged at the heart of the social expression of prejudice in liberal democracies This is essential reading for anyone interested in prejudice discrimination and stereotypes The handbook will be of interest to academics and researchers exploring both the quantitative and qualitative aspects of discrimination inequality and social exclusion as well as students undertaking masters or doctoral studies in social psychology political psychology and political science

Ethnonational Identities S. Fenton, S. May, 2002-10-01 The prominence of ethnonational identities and movements is of increasing interest and concern in today's world But the nature and importance of these identities remain ill understood Ethnonational Identities breaks significant new ground by exploring the complex dimensions of ethnonational identity claims their political mobilisation and a wide variety of comparative contexts in which they are found Including case studies from the Qu'ba'is to the Mori and from Kashmiri nationalism to interethnic competition in the Caribbean it should be read by all those with an interest or involvement in the fields of ethnicity nationalism and identity politics

Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies Ellis Cashmore, 2004-03-01 Developed from the critically acclaimed and commercially successful Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations now in its fourth edition Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies has been assembled by a world class team of international scholars led by Ellis Cashmore to provide an authoritative single volume reference work on all aspects of race and ethnic studies From Aboriginal Australians to xenophobia Nelson Mandela to Richard Wagner sexuality to racial profiling the Encyclopedia is organized alphabetically and reflects cultural diversity in a global context The entries range from succinct 400 word definitions to in depth 2000 word essays to provide comprehensive coverage of all the key terms concepts and debates important figures both historical and contemporary landmark cases historical events Although unafraid to engage with cutting edge theory the Encyclopedia is uncluttered by jargon and has been written in a lucid facts fronted style to offer an accessible introduction to race and ethnic studies The Encyclopedia is also fully cross referenced and thoroughly indexed with most entries followed by annotated up to date suggestions for further reading to guide the user to the key sources It is destined to become an essential resource for scholars and students of race and ethnic studies as well as a handy reference for journalists and others working in the field      Rethinking Methods in Psychology Jonathan A Smith, Rom Harré, Luk Van Langenhove, 1995-09-07 The recent widespread rejection of conventional theory and method has led to the evolution of different ways of gathering and analyzing data This accessible textbook introduces key research methods that challenge psychology's traditional preoccupation with scientific experiments The book provides a well structured guide to methods containing a range of qualitative approaches for example semi structured interviews grounded theory discourse analysis alongside a reworking of quantitative methods to suit contemporary psychological research A number of chapters are also explicitly concerned with research as a dynamic interactive process The internationally respected contributors steer the reader through the main stages      Rethinking Society in the 21st Century, Fourth Edition Kate Bezanson, Michelle Webber, 2016-09-01 Rethinking Society in the 21st Century is a critical collection of readings that provides students with a foundational knowledge base in sociology The fourth edition has been thoroughly updated to include significant Canadian content with a greater focus on indigeneity gender and sexuality and a new section dedicated to social movements social change and emerging fields This anthology introduces students to the fundamental elements of sociology with a balance of classical theory Marx Weber Durkheim Mills and more contemporary approaches found in the works of Michel Foucault and Dorothy Smith Building on this theoretical grounding the text outlines core concepts in sociology as well as major social institutions such as families the economy and labour education health care and media Covering a wide breadth of topics including chapters on animals the environment crime trans issues class ethnicity and race this new edition explores critical debates in Canadian society with an emphasis on intersectional approaches to social inequalities This volume is rich with pedagogical features that promote critical understanding including detailed introductions that speak to the contextual history of the source material and discussion questions for each section Uniquely designed for introductory courses Rethinking Society in the 21st Century is the ideal reader for Canadian students of sociology      Psychology and History Cristian Tileagă, Jovan Byford, 2014-02-20 Exploring the relationship between psychology and history this book considers how the disciplines could benefit from a closer dialogue      The Social Psychology of Ethnic Identity Maykel Verkuyten, 2004-12 In contrast to other disciplines social psychology has been slow in responding to the questions posed by the issue of ethnicity The Social Psychology of Ethnic Identity demonstrates the important contribution that psychology can make The central aim of this book is to show on the one hand that social psychology can be used to develop a better understanding of ethnicity and on the other hand that increased attention to ethnicity can benefit social psychology filling in theoretical and empirical gaps Based on recent research The Social Psychology of Ethnic Identity brings an original approach to subjects such as ethnic minority identity place space and time hyphenated identities and hybridity self descriptions and the ethnic self The combination of diverse approaches to this burgeoning field will be of interest to social psychologists as well as those interested in issues of identity ethnicity and migration      Social Psychology Jane Callaghan, Lisa Lazard, 2011-08-01
