Mapping World Communication War Progress Culture:

Mapping World Communication Armand Mattelart, 1994 The task of this book is to reconstruct the genealogy of the sphere of world communication We will follow a multidimensional approach analyzing the ways in which technologies and networks have taken root since the nineteenth century and have ceaselessly pushed back to light the concepts doctrines theories and controversies that have marked the construction of the scientific field known as international communications

Global Communications Paula Chakravartty, Yuezhi Zhao, 2007-08-29 This provocative book takes a new approach toward understanding the uneven flows of global communications Rather than guiding its discussion by geography types of media or traditional separations of power and resistance Global Communications examines political economic power and communication in relation to historically specific encounters with modernity It underscores lived experiences in its approach to globalization showing that the state and the market can both be sites of empowerment just as civil society might also be a site of repression Taking a political economic analysis of communication and culture this dynamic group of international authors looks beyond developments in the North American information and culture industries to map new forms of citizenship and exclusion The chapters spotlight China Ghana India Japan Palestine Russia Singapore and Venezuela and foreground the transnational formations of the European Union the pan Arab and Spanish speaking markets and civil society actors in sub Saharan African the Middle East and North America Theoretically driven and empirically grounded Global Communications defines communication broadly to include production circulation and consumption and addresses urgent questions about the inequalities of globalization and the possibilities of hybrid cultural forms and practices Brick by

Brick Manjula Bharathy, 2022-01-01 People s Planning Campaign PPC was an innovative decentralised planning exercise experimented by the Left Democratic Government in Kerala 1996 2001 for deepening local governance PPC conceptualised poverty in relation to a host of inequalities such as economic dispossession and political marginalisation in contrast to technocratic and neoliberal prescriptions Rather than placing faith in either the rational and comprehensive decision making or incremental institution building championed by public administration and managerial sciences PPC relied on local experiences emerged through reflexive reasoning and dialectical engagements with citizens This volume analyses two critical components of the PPC Women Component Plan WCP and Tribal Sub Plan TSP designed to empower the most marginalised citizens in Kerala women and the Scheduled Tribes Through detailed examination of the processes of mobilisation conscientisation and citizenship targeting these groups the book assesses the possibilities and limitations of planning processes devised to politicise and redress the grievances of the dispossessed In doing so the analysis contrast the depth of participation the nature and quality of deliberative processes and the substantive outcomes of participation for these two marginalised groups along with a detailed analysis of the reasons for the ineffective media strategies of the PPC and their dysfunctional interventions that failed in countering the hegemonic social and political power structures The Globalization of Corporate Media Hegemony Lee Artz, Yahya R. Kamalipour, 2012-02-01 When commercial media practices are insinuated into local cultures existing cultural and media practices are often displaced and social inequalities are exacerbated sometimes with the consent of consumers but frequently confronting organized proponents The Globalization of Corporate Media Hegemony provides case studies from five continents from government promoted telecommunications programs and technologies in Canada and Britain MTV Asia's call in request lines and the pan Latin ideology of a Mexican television variety show to Islamic pop radio in Turkey commercial radio in Africa a Millionaire game show in India and Hollywood's muted influence on Korean cinema among others Each case offers new insight into the particulars of an expanding corporate hegemony and together they invite the conversation on media globalization to consider the dynamics of class conflict and negotiation as an analytical perspective having prescriptive potential Gender Matters in Global Politics Laura J. Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile, Cort J. Willmott, 2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White

MediaMaking Lawrence Grossberg, 2006 Taking a unique approach to the study of mass communication and cultural studies MediaMaking is a volume that presents the current knowledge about the relationship between media culture and society What sets this volume apart from competing texts is the approach taken and the distinguished scholarship Rather than examining each major medium separately newspapers books magazines radio television film the authors contend that mass communication cannot be studied apart from the other institutions in society and the other dimensions of social life each is shaping and defining the other They hold that media can only be understood in relation to their context institutional economic social cultural and historical As such this book explores the variety of ways in which the media are involved in our social lives The authors explore the different relationships between the media and the systems of social value and social differences that organize power in contemporary society They examine how the media are reproduced and consumed and what they produce in turn Theoretically and analytically organized with sections on media s relation to behavior politics media effects the public globalization organizations meaning and ideology this text offers students a more comprehensive understanding of the nature of media communication processes an absolutely necessary part of understanding contemporary life

Making News Richard R. John, Jonathan Silberstein-Loeb, 2015 This book charts the rise and fall of the newspaper as the primary medium for the conveyance of news The book focuses on two of the most influential media markets in the modern world Great Britain and the United States between 1688 and 1995 In 1688 Parliament created institutional arrangements that would hasten the rise of the newspaper as the dominant medium for the circulation of news In 1995 the National Science Foundation commercialized the Internet encouraging an astonishing proliferation of information on all manner of topics including the news Per capita newspaper circulation had been declining for decades partly due to shifting social norms and partly due to the rise of broadcast news The Internet exacerbated this trend partly because it provided a cheaper news source and partly because it quickly became a superior vehicle for advertising a major source of revenue for newspaper publishers for over two hundred years However only rarely has advertising revenue and direct sales covered costs Almost never has the demand for news generated the revenue necessary for its supply Non market institutional arrangements have ranged from direct government subsidies to organizational forms that enabled news organizations to cooperate From a historical perspective the large profits reaped by a handful of newspaper publishers in the post Second World War era were anomalous and in no sense a baseline for public policy Never again will the newspaper be the dominant news medium To guarantee an informed citizenry in the future it is necessary to understand how the news business worked in the past This book is organized around eight essays each written by a distinguished specialist and each explicitly comparative Its theme is the indispensability in both Great Britain and the United States of non market institutional arrangements in the provisioning of news

Something Completely Different Jeffrey S. Miller, 2000 Between Emma Peel and tire Ministry of Silly Walks British television had a significant impact on American popular culture in the 1960s and 1970s In Something Completely Different Jeffrey Miller offers the first comprehensive study of British programming on American television discussing why the American networks imported such series as The Avengers and Monty Python s Flying Circus how American audiences received these uniquely British shows and how the shows success reshaped American television Miller s lively analysis covers three genres spy shows costume dramas and sketch comedies In addition to his close readings of the series themselves Miller considers the networks packaging of the programs for American viewers and the influences that led to their acceptance including the American television industry s search for new
