Kenya Highlights Philip Briggs,2010 Kenya Highlights first in a new series of colourful Highlights Guides published by Bradt hones in on the best of this magnificent country and condenses it into a portable but informative guidebook aimed at first time visitors planning or joining an organised safari Renowned Africa expert Philip Briggs author of ten Bradt guides and arguably the most highly respected guidebook writer on the region describes and provides full background information to the country s highlights with emphasis on the superlative game reserves and sparkling Indian Ocean coastline that have made Kenya one of Africa s premier holiday destinations There s a chapter offering advice on safari planning plus detailed sections on wildlife history and people and select lodge accommodation chosen in conjunction with several leading tour operators to Kenya Featuring beautiful full colour photos throughout this book serves equally as a holiday planner a travel companion and a memento of your trip Swara ,2003 BBC Wildlife ,2009 Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Meet Me In Zanzibar Gray Doyle, Meet Me In Zanzibar takes the reader on a journey from the war torn landscapes of the Congo and Uganda to the tranquil shores of Zanzibar into a world where natural beauty and man made destruction co exist From a child soldier s harrowing story to the resilient spirit of typhoon survivors in Tacloban Doyle weaves stories of hope loss and the undeniable power of kindness This unforgettable odyssey through the heart of global humanitarian work challenges us to see courage not in grand gestures but in the everyday choices that shape our humanity 7 Years of Camera Shake David Plummer,2017-09-07 As humans we are drawn to predators like no other group of animals They are the epitome of form and function and have a level of perfection that we revere In 2009 wildlife expert conservationist and photographer David Plummer was diagnosed with Parkinson s disease Rather than let it defeat him he was galvanised to grab life by the horns and achieve the perfect wildlife shot Over the next seven years he did much more than that The result is this breathtaking collection of over 200 of his best and favourite photographs of exotic and wild animals in their natural habitats To capture them David travelled to some of the most remote and stunning locations across the world from Africa to India to the Gal pagos Islands and back to his native

England 7 Years of Camera Shake showcases seven years of immersive and illuminating photography of predators on the prowl of prey in the clutches of death of the inexplicable synchronisation of nature of the beautiful relationship between mother and child and much much more Plummer's work has been featured in wildlife publications and national and international press and now the work he has produced since his diagnosis is showcased here accompanied by his thoughts and anecdotes on how he achieved each perfect shot Jet Safari to Africa Robert P. L. Straughan, 1973 American Photo, 1999-07 Bike Abroad Gerri Alpert, 1995 Project Kenya David Round-Turner, 1986 Blood Brothers Meja Mwangi, 2009 International Handbook of National Parks and Nature Reserves Craig W. Allin, 1990-06-22 Allin's handbook provides a masterful survey of the parks and the systems whereby they came into being and are managed or in some cases mismanaged today Throughout spaceship earth there is an audience for this fine book in public and academic libraries Wilson Library Bulletin This volume fills an important gap in the national parks literature by providing a unique comparative exploration of global parks preservation Written by a group of distinguished contributors each an expert in his or her area of coverage the handbook describes and evaluates the national parks and nature preserves in 25 nations and one regional cluster The nations selected range from some of the wealthiest and most technologically sophisticated in the world to some of the least developed and they represent the regional diversity to be found within each of six continents Africa Asia Australia Europe and North and South America as well as a number of Pacific island nations Each chapter is written to a common outline and addresses the history of park preservation in that country the natural values associated with parks and preserves and the legal and administrative structures charged with park protection The editor's introduction sets the stage for the chapters that follow by discussing the national park concept and its historical implementation first in individual nations and later by means of international agreements and institutions Of the 27 chapters that follow 24 deal comprehensively with the parks and reserves of a single nation and one treats the nine nations of French speaking west Africa Two chapters address the diverse systems of nature preservation which have been established in the United States One focuses on the traditional national parks while the other examines the recently established wilderness areas Within each chapter a section on history describes the major events associated with park preservation A section on the parks and reserves themselves describes the geological historical archaeological biological ecological aesthetic or recreational values designated for protection A third section evaluates the agencies charged with park protection and the pressures and constraints under which they operate Each chapter also includes notes and a select bibliography An important acquisition for library collections dealing with conservation this handbook will also be an invaluable reference source for scholars and researchers in the field Numerous tables and figures enhance the text The Leopard's Tale Jonathan Scott, 2013 Almost everyone on safari hopes for a glimpse of the charismatic and elusive leopard Chui was the first of a new generation of leopards Jonathan Scott watched and photographed in Kenya's Masai Mara Game Reserve in the 1970s and 1980s He spent every available moment watching and photographing Chui and her cubs Light and Dark aware that he was only privileged to do so for as long as they chose to remain visible His classic account tells the story of the mother leopard as a solitary hunter providing for herself and her offspring He records encounters with baboon hyaena and man hazards facing the cubs as they learn to fend for themselves and periods of play and relaxation Some years after Chui disappeared a young female appeared Half Tail Jonathan and Angela have followed her and her daughter Zawadi stars of the BBC s Big Cat Diary for the past twenty years bringing the story up to date Nobody has studied leopards more closely or known them more intimately Jonathan says The update is based on our work with Half Tail and Zawadi from both the pictures and text perspective Angie worked with us on Big Cat Diary as the stills photographer from 1996 and before that we both worked with Half Tail from the time she first appeared around Leopard Gorge and Fig Tree Ridge our kids grew up on safari with Half Tail and Zawadi as stars of their own Mara adventures Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004
