Marakwet Of Kenya A Preliminary Study:

The Marakwet of Kenya B. E. Kipkorir, Frederick Burkewood Welbourn, 2008 The Marakwet of Kenya is a study of a sub group of the greater Kalenjin community the majority of whom live in the Rift Valley Province of Kenya It is an excellent introduction to the study of an African community in transition both from its belief systems and in its broad structure and organisation This work is invaluable to any student of comparative studies whether in sociology anthropology economics or The Marakwet of Kenya Benjamin E. Kipkorir, Frederick Burkewood Welbourn, 1977 Marakwet Samuel K. Elolia, 2024-04-15 This book attempts to provide an ethnography of the Marakwet and its encounter with colonizers and missionaries The core of the book concerns the formation of the Marakwet person through the rites of passage Indeed cultural education is critical in establishing a socially mature identity By virtue of repetition humans connect to the past and create a continuum Also through rituals the world is no longer an opaque mass of objects arbitrarily thrown together but a living cosmos that can be intelligible and significant It explains why things exist and to what ends At the same time through rituals new ideas are given new interpretations. The missionary colonizing project unsuccessfully tried to dislodge such traditions The African tradition is the context from which most Christians come and to which many still practice to some degree It is therefore necessary for both Marakwet and Christian tradition to interact The book highlights the concept of inculturation as a viable resource in helping Christianity engage the culture with minimal disruptions Kenya Ben E. Kipkorir, 2008 Kenya's Running Women Michelle M Sikes, 2023-12-01 Since Pauline Konga s breakthrough performance at the 1996 summer Olympics in Atlanta the world has become accustomed to seeing Kenyan women medal at major championships sweep marathons and set world records Yet little is known about the pioneer generation of women who paved the way for Kenya's reputation as an international powerhouse in women's track and field In Kenya's Running Women A History historian and former professional runner Michelle M Sikes details the triumphs and many challenges these women faced from the advent of Kenya's athletics program in the colonial era through the professionalization of running in the 1980s and 1990s Sikes reveals how over time running became a vehicle for Kenyan women to expand the boundaries of acceptable female behavior Kenya s Running Women demonstrates the necessity of including women in histories of African sport and of incorporating sport into studies of African gender and nation building Resilience and Collapse in African Savannahs Michael Bollig, David M. Anderson, 2018-10-11 This book assesses the causes and consequences of environmental change in East Africa asking whether local African communities are sufficiently resilient to cope with the ecological and social challenges that confront them It focuses on the savannahs of the Baringo Bogoria basin and the surrounding highlands of Kenya's northern Rift Valley that form the social ecological system of the specialised cattle pastoralists and niche agricultural farmers who occupy these semi arid lands Historical studies of resilience spanning the past two centuries are linked with analysis of current environmental challenges and the ecological social economic and political responses mounted by local communities The authors question whether the most recent challenges confronting the peoples of eastern Africa's savannahs intensified conflicts mounting poverty driven by demographic pressures and dramatic ecological changes brought by invasive species might soon led to a collapse in essential elements of the specialised cattle pastoralism that dominates the region requiring a re orientation of the social ecological system This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Eastern African Studies Prosperity in the Twenty-First Century Henrietta L. Moore, Matthew Davies, Nikolay Mintchev, Saffron Woodcraft, 2023-06-22 Prosperity in the Twenty First Century sets out a new vision for prosperity in the twenty first century and how it can be achieved for all The volume challenges orthodox understandings of economic models but goes beyond contemporary debates to show how social innovation drives economic value Drawing on substantive research in the UK Lebanon and Kenya it develops new concepts frameworks models and metrics for prosperity across a wide range of contexts emphasising commonalities and differences Its distinctive approach goes beyond defining and measuring prosperity addressing the debate about the failures of GDP to formulating and describing what is needed to make prosperity a realisable proposition for specific people living in specific locales Departing from general propositions about post growth to delineate pathways to prosperity the volume emphasises that visions of the good life are diverse and require empirical work co designed with local communities and stakeholders to drive change It is essential reading for policymakers who are stuck local government officers who need new tools activists who wonder what is next academics in need of refreshment and students and people of all ages who want a way forward The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics Nic Cheeseman, Karuti Kanyinga, Gabrielle Lynch, 2020 The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics provides a comprehensive and comparative overview of the Kenyan political system as well as an insightful account of Kenyan history from 1930 to the present day Kenya's Uncertain Democracy Peter Kagwanja, Roger Southall, 2013-09-13 The plunging of Kenya until recently a centre of stability and growth in East Africa into political and economic uncertainty following the general election of December 2007 is regarded as a major cause for global and African concern It is widely accepted that the elections were deeply flawed and that there was electoral malfeasance by all the major players President Kibaki s rapid declaration of victory in the face of a heavily disputed election and his determination to hold on to the levers of state power precipitated a deadly crisis communal violence and economic decline A power sharing deal between Kibaki and Opposition leader Raila Odinga signed in February seems to be holding but Kenya ranks among the worlds growing number of democracies at risk This book takes a new look at the 2007 election the post election crisis the underlying interaction of ethnicity class and political power forced displacement the role of international forces and the country's power sharing arrangement. The study will draw upon the expertise of a variety of leading experts on Kenya and will be edited by Peter Kagwanja and Roger Southall The overall project was based on a workshop in Nairobi on 6.7 December 2008 This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies The Marakwet of Kenya Benjamin G.
