literature is mainly about fear Instead Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that the American Gothic and gothic literature in general is also about judgment how to judge and what happens when judgment is confronted with situations that defy its limits Poe Hawthorne Melville Gilman and James all shared a concern with the political and ideological debates of their time but tended to approach these debates indirectly Thus Monnet suggests while slavery and race are not the explicit subject matter of antebellum works by Poe and Hawthorne they nevertheless permeate it through suggestive analogies and tacit references Similarly Melville Gilman and James use the gothic to explore the categories of gender and sexuality that were being renegotiated during the latter half of the century Focusing on The Fall of the House of Usher The Marble Faun Pierre The Turn of the Screw and The Yellow Wallpaper Monnet brings to bear minor texts by the same authors that further enrich her innovative readings of these canonical works At the same time her study persuasively argues that the Gothic s endurance and ubiquity are in large part related to its being uniquely adapted to rehearse questions about judgment and justice that continue to fascinate and disturb The Half-vanished Structure Magnus Ullén, 2004 This book takes issue with the tendency in twentieth century Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ull n argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne's writings. The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne's mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne s writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations

Gothic Elements and Religion in Nathaniel Hawthorne's Fiction Wendy C. Graham,1999 The Book of Esther and the Typology of Female Transfiguration in American Literature Ariel Clark Silver,2017-11-30 The enduring search for female salvation in American literature is first expressed through typology an interpretive framework that pairs type with antitype historical scriptural promise with future spiritual fulfillment When Cotton Mather invokes the typos of Esther in

Ornaments of the Daughters of Zion a Puritan conduct book he offers a female type of divine wisdom authority and force In the biblical Book of Esther Esther acts as a female type of wisdom and redemption but her story also engages the larger history of Hebrew salvation In nineteenth century America Margaret Fuller seeks to extend the spiritual claims once made by Mather and establish the role of the divine female in the salvation of American culture and society Fuller supplants the type of male sacrifice with a type of female transfiguration in works such as Woman in the Nineteenth Century Nathaniel Hawthorne then transforms these iconoclastic ideals into literary life by engaging the multi faceted figure of Esther as a typos of female redemption and salvation in Legends of the Province House The Scarlet Letter The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun Through his female characters Esther Dudley Hester Prynne Zenobia and Miriam he seeks to fulfill the divine destiny of the American woman Hawthorne discovers however that female redemption is followed by revenge as Esther turns from saving her people to ensuring an end to their oppression When Henry Adams later revives Esther Dudley in his novel Esther he rejects male redemption for the American woman In Democracy Esther Mont Saint Michel and The Education of Henry Adams Adams envisions an independent eternal woman who can rival the political scientific artistic and theological power of men The movement from male to female salvation is achieved when the terms of female redemption are transformed and the American woman is established as her own source of divine wisdom power retribution and force The typology of female transfiguration in America is fulfilled by Fuller Hawthorne and Adams through the promise extended by Photo-textualities Marsha Bryant, 1996 This anthology investigates books that juxtapose photographs the type of Esther and written language photo texts considering a variety of examples from America Britain Canada and France Ranging from Nathaniel Hawthorne's The Marble Faun to Michael Ondaatje's postmodern novel Coming Through Slaughter and Edward Said's postdocumentary After the Last Sky the contributors analyses address photo textuality s implications for representation and its cultural contexts A truly interdisciplinary collection Photo Textualities features contributors who work in literary studies English romance languages as well as contributors who work in media studies film graphic arts Photo Textualities invigorates critical inquiry with its range of literary and photographic genres including photo texts that elude genre classification Besides documentary and biography nonfiction literary genres include autobiography and travelogue The range of photographic genres extends to landscapes portraiture documentary tourist snapshots and media images as well as to the standard photo textual forms of published album and photo essay BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Roman Holidays Robert K. Martin, Leland S. Person, 2005-04-01 Featuring essays by twelve prominent American literature scholars Roman Holidaysexplores the tradition of American travel to Italy and makes a significant contribution to the understanding of nineteenth century American encounters with Italian culture and more specifically with Rome The increase in American travel to Italy during the nineteenth century was partly a product of improved conditions of travel As suggested in the title Italy served nineteenth century writers and artists as a kind of laboratory site for encountering Others and other kinds of experience No doubt Italy offered a place of holiday a momentary escape from the familiar but the journey to Rome a place urging upon the visitor a new and more complex sense of history also forced a reexamination of oneself and one s identity Writers and artists found their religious political and sexual assumptions challenged Nathaniel Hawthorne s The Marble Faun has a prominent place in this collection as Henry James commented in his study of Hawthorne the book was part of the intellectual equipment of the Anglo Saxon visitor to Rome The essayists also examine works by James Fuller Melville Douglass Howells and other writers as well as such sculptors as Hiram Powers William Wetmore Story and Harriet Hosmer Bringing contemporary concerns about gender race and class to bear upon nineteenth century texts Roman Holidays is an especially timely contribution to nineteenth century American studies
