 Marburger Jahrbuch Für Kunstwissenschaft Ingo Herklotz, Hubert Locher, 2022 The Rhetoric of Perspective
Hanneke Grootenboer, 2005 Perspective determines how we as viewers perceive painting We can convince ourselves that a painting of a bowl of fruit or a man in a room appears to be real by the way these objects are rendered Likewise the trick of perspective can prevent us from being absorbed in a scene Connecting contemporary critical theory with close readings of seventeenth century Dutch visual culture The Rhetoric of Perspective puts forth the claim that painting is a form of thinking and that perspective functions as the language of the image Aided by a stunning full color gallery Hanneke Grootenboer proposes a new theory of perspective based on the phenomenological aspects of non narrative still life trompe l'oeil and anamorphic imagery Drawing on playful and mesmerizing baroque images Grootenboer characterizes what she calls their sophisticated deceit asserting that painting is more about visual representation than about its supposed objects Offering an original theory of perspective's impact on pictorial representation the act of looking and the understanding of truth in painting Grootenboer shows how these paintings both question the status of representation and explore the limits and credibility of perception An elegant and honourable synthesis Keith Miller Times Literary Supplement

Early Medieval Architecture as Bearer of Meaning Günter Bandmann, 2005 This classic text continually in print for more than half a century analyzes the architecture of societies in western Europe up to the twelfth century that aspired to be the heirs to the Roman Empire

Seeing from Above Mark Dorrian, Frédéric Pousin, 2013-10-03 The view from above or the bird's eye view has become so ingrained in contemporary visual culture that it is now hard to imagine our world without it It has risen to pre-eminence as a way of seeing but important questions about its effects and meanings remain unexplored More powerfully than any other visual modality this image of everywhere supports our idea of a world view yet it is one that continues to be transformed as technologies are invented and refined This innovative volume edited by Mark Dorrian and Frederic Pousin offers an unprecedented range of discussions on the aerial view covering topics from sixteenth century Roman maps to the Luftwaffe's aerial survey of Warsaw to Google Earth Underpinned by a cross disciplinary approach that draws together diverse and previously isolated material this volume examines the politics and poetics of the aerial view in relation to architecture art film literature photography and urbanism and explores its role in areas such as aesthetics and epistemology Structured through a series of detailed case studies this book builds into a cultural history of the aerial imagination

A Critical and Historical Corpus of Florentine Painting Richard Offner, Klara Steinweg, 1984 Art Studies Frank Jewett Mather, 1928
