Charles Thibodeau defiantly shouting Montreal You re going to be hearing from me I m going to make your ears ring just like Balzac s hero Rastignac in Paris Now after leaving high school at sixteen Charles takes the leap and sets out to write The Great Montreal Novel His stepfather Fernand is furious If I ever run into that goddamned Balzac I m going to wring his neck for him but Charles rents an apartment and a typewriter and sets to work What follows is Yves Beauchemin s brilliant account of the joys and perils of a young novelist s life As the pages pile up the money runs out In due course Charles has encounters with a sneering literary publisher and an oily vanity publisher with predictable results Desperate Charles takes on any job that comes his way in his stepfather s hardware store as a dog catcher his skill at barking provokes unlicensed dogs to bark back and as a front man for a touring evangelist Finally he succeeds in getting a writing job It s at a third rate magazine but his foot is on the ladder As always Charles is supported by his friends during these adventures and leads his life against the Quebec politics of the 1980s involving Trudeau and others And as always the sheer skill of Yves Beauchemin s traditional storytelling sweeps us along reminding us of the great novelists of the past Melancholic Joy Brian
