Rethinking Prokofiev Rita McAllister, Christina Guillaumier, 2020 Among major 20th century composers whose music is poorly understood Sergei Prokofiev stands out conspicuously The turbulent times in which Prokofiev lived and the chronology of his travels he left Russia in the wake of Revolution and returned at the height of the Stalinist purges have caused unusually polarized appraisals of his music While individual distinctive and instantly recognizable Prokofiev's music was also idiosyncratically tonal in an age when tonality was largely passé Prokofiev's output therefore has been largely elusive and difficult to assess against contemporary trends More than sixty years after the composer's death editors Rita McAllister and Christina Guillaumier offer Rethinking Prokofiev as an assessment that redresses this enigmatic composer's legacy Often more political than artistic these appraisals have depended not only upon the date of publication but also the geographical location of the writer Commissioned from some of the most distinguished and rising scholars in the field this collection highlights the background and context of Prokofiev's work Contributors delve into the composer's relationship to nineteenth century Russian traditions Silver Age and Symbolist composers and poets the culture of Paris in the 1920s and 30s and to his later Soviet colleagues and younger contemporaries They also investigate his reception in the West his return to Russia and the effect of his music on contemporary popular culture Still the main focus of the book is on the music itself his early experimental piano and vocal works as well as his piano concertos operas film scores early ballets and late symphonies Through an empirical examination of his characteristic harmonies melodies cadences and musical gestures and through an analysis of the newly uncovered contents of his sketch books contributors reveal much of what makes Prokofiev an idiosyncratic genius and his music intriguing often dramatic and almost always beguiling The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular ,1868 Musical News ,1905 Annual Report of the Board of Visitors and Superintendent New York State School for the Blind, Batavia, New York New York (State) State School for the Blind, Batavia,1911
