Myths And The Malay Ruling Class:

The Myth of the Ruling Class James Hans Meisel, 1964 Sites, Bodies and Stories Susan Legêne, Bambang Purwanto, Henk Schulte Nordholt, 2015-06-22 Sites Bodies and Stories examines the intimate links between history and heritage as they have developed in postcolonial Indonesia. Sites discussed in the book include Borobudur in Central Java a village in Flores built around megalithic formations and ancestral houses in Alor. Bodies refers to legacies of physical anthropology exhibition practices and Hollywood movies. The Stories are accounts of the Mambesak movement in Papua the inclusion of wayang puppetry in UNESCO's List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity and subaltern history as written by the people of Blambangan in their search for national heroes. Throughout the book citizenship entitlement figures as a leitmotif in heritage initiatives. Contemporary heritage formation in Indonesia is intrinsically linked to a canon of Indonesian art and culture developed during Dutch colonial rule institutionalized within Indonesia's heritage infrastructure and in the Netherlands and echoed in museums and exhibitions throughout the world. The authors in this volume acknowledge colonial legacies but argue against a colonial determinism considering instead how contemporary heritage initiatives can lead to new interpretations of the past.

Myths and the Malay Ruling Class Sharifah Maznah Syed Omar, 1993 Locating Life Stories Maureen Perkins, 2012-09-30 The thirteen essays in this volume come from Australia China India Indonesia Iraq Malaysia South Africa and Hawai'i. With a shared focus on the specific local conditions that influence the ways in which life narratives are told the authors engage with a variety of academic disciplines including anthropology history media studies and literature to challenge claims that life writing is an exclusively Western phenomenon. Addressing the common desire to reflect on lived experience the authors enlist interdisciplinary perspectives to interrogate the range of cultural forms available for representing and understanding lives. Contributors: Maria Faini, Kenneth George Philip, Holden David, T. Hill, Craig Howes, Bryan Kuwada, Kirin Narayan, Maureen Perkins, Peter Read, Tony Simoes da Silva, Mathilda Slabbert, Gerry van Klinken, Pei yi Wu.

The Protected Malay States, 1874-1895 Emily Sadka, 1968 Contesting Malaysia's Integration into the World Economy Rajah Rasiah, Azirah Hashim, Jatswan S. Sidhu, 2021-05-15 This book brings together a set of incisive essays that interrogate Malaysian history and social relations which began during pre colonial times and extended to colonial and post colonial Malaysia. It addresses economic misinterpretations of the role of markets in the way colonial industrialisation evolved the nature of exploitation of workers and the participation of local actors in shaping a wide range of socioeconomic and political processes. In doing so it takes the lead from the innovative historian Shaharil Talib Robert who argued that the recrafting of history should go beyond the use of conventional methodologies and analytic techniques. It is in that tradition that the chapters offer a semblance of causality contingency contradictions and connections. With that the analysis in each chapter utilises approaches appropriate for the topics chosen which include history anthropology sociology economics politics and international relations. The collection of chapters also offer novel interpretations to contest and fill gaps that have not been addressed in past works The book is essential reading for history students and those interested in Malaysian history in particular
