Padilla, 2016-09-30 Classical Myth in Four Films of Alfred Hitchcock presents an original study of Alfred Hitchcock by considering how his classics informed London upbringing marks some of his films The Catholic and Irish English Hitchcock 1899 1980 was born to a mercantile family and attended a Jesuit college preparatory whose curriculum featured Latin and classical humanities An important expression of Edwardian culture at large was an appreciation for classical ideas texts images and myth Mark Padilla traces the ways that Hitchcock's films convey mythical themes patterns and symbols though they do not overtly reference them Hitchcock was a modernist who used myth in unconscious ways as he sought to tell effective stories in the film medium This book treats four representative films each from a different decade of his early career The first two movies were produced in London The Farmer's Wife 1928 and The Man Who Knew Too Much 1934 the second two in Hollywood Rebecca 1940 and Strangers on a Train 1951 In close readings of these movies Padilla discusses myths and literary texts such as the Judgment of Paris The Homeric Hymn to Demeter Aristophanes's Frogs Apuleius's tale Cupid and

Psyche Homer's Odyssey and The Homeric Hymn to Hermes Additionally many Olympian deities and heroes have archetypal resonances in the films in question Padilla also presents a new reading of Hitchcock's circumstances as he entered film work in 1920 and theorizes why and how the films may be viewed as an expression of the classical tradition and of classical reception This new and important contribution to the field of classical reception in the cinema will be of great value to classicists film scholars and general readers interested in these topics Heracles in Early Greek Epic, 2024-03-11

Heracles in Early Greek Epic examines the protean nature of the greatest Greek hero Heracles in Homeric and Hesiodic poetry as well as in fragmentary epics such as Creophylus Oichalias Halosis Pisander's Heracleia and Panyassis Heracleia Several contributors explore Heracles' associations with heroes in Near Eastern literature and reflections in early epic about his involvement in the first sack of Troy the tale of Hesione and the ketos the war against the Meropes on Cos and the sack of Oechalia Other contributors study his role in other Archaic and Classical epics such as those written by Creophylus Pisander and Panyassis Herakles Emma Stafford, 2013-06-17 There is more material available on Herakles than any other Greek god or hero His story has many more episodes than those of other heroes concerning his life and death as well as his battles with myriad monsters and other opponents In literature he appears in our earliest Greek epic and lyric poetry is reinvented for the tragic and comic stage and later finds his way into such unlikely areas as philosophical writing and love poetry In art his exploits are amongst the earliest identifiable mythological scenes and his easily recognisable figure with lionskin and club was a familiar sight throughout antiquity in sculpture vase painting and other media He was held up as an ancestor and role model for both Greek and Roman rulers and widely worshipped as a god his unusual status as a hero god being reinforced by the story of his apotheosis Often referred to by his Roman name Hercules he has continued to fascinate writers and artists right up to the present day In Herakles Emma Stafford has successfully tackled the Herculean task of surveying both the ancient sources and the extensive modern scholarship in order to present a hugely accessible account of this important mythical figure Covering both Greek and Roman material the book highlights areas of consensus and dissent indicating avenues for further study on both details and broader issues Easy to read Herakles is perfectly suited to students of classics and related disciplines and of interest to anyone looking for an insight into ancient Greece's most popular hero Greek
