The Decision Reuben Bibi, 2006-10 A reform Jew his Christian wife an inexplicable illness that has struck at one of their children thus begins the events that result in a search by Michael Klein for his true religious identity Michael is a reform Jew whose knowledge of Judaism begins and ends with the fact that he is Jewish by birth There are two children born to him and his wife Susan Following an agreement that they made when they married their children were to be given the choice of whether to follow the Jewish religion or the Christian or even a combination of both In the course of the marriage Michael is gradually introduced to the religion of his wife For the first time he is introduced to religious ideas which go beyond the basic notion of morality which was stressed by his parents but he still finds himself unsure of the direction he should take Without an understanding of the Judaism of his ancestors he fears making a commitment to his wife's beliefs When his son falls ill he embarks on a road of discovery through a series of chance meetings which allows him to put both faiths to the test in order for him to make the fateful decision as to which one he will choose A comparison of the two faiths is given through the review of Biblical passages through the examination of scientific theory vs religious beliefs and through an exploration of history It is a journey that will enlighten the reader with a different perspective of both Christianity and Judaism and will change his understanding of religion in general Jewish Affairs, 1963
