Nachdenken Uber Christa T:

Christa Wolf Helga H. Pomps, 1973 A New History of German Literature David E. Wellbery, Judith Ryan, Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht, 2004 A New History of German Literature offers some 200 essays on events in German literary history The Quest for Christa T. Christa Wolf, 1979-11 When The Quest for Christa T was first published in East Germany ten years ago there was an immediate storm bookshops in East Berlin were given instructions to sell it only to well known customers professionally involved in literary matters at the annual meeting of East German Writers Conference Mrs Wolf s new book was condemned Yet the novel has nothing eplicity to do with politics Mimetic Desire Jeffrey Adams, Eric Williams, 1995 Reconsideration of the phenomenon of narcissism in the works of a number of important German writers This important collection of essays opens new pyschological perspectives on writers such as Tieck Goethe Freud Thomas Mann Heidegger and Thomas Bernhard Psychological approaches to literature have grown rapidly in the last few decades new developments in literary psychoanalysis mirroring the reassessment of Freud in the psychoanalytic community particularly important revisions have come both from the Lacanian school and from the field of object relations and self psychology The latter studies narcissism not only as a pathological condition but as a healthy and universal aspect of all psychological reality Theorists such as Heinz Kohut have also suggested that the transformations of narcissism can be healthy and may contribute to the development of wisdom humour and creativity The articles in this volume consider the phenomenon of narcissism across a wide range of works several reflecting the current re evaluations of narcissism as a counter challenge to Freudian thought and attitudes Literatur - Geschichte Lothar Köhn, 2000 Political Narratosophy Senka Anastasova, 2023-09-29 Political Narratosophy offers a critically subversive rethinking of the political and philosophical significance of narrative and why feminist epistemology and feminist social theory matters for the meaning of the self and narrativity Through a re examination of the notions of democracy and emancipation Senka Anastasova coins the term political narratosophy a unique interpretation of the philosophy of narrative identification and disidentification developed in conversation with philosophers Jacques Ranci re Nancy Fraser and Paul Ricoeur Utilizing the author s own identity as a feminist philosopher has lived in socialist Yugoslavia post Yugoslavia and Macedonia now North Macedonia Anastasova explores the fluctuating and disappearing borders around which identity is situated in a country that no longer exists She expertly reveals how the subject finds makes and unmakes itself through narrativity politics and imagination Political Narratosophy is an important intervention in political philosophy and a welcome contribution to the historiography on female authors who lived through twentieth century communism and its aftermath It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of political theory philosophy women s studies international relations identity studies comparative literary studies and aesthetics studies Between Sarmatia and Socialism John P. Wiczorek, 2021-11-08 Interest in Johannes Bobrowski 1917 1965 has suffered from an impression of the complexity of his works and of the narrowness of his

focus on The Germans and their Eastern European neighbours The current study re examines aspects of Bobrowski s Sarmatian works especially their chronological development but places them within the wider context of the whole of his oeuvre It looks at the long period of development before he discovered his theme in the early 1950s and examines his development after Sarmatische Zeit and Schattenland Str me seeing the volume Wetterzeichen as moving increasingly away from the past and towards more contemporary issues His short stories and novels are related to the issues confronting him in East Germany and develop increasingly into responses to immediate poetic and social problems Far from being a remote and backward orientated Sarmatian Bobrowski emerges as a writer attempting to communicate with a society which he felt threatened to ignore basic human needs and aspirations The study makes use of material from Bobrowski s Nachla to present a figure looking for and offering patterns for orientation in his East German society but with renewed relevance for post unification Germany

The German Historical Novel since the Eighteenth Century Daniela Richter,2016-12-14 The historical novel is a genre which has enjoyed widespread popularity in Germany from its beginnings in the eighteenth century At that time increased literacy among the middle and lower classes had resulted in a greater demand for reading material aimed at a general audience Because of its educational and entertaining characteristics the historical novel quickly became a dominant genre among other forms of popular literature To this day it constitutes a major sector on the German book market and is together with popular TV series documentaries and museum exhibits an important part of German Geschichtskultur This collection of essays looks at aesthetic and thematic continuities as well as changes in the development of the genre in Germany from the late eighteenth century to the present and gives insights into the novels political and socio cultural implications The articles investigate historical novels from writers such as Benedikte Naubert the mother of German historical fiction nineteenth century popular writers Georg Ebers and Hermann Sudermann modern writers such as Alfred Döblin Hermann Hesse and Hermann Broch post Wende works such as those by Thomas Brussig Christa Wolf and Ingo Schulze and contemporary historical fiction by Sabine Weigand Eveline Hasler and Petra Durst Benning

Metabiography Caitríona Ní Dhúill,2020-03-09 This book explores the contradictions of biography It charts shifting approaches to the writing and reading of biographies from post hagiographical attitudes of the Enlightenment heroic biographies of Romanticism and irreverent modernist portraits through to contemporary experiments in politically committed and hybrid forms of life writing The book shows how biographical texts in fact destabilise the models of historical visibility cultural prominence and narrative coherence that the genre itself seems to uphold Addressing the fraught relationships between genre and gender private and public image and text life and narrative that play out in the modern biographical tradition Metabiography suggests new possibilities for reading writing and thinking about this enduringly popular genre

The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel,2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers Revealing Lives Susan Groag Bell, Marilyn Yalom, 1990-10-18 In this book gender is the lens through which autobiography and biography are scrutinized The authors show what is revealed when they magnify the gendered aspects of both men's and women's writing The eternal questions of identity choice responsibility happiness tragedy and even death are interpreted in terms of gender analysis The book presents a sequence of studies from the early nineteenth to the late twentieth century that includes individuals such as American poet Anne Sexton and German writers Christa Wolf and Paul Celan and groups such as nineteenth century Mexican women and members of the British working class It extends the paradigm of self reflexive literature to include and highlight the overlap between autobiography and biography especially in the case of women who often wrote their lives obliquely through the biographies of their famous male relatives e g Ad le Hugo and Anne Thackeray Ritchie The authors refuse to accept a monolithic conception of gender The studies of Charles and Mary Lamb Nadezhda Durova and John Stuart Mill demonstrate that even in the nineteenth century a binary gender system is inadequate as a mode of approach to actual life stories Mapping the Contours of Oppression Owen Evans, 2006-01-01 Despite all the assertions towards the end of the twentieth century that the literary subject had expired along with the author the wave of autobiographies published in German after the Wende was a clear indication that on the contrary life stories were very much alive In this study Owen Evans examines the work of eight authors Ludwig Harig Uwe Saeger Ruth Kl ger G nter de Bruyn G nter Kunert Christoph Hein Grete Weil and Monika Maron who all published personal texts after 1989 dealing either with life in Nazi Germany or the GDR and in some cases both By means of close textual analysis Evans explores the impact these regimes had on the individuals concerned and the contrasting ways in which the authors handle the autobiographical project They adopt varying textual strategies to render the self on the page with some employing overt fiction and yet in each case the project was clearly motivated by the need to treat psychological wounds inflicted on the self by totalitarianism In their mapping of the contours of oppression the texts at the heart of this study combine to offer a powerful defence of literary autobiography in Germany at least as a valuable means of tackling the legacy of totalitarianism Rifts in Time and in the Self Cheryl Dueck, 2021-11-01 The fall of the Berlin Wall in November 1989 marked the end of East Germany's socialist regime and a new beginning for a unified German Federal Republic Cultural historians agree that the event caused one of the deepest rifts in time and thinking seen by an entire generation of Germans a rift that left its mark on the psyche of every citizen challenging notions of the personal and the political and crashing traditional understandings of the individual and the collective self In this bold rethinking of the question Cheryl Dueck goes beyond the social political and psychological discourses that Marx and Freud Foucault and Lacan viewed as the initiators of modern socialist identities to explore the literature and discourse of the quest for unity of the female subject Reading such authors as Christa Wolf Brigitte Reimann Helga K nigsdorf and Helga Schubert Dueck traces the striking fissures which run through time and through the female self haunting women within the socialist project The book shows how two generations of women writers have struggled consciously and systematically in their letters aesthetic writings and literary production to create a new language to express their own sense of self within a restrictive socialist and patriarchal system Rifts in Time and in the Self offers an unprecedented look at the reconceptualizations of the female subject during several phases of GDR history and women writers persistent attempt to carve out spaces of identity and community

Dialogue Analysis IX: Dialogue in Literature and the Media, Part 1: Literature Anne Betten, Monika Dannerer, 2011-12-22 These two volumes offer a selection of the papers held at the conference of the International Association for Dialogue Analysis IADA in 2003 Volume I contains 38 articles devoted to dialogue and the phenomenon of dialogicity in literature ranging from antiquity to a large number of modern languages and literatures The conversation analytic approaches drawn upon are notable for their methodological diversity This is also true of the 32 articles in Volume II The main focus here is on present day types of dialogue in the new electronic media and their traditional counterparts press radio television film The examples are taken from various countries and they are discussed in terms of the intercultural semiotic translatorial and general pragmatic issues they pose

The Child's View of the Third Reich in German Literature Debbie Pinfold, 2001-08-23 This book examines the ways in which German authors have used the child's perspective to present the Third Reich It considers how children at this time were brought up and educated to accept unquestioningly National Socialist ideology and thus questions the possibility of a traditional naive perspective on these events Authors as diverse as G nter Grass Siegfried Lenz and Christa Wolf together with many less well known writers have all used this perspective and this raises the question as to why it is such a popular means of confronting the enormity of the Third Reich This study asks whether this perspective is an evasive strategy a means of gaining new insights into the period or a means of discovering a new language which had not been tainted by Nazism This raises and addresses issues central to a post war aesthetic in German writing

Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings Inscription and Rebellion Sonja E. Klocke, 2015 Employs research on the GDR's healthcare system along with feminist and queer theory to get at socialism's legacy revealing a specifically East German literary convention employment of symptomatic female bodies to either enforce or rebel against political and social norms Rereading East Germany Karen Leeder, 2016-01-14 This volume is the first to address the culture of the German Democratic Republic GDR as a historical entity but also to trace the afterlife of East Germany in the decades since the fall of the Berlin Wall An international team of outstanding scholars offers essential and thought provoking essays combining a chronological and genre based overview from the beginning of the GDR in 1949 to the unification in 1990 and beyond with in depth analysis of individual works A final chapter traces the resonance of the GDR in the years since its demise and analyses the fascination it engenders The volume provides a rereading of East Germany and its legacy as a cultural phenomenon free from the prejudices that prevailed while it existed offering English translations throughout a guide to further reading and a chronology The Poetics of the Künstlerinroman and the Aesthetics of the Sublime Evy Varsamopoulou, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 This study of the poetics of the Romantic Künstlerinroman female artist novel brings to the foreground its salient metafictional discourse on the aesthetics of the sublime ever since its beginnings in Madame de Staël's Corinne ou l'Italie The book presents detailed readings of Heide's Palimpsest Christa Wolf's Nachdenken über Christa T and Marguerite Duras's Le Amant in a dialogue with Kant Freud Lacan Cixous Derrida and other philosophers theorists literary critics and writers Each novel is explored in terms of its generic affiliations its reflections on the role of literature and the writer in society and its aesthetic discourse on the sublime The book stages an inquiry into the relation between genre the sublime gender and literary history from which emerge insights into the conditions of subjectivity underlying the experience and communication of the sublime Memory Matters Caroline Schaumann, 2008-08-27 Memory Matters juxtaposes in tripartite structure texts by a child of German bystanders Wolf an Austrian Jewish child survivor Kluger a daughter of Jewish migrants Honigmann a daughter of an officer involved in the German resistance Bruhns a granddaughter of a baptized Polish Jew Maron and a granddaughter of German refugees from East Prussia Deckers Placed outside of the distorting victim perpetrator Jewish German man woman and war postwar binary it becomes visible that the texts neither complete nor contradict each other but respond to one another by means of inspiration reverberation refraction incongruity and ambiguity Focusing on genealogies of women the book delineates a different cultural memory than the counting of male inflected generations and a male dominated Holocaust and postwar literature canon It examines intergenerational conflicts and the negotiation of memories against the backdrop of a complicated mother daughter relationship that follows unpredictable patterns and provokes both discord and empathy Schaumann's approach questions the assumption that German gentile and German Jewish postwar experiences are necessarily diametrically opposed i.e. respond to a negative symbiosis and uncovers intersections and continuities in addition to conflicts
