Nacogdoches Past and Present Bill Murchison, 1986      The Murder of Helen Jewett Patricia Cline Cohen, 1999-06-29

In 1836 the murder of a young prostitute made headlines in New York City and around the country inaugurating a sex and death sensationalism in news reporting that haunts us today Patricia Cline Cohen goes behind these first lurid accounts to reconstruct the story of the mysterious victim Helen Jewett From her beginnings as a servant girl in Maine Helen Jewett refashioned herself using four successive aliases into a highly paid courtesan She invented life stories for herself that helped her build a sympathetic clientele among New York City's elite and she further captivated her customers through her seductive letters which mixed elements of traditional feminine demureness with sexual boldness But she was to meet her match and her nemesis in a youth called Richard Robinson He was one of an unprecedented number of young men who flooded into America's burgeoning cities in the 1830s to satisfy the new business society's seemingly infinite need for clerks The son of an established Connecticut family he was intense arrogant and given to posturing He became Helen Jewett's lover in a tempestuous affair and ten months later was arrested for her murder He stood trial in a five day courtroom drama that ended with his acquittal amid the cheers of hundreds of fellow clerks and other spectators With no conviction for murder nor closure of any sort the case continued to tantalize the public even though Richard Robinson disappeared from view Through the Erie Canal down the Ohio and the Mississippi and by way of New Orleans he reached the wilds of Texas and a new life under a new name Through her meticulous and ingenious research Patricia Cline Cohen traces his life there and the many twists and turns of the lingering mystery of the murder Her stunning portrayals of Helen Jewett Robinson and their raffish colorful nineteenth century world make vivid a frenetic city life and sexual morality whose complexities contradictions and concerns resonate with those of our own time      From Slave to Statesman Patricia Smith Prather, Jane Clements Monday, 1995 Joshua Houston 1822 1902 was born on the Temple Lea plantation in Marion Perry County Alabama In 1834 Templeton Lea died and willed Joshua to his daughter Margaret as her personal slave In 1840 Margaret Lea married General Sam Houston and moved to Texas She took Joshua with her Joshua faithfully served the Houston family during their many political and financial ups and downs In 1862 Sam Houston freed his slaves Joshua elected to remain with the Houston family and took Houston as his surname In 1866 he homesteaded in Huntsville Texas near the Houston family He became a well known and respected public figure in Huntsville where he served as city alderman and later served as county commissioner of Wilk County In 188 he was elected as a delegate to the National Republican Convention from Texas He was the father of seven or eight children by three different women Descendants live in Texas      Diedrich Rulfs Jere Langdon Jackson, 2014 Diedrich Anton Wilhelm Rulfs the German born architect who immigrated to Nacogdoches Texas in 1880 transformed the historic frontier town into a modern city The life and work of Rulfs and his interaction with his contemporaries is the story of Nacogdoches in the crucial years at the turn of the 20th century The substantial visual legacy of Rulfs to the history of a pioneering town can be enjoyed today Over fifty architectural creations are extant and form the core for the city's extensive National Registry Districts Rulfs incorporated the motifs of his homeland along with elements from current trends in American architecture into Nacogdoches projects He comfortably used classical and Palladian features romantic Gothic flamboyant Queen Ann and eclectic Mediterranean styles Rulfs proved himself a master at servicing many architectural needs modest domestic structures commercial buildings city blocks hotels elaborately fashionable mansions churches for all denominations and public schools While few towns the size of Nacogdoches had or could have supported a talented resident architect Rulfs returned the admiration by working flawlessly with the community His success resided in his professionalism his intimate knowledge of his clients and his willingness to accommodate his designs to the needs and budgets of his patrons Rulfs as the architect and builder of choice in Nacogdoches between 1880 to the mid 1920s left an architectural legacy
