Nada Cotidiana:

La nada cotidiana Zoé Valdés, 2014-04-15 Ella viene de una isla que quiso construir el paraíso. Así comienza y así acaba esta novela desgarradora de Zoé Valdés. La Habana 1959 sin duda la voz más original y expresiva que ha surgido de Hispanoamérica en los últimos años. Un humor corrosivo y descarnado, una ironía que nace de la decepción y la incredulidad, una exasperación que brota del vacío moral y material que atenaza a un pueblo que se entregó a la ilusión de una vida mejor para todos y acabó aplastado por la propia dimensión de su sueño.

Writing Islands Elena Lahr-Vivaz, 2022-10-25 Analyzing works of contemporary Cuban writers on the island alongside those in exile, Elena Lahr Vivaz offers a new lens to explore the multiplicity of Cuban space and identity, arguing that these writers approach their nation as part of a larger transnational network of islands.

Gender and the Self in Latin American Literature Emma Staniland, 2015-10-05 This book explores six texts from across Spanish America in which the coming-of-age story (Bildungsroman) offers a critique of gendered selfhood as experienced in the region's socio-cultural contexts. Looking at a range of novels from the late twentieth century, Staniland explores thematic concerns in terms of their role in elucidating a literary journey towards agency that is towards the articulation of a socially and personally viable female gendered identity, mindful of both the hegemonic discourses that constrain it and the possibility of their deconstruction and reconfiguration. Myth, exile, and the female body are the three central themes for understanding the personal, social, and political aims of the Post Boom women writers whose work is explored in this volume. Isabel Allende, Laura Esquivel, Angeles Mastretta, Sylvia Molloy, Cristina Peri Rossi, and Zoé Valdés. Their adoption and adaptation of an originally eighteenth-century and European literary genre is seen here to reshape the global canon as much as it works to reshape our understanding of gendered identities as socially constructed, culturally contingent, and open-ended.

Transgression and Conformity Linda S. Howe, 2004 Defining the political and aesthetic tensions that have shaped Cuban culture for over forty years, Linda Howe explores the historical and political constraints imposed upon Cuban artists and intellectuals during and after the Revolution. Focusing on the work of Afro-Cuban writers Nancy Morejón and prominent novelist Miguel Barnet, Howe exposes the complex relationship between Afro-Cuban intellectuals and government authorities, as well as the racial issues present in Cuban culture.

The Contemporary Spanish-American Novel Will H. Corral, Juan E. De Castro, Nicholas Birns, 2013-09-26 The Contemporary Spanish American Novel provides an accessible introduction to an important World literature. While many of the authors covered (Ara Bolaño, Castellanos Moya, Viquez) are gaining an increasing readership in English and are frequently taught, there is sparse criticism in English beyond book reviews. This book provides the guidance necessary for a more sophisticated and contextualized understanding of these authors and their works. Underestimated or unfamiliar Spanish American novels and novelists are introduced through conceptually rigorous essays. Sections on each writer include the author's reception in their native country (Spanish America and Spain), biographical history, a critical examination of their work, including key themes and conceptual concerns, translation history scholarly reception The Contemporary Spanish American Novel offers an authoritative guide to a rich and varied novelistic tradition It covers all demographic areas including United States Latino authors in exploring the diversity of this literature and its major themes such as exile migration and gender representation Cuban Studies 39 Louis A. Perez, Jr.,2009-01-01 Cuban Studies 39 includes essays on the recent transformation of the Cuban film animation industry the influence of the liberal agenda of Justo Rufino Barrios on Jose Mart a profile of the music of the Special Period and its social commentary an in depth examination of the contents important themes and enormous research potential of the Miscelnea de Expedientes collection at the Cuban National Archive and a realistic assessment on the political future of Cuba

Resolviendo Cristina García-Alfonso,2010 The story of Rahab Joshua 2 has traditionally been interpreted as the account of a foreign woman and prostitute who changes the course of her life when she converts to Yahweh In return for her faithful act of saving the spies sent by Joshua to search the land of Canaan Rahab and her family obtain salvation once her city of Jericho is destroyed The story of Jael Judges 4 17 23 has commonly been read as Jael s violent act of killing Sisera King Jabin s commander in chief with a tent peg to his temple while he was asleep Jael is perceived as someone who fails to fulfill the hospitality codes of her society The story of Jephthah and his unnamed daughter Judges 10 6 12 7 describes the tragic event in which Jephthah makes a foolish and horrible vow offering his innocent daughter in sacrifice to God Typically this text is read as Jephthah being immensely irresponsible and his daughter being the poor victim who pays for her father s oath Cristina Garc a Alfonso proposes that the stories of Rahab Jael and Jephthah can be particularly enriched and give hope to contemporary contexts of hardship when they are read through the Cuban notion of resolviendo survival Using narrative criticism along with different contemporary approaches to the texts including feminist and post colonial approaches Garc a Alfonso s readings of the biblical narratives from a perspective of resolviendo offer insights in the struggle for survival many Cubans face today Also explored are the implications that a reading through the notion of resolviendo or survival can have for other contexts in contemporary societies where survival is at stake Dialogic Aspects in the Cuban Novel of the 1990s receive special consideration Cuban Women Writers M. Betancourt, 2016-04-30 Betancourt examines women's writings in relation to language power sexuality and race in contemporary Cuba analyzing the creation of alternative matrix frameworks that enunciate a feminist feminine perspective of the nationalist discourse Latin American Women Writers: An Encyclopedia María Claudia André, Eva Paulino Bueno, 2014-01-09 Latin American Women Writers An Encyclopedia presents the lives and critical works of over 170 women writers in Latin America between the sixteenth and twentieth centuries This features thematic entries as well as biographies of female writers whose works were originally published in Spanish or Portuguese and who have had an impact on literary political and social studies Focusing on drama poetry and fiction this work includes authors who have published at least three literary texts that have had a significant impact on Latin American literature and culture Each entry is followed by extensive bibliographic references including primary and secondary sources Coverage consists of critical appreciation and analysis of the writers works Brief biographical data is included but the main focus is on the meanings and contexts of the works as well as their cultural and political impact In addition to author entries other themes are explored such as humor in contemporary Latin American fiction lesbian literature in Latin America magic realism or mother images in Latin American literature The aim is to provide a unique thorough scholarly survey of women writers and their works in Latin America This Encyclopedia will be of interest to both to the student of literature as well as to any reader interested in understanding more about Latin American culture literature and how women have represented gender and national issues throughout the centuries Pedro Juan Gutiérrez's Dirty Realism Lori Oxford, 2023-04-11 In Pedro Juan Gutiérrez's Dirty Realism Reinventing Cuban Spaces Lori Oxford conducts a series of close readings that expound on Gutiérrez's interpretation of life and reality in the spaces of the Special Period throughout the five works that make up his Ciclo Centro Habana Cycle 1998 2003 Gutiérrez's settings oscillate between the utopian the dystopian and the heterotopian in unexpected fashion often revealing his protagonists surprising affinity for the latter two In her examination of Gutiérrez's use of these interwoven topian spaces Oxford shows how the three spaces although apparently contradictory have managed to coexist in Cuba and demonstrates how they are all reflected in Gutiérrez's fiction often simultaneously just as they exist in Cuba's reality Cuba in the Special Period A. Hernandez-Reguant, 2009-01-05 This collection examines Cuban cultural production during the Special Period of the 1990s following the collapse of the Soviet Bloc Contributors address the cultural forms and the associated ethics and practices of labour leisure and bureaucratic organization that arose in the transformation of the socialist cultural infrastructure Latin American Cultural Studies: A Reader Jens Andermann, Ben Bollig, Lorraine Leu, Daniel Mosquera, Rory O'Bryen, David Wood, 2018-10-03 Featuring twenty five key essays from the Journal of Latin American Cultural Studies Travesia this book surveys the most influential themes and concepts as well as scouring some of the polemics and controversies which have marked the field over the last quarter of a century since the Journal's foundation in 1992 Emerging at a moment of crisis of revolutionary narratives and at the onset of neoliberal economics and emergent narcopolitics the cultural studies impetus in Latin America was part of an attempted intellectual reconstruction of the centre left in terms of civil society and the articulation of social movements and agencies thinking beyond the verticalist constructions from previous decades This collection maps these developments from the now classical discussions of the cultural turn to more recent responses to the challenges of biopolitics affect theory posthegemony and ecocriticism It also addresses novel political constellations including resurgent national popular or eco nativist and indigenous agencies Framed by a critical introduction from the editors this volume is both a celebration of influential essays published over twenty five years of the Journal and a representative overview of the field in its multiple ramifications entrenchments and exchanges Cuba Mike Gonzalez,2021-04-01 A literary guide to one of the most fascinating countries in the world With its flamboyant style and rich culture Cuba has provided the inspiration and setting for literature for decades It has always been one of the most compelling places in the world though perhaps never more so than now Following Ra l Castro s resignation as President in 2018 the era of Castroism has come to an end and the US Cuba rapprochement has opened the country to a generation of Americans whose only previous exposure was through film and literature The coming years will undoubtedly bring significant changes to a country that has in many ways been frozen in time Cuba A Literary Guide for Travellers takes the literary minded traveller either in person or in an armchair on a vivid and illuminating journey retracing the footsteps of writers and artists who have lived and worked in or been inspired by the history and landscape of Cuba This literary guide challenges some firmly held Western assumptions about the country and shines a light on one of the richest and most deeply embedded literary cultures in the world Bilingual Games D. Sommer,2003-11-21 These essays bring home the most challenging observations of postmodernism multiple identities the fragility of meaning the risks of communication Sommer asserts that many people normally live that is think feel create reason persuade laugh in more than one language She claims that traditional scholarship aesthetics language and philosophy psychoanalysis and politics cannot see or hear more than one language at a time The goal of these essays is to create a new field bilingual arts aesthetics which examine the aesthetic product produced by bilingual diasporic communities The focus of this volume is the Americas but examples and theoretical proposals come from Europe as well In both areas the issue offers another level of complexity to the migrant and cosmopolitan character of local societies in a global economy
