D.W. Griffith's the Birth of a Nation Melvyn Stokes, 2008-01-15 In this deeply researched and vividly written volume Melvyn Stokes illuminates the origins production reception and continuing history of this ground breaking aesthetically brilliant and yet highly controversial movie By going back to the original archives particularly the NAACP and D W Griffith Papers Stokes explodes many of the myths surrounding The Birth of a Nation 1915 Yet the story that remains is fascinating the longest American film of its time Griffith s film incorporated many new features including the first full musical score compiled for an American film It was distributed and advertised by pioneering methods that would quickly become standard Through the high prices charged for admission and the fact that it was shown at first only in live theaters with orchestral accompaniment Birth played a major role in reconfiguring the American movie audience by attracting more middle class patrons But if the film was a milestone in the history of cinema it was also undeniably racist Stokes shows that the darker side of this classic movie has its origins in the racist ideas of Thomas Dixon Jr and Griffith s own Kentuckian background and earlier film career The book reveals how as the years went by the campaign against the film became increasingly successful In the 1920s for example the NAACP exploited the fact that the new Ku Klux Klan which used Griffith s film as a recruiting and retention tool was not just anti black but also anti Catholic and anti Jewish as a way to mobilize new allies in opposition to the film This crisply written book sheds light on both the film s racism and the aesthetic brilliance of Griffith s filmmaking It is a must read for anyone interested in the cinema

The Birth of a Nation Robert Lang, 1994 The birth of a nation follows the lives of two white families divided by and enduring the American Civil War and includes elaborate cameos of historical events such as the assassination of Abraham Lincoln , The Birth of a Nation John Cuniberti, 1979 The Final Spectacle Julia Thoma, 2019-03-18 The book examines military paintings in France in the 1850s and 1860s when the genre experienced a new lease of life It recreates the paintings art historical historical and social context and considers the explosion of military subjects in their own right rather than as a consequence of war reporting The paintings entertainment value effectively communicated political agendas catering to the emerging phenomenon of mass spectatorship and giving rise to innovative compositions The book also looks at the other side of the artistic spectrum proposing that smaller formats adapted the sentimental techniques of military memoirs to focus on the soldiers experiences of warfare and to elicit a critique of war

The Albanian Bektashi Robert Elsie, 2019-07-25 The Bektashi dervish order is a Sufi Alevite sect found in Anatolia and the Balkans with a strong presence in Albania In this his final book Robert Elsie analyses the Albanian Bektashi and considers their role in the country s history and society Although much has been written on the Bektashi in Turkey little has appeared on the Albanian branch of the sect Robert Elsie considers the history and culture of the Bektashi analyses writings on the order by early travellers to the region such as Margaret Hasluck and Sir Arthur Evans and provides a comprehensive list of tekkes convents and tyrbes shrines in Albania and neighbouring countries Finally he presents a catalogue of notable Albanian Bektashi figures in history and legend This book provides a complete reference guide to the Bektashi in Albania which will be essential reading for scholars of the Balkans Islamic sects and Albanian history and culture

Early Modern Diasporas Mathilde Monge,Natalia Muchnik,2022-04-27 This book is the first encompassing history of diasporas in Europe between 1500 and 1800 Huguenots Sephardim British Catholics Mennonites Moriscos Moravian Brethren Quakers Ashkenazim what do these populations who roamed Europe in the sixteenth to eighteenth centuries have in common Despite an extensive historiography of diasporas publications have tended to focus on the history of a single diaspora Each of these groups was part of a community whose connections crossed political and cultural as well as religious borders Each built dynamic networks through which information people and goods circulated United by a memory of persecution by an attachment to a homeland be it real or dreamed and by economic ties those groups were nevertheless very diverse As minorities they maintained complex relationships with authorities local inhabitants and other diasporic populations This book investigates the tensions they experienced Between unity and heterogeneity between mobility and locality between marginalisation and assimilation it attempts to reconcile global and micro historical approaches The authors provide a comparative view as well as elaborate case studies for scholars students and the public who are interested in learning about how the social sciences and history contribute to our understanding of integration migrations and religious coexistence

Frantz Fanon David Macey,2012-11-13 Born in Martinique Frantz Fanon 1925 61 trained as a psychiatrist in Lyon before taking up a post in colonial Algeria He had already experienced racism as a volunteer in the Free French Army in which he saw combat at the end of the Second World War In Algeria Fanon came into contact with the Front de Libération Nationale whose ruthless struggle for independence was met with exceptional violence from the French forces He identified closely with the liberation movement and his political sympathies eventually forced him out the country whereupon he became a propagandist and ambassador for the FLN as well as a seminal anticolonial theorist David Macey s eloquent life of Fanon provides a comprehensive account of a complex individual s personal intellectual and political development It is also a richly detailed depiction of postwar French culture Fanon is revealed as a flawed and passionate humanist deeply committed to eradicating colonialism Now updated with new historical material Frantz Fanon remains the definitive biography of a truly revolutionary thinker

Prosperity and Torment in France Chantal Delsol,2025-08-01 A philosophical and historical analysis of the paradox of French democracy that illuminates the challenges of the current democratic age In Prosperity and Torment in France philosopher Chantal Delsol provides an analysis of the current state of affairs in French politics economics and cultural life that reveals key lessons for modern democracies around the world She examines the seeming paradox of France as a wealthy country that provides almost unrivaled social services to its citizens at no extra cost but one whose citizens are unsatisfied with the current state of affairs Delsol traces this current dilemma back several hundred years and examines the principle of the common good and its inherent tension with concepts like democracy and egalitarianism that often emphasize individualism Likewise Delsol emphasizes this concept also stands in contrast to the centralization of power in Paris throughout its history In the end Delsol notes that these historical tensions set the stage for many of the current tensions in France secularism versus religion economic liberalism versus the welfare state civil service versus the private sector and material wealth versus status By examining the paradox of France Delsol brings to the forefront the challenges democracies are facing around the globe and asks the broader question of how governments should best serve their people in our contemporary world Greek-Albanian Entanglements since the Nineteenth Century Alexis Heraclides,Ylli

Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou,Theodore Zervas,2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy

Trust, Distrust, and Mistrust in Multinational Democracies Dimitrios Karmis, François Rocher, 2018-09-15 The importance of research on the notion of trust has grown considerably in the social sciences over the last three decades Much has been said about the decline of political trust in democracies and intense debates have occurred about the nature and complexity of the relationship between trust and democracy Political trust is usually understood as trust in political institutions including trust in political actors that inhabit the institutions trust between citizens and to a lesser extent trust between groups However the literature on trust has given no special attention to the issue of trust between minority and majority nations in multinational democracies countries that are not only multicultural but also constitutional associations containing two or more nations or peoples whose members claim to be self governing and have the right of self determination This volume part of the work of the Groupe de recherche sur les sociétés plurinationales GRSP is a comparative study of trust distrust and mistrust in multinational democracies centring on Canada Belgium Spain and the United Kingdom Beliefs attitudes practices and relations of trust distrust and mistrust are studied as situated interacting and coexisting phenomena that change over time and space Contributors include Dario Castiglione Exeter Jérôme Couture INRS UCS Kris Deschouwer Vrije Universiteit Brussel Jean Leclair Montréal Patti Tamara Lenard Ottawa Niels Morsink Antwerp Geneviève Nootens Chicoutimi Darren O Toole Ottawa Alexandre Pelletier Toronto Richard Pelletier Laval Philip Resnick UBC David Robichaud Ottawa Peter Russell Toronto Richard Simeon Toronto Dave Sinardet Vrije Universiteit Brussel and Jeremy Webber Victoria

Fear and the Shaping of Early American Societies Lauric Henneon, Louis Roper, 2016-04-08 Fear and the Shaping of Early American Societies is the first collection of essays to argue that fear permeated the colonial societies of 17th and 18th century America and to analyse its impact on the political decision making processes from a variety of angles and locations Indeed the thirteen essays range from Canada to the Chesapeake from New England to the Caribbean and from the Carolina Backcountry to Dutch Brazil This volume assesses the typically American nature of fear factors and the responses they elicited in a transatlantic context The essays further explore how the European colonists handled such challenges as Indian conspiracies slave revolts famine popery and tyranny as well as werewolves and a dragon to build cohesive societies far from the metropolis Contributors are Sarah Barber Benjamin Carp Leslie Choquette Anne Claire Faucquez Lauric Henneon Elodie Peyrol Kleiber Susanne Lachenicht Bertie Mandelblatt Mark Meuwese L H Roper David L Smith Bertrand Van Ruymbeke Christopher Vernon and David Voorhees

The Making of Modern Turkey Ugur Ümit Üngör, 2012-03 Offers a novel perspective on the establishment of the Turkish nation state and highlights how the Young Turk regime from 1913 to 1950 subjected Eastern Turkey to various forms of nationalist population policies aimed at ethnically homogenizing the region and including it in the Turkish nation state

The U.S. South and Europe Cornelis A. van Minnen, Manfred Berg, 2013-11-28 The U S South is a distinctive political and cultural force not only in the eyes of Americans but also in the estimation of many Europeans The region played a distinctive role as a major agricultural center and the source of much of the wealth in early America but it has also served as a catalyst for the nation s only civil war and later as a battleground in violent civil rights conflicts Once considered isolated and benighted by the international community the South has recently evoked considerable interest among popular audiences and academic observers on both sides of the Atlantic In The U S South and Europe editors Cornelis A van Minnen and Manfred Berg have assembled contributions that interpret a number of political cultural and religious aspects of the transatlantic relationship during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The contributors discuss a variety of subjects including European colonization travel accounts of southerners visiting Europe and the experiences of German immigrants who settled in the South The collection also examines slavery foreign recognition of the Confederacy as a sovereign government the lynching of African Americans and Italian immigrants and transatlantic religious fundamentalism Finally it addresses international perceptions of the Jim Crow South and the civil rights movement as a framework for understanding race relations in the United Kingdom after World War II Featuring contributions from leading scholars based in the United States and Europe this illuminating volume explores the South from an international perspective and offers a new context from which to consider the region s history

Buffalo Bill in Bologna Robert W. Rydell, Rob Kroes, 2010-06-15 When it comes to the production and distribution of mass culture no country in modern times has come close to rivaling the success of America From blue jeans in central Europe to Elvis Presley s face on a Republic of Chad postage stamp the reach of American mass culture extends into every corner of the globe Most believe this is a twentieth century phenomenon but here Robert W Rydell and Rob Kroes prove that its roots are far deeper Buffalo Bill in Bologna reveals that the process of globalizing American mass culture began as early as the mid nineteenth century In fact by the end of World War I the United States already boasted an advanced network of culture industries that served to promote American values Rydell and Kroes narrate how the circuses amusement parks vaudeville mail order catalogs dime novels and movies developed after the Civil War tools central to hastening the reconstruction of the country actually doubled as agents of American cultural diplomacy abroad As symbols of America s version of the good life cultural products became a primary means for people around the world especially in Europe to reimagine both America and themselves in the context of America s growing global sphere of influence Paying special attention to the role of the world s fairs the exporting of Buffalo Bill s Wild West show to Europe the release of The Birth of a Nation and Woodrow Wilson s creation of the Committee on Public Information Rydell and Kroes offer an absorbing tour through America s cultural expansion at the turn of the century Buffalo Bill in Bologna is thus a tour de force that recasts what has been popularly understood about this period of American and global history
