Mason, 2022-09-30 Set on Idan Hayosh's peculiar Instagram page of women holding dead fish The Instagram Archipelago is a conversation with contemporary culture's logics of gender and race Working through recent thinking in Black studies and Hayosh's satirical images Elliot C. Mason presents the aesthetics of capitalism as a sea that makes everything the same turning the world into a single form The Instagram Archipelago brings radical antiracist and feminist scholarship to a general audience applying a model of thinking beyond gender and race to the strange world of online fishing photos This funny and fascinating book moves past the liberal celebration of gender and race towards a tiny island of resistance in a growing archipelago The Fishes of North and Middle America David Starr Jordan, Barton Warren Evermann, 1896 Bulletin of the United States National Museum, 1907 The Popular Encyclopedia, 1841 Bulletin ... is a primal even violent sensation like little else that we experience in our well proportioned adult lives Drawing on examples as commonplace and as singular as atomic bombs cinematic effects pornographic macrophilia monstrous creatures and more Wittenberg demonstrates how big things tap into our earliest experiences of the world reigniting our most fundamental feelings about reality In doing so Wittenberg offers a new aesthetics of magnitude and of the special role that bigness plays in our everyday perception of objects and images

Since the beginning of the 1990s the gradual widening of scientific and policy debates on poverty from a narrow focus on income poverty to a more inclusive concept of social exclusion has made poverty research both more interesting and more complicated This transition to a more multidimensional conceptualization of poverty forms the background and starting point of this book Researchers studying the social and spatial dimensions of poverty have only started to challenge and explore the boundaries of each other s research perspectives and instruments This book brings together these different bodies of literature on the intersection of spatial and social exclusion for the first time by providing a state of the art review written by internationally recognized experts who critically reflect on the theoretical status of their research on social exclusion and on the implications this has for future research and policy making agendas
