Neuburger, 2011-05-15 Bulgaria is a Slavic nation Orthodox in faith but with a sizable Muslim minority That minority is divided into various ethnic groups including the most numerically significant Turks and the so called Pomaks Bulgarian speaking men and women who have converted to Islam Mary Neuburger explores how Muslim minorities were integral to Bulgaria's struggle to extricate itself from its Ottoman past and develop a national identity a process complicated by its geographic and historical positioning between evolving and imagined parameters of East and West The Orient Within examines the Slavic majority's efforts to conceptualize and manage Turkish and Pomak identities and bodies through gendered dress practices renaming of people and places and land reclamation projects Neuburger shows that the relationship between Muslims and the Bulgarian majority has run the gamut from accommodation to forced removal to total assimilation from 1878 when Bulgaria acquired autonomy from the Ottoman Empire to 1989 when Bulgaria's Communist dictatorship collapsed Neuburger subjects the concept of Orientalism to an important critique showing its relevance and complexity in the Bulgarian context where national identity and modernity were brokered in the shadow of Western Europe Russia USSR and Turkey Naming and Nation-building in Turkey Meltem Türköz, 2017-11-09 This book examines how the Turkish Surname Law of 1934 was adopted and reframed in diverse social contexts at a time of top down nationalism Through historical ethnography the author explores the genesis of the law its drafting in parliament the Turkish Language Reform and its reception The project draws from an oral historical narrative official parliamentary and registry documents and popular media 1998 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2013-05-08 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Postsocialist Europe László Kürti, Peter Skalník, 2009-09-01 Now that nearly twenty years have passed since the collapse of the Soviet bloc there is a need to understand what has taken place since that historic date and where we are at the moment Bringing together authors with different historical cultural regional and theoretical backgrounds this volume engages in debates that address new questions arising from recent developments such as whether there is a need to reject or uphold the notion of post socialism as both a necessary and valid concept ignoring changes and differences across both time and space The authors firsthand ethnographies from their own countries belie such a simplistic notion revealing as they do the cultural social and historical diversity of countries of Central and Southeastern Europe Patriarchy After Patriarchy Karl Kaser, 2008 Since the second half of the 1980s social movements which questioned the legitimacy of the hitherto seemingly stable systems of Kemalist Turkey and socialist Balkans won ground Political Islam struck Turkey in the Balkan socialist countries the dams broke and parliamentary democracies replaced monolithic socialist regimes These processes have not been gender neutral Therefore the central question is after the abolition of patriarchy and the official installation of gender equality are patriarchy and female discrimination returning in the region through the backdoor although in a modernized version The People, Press, and Politics of Croatia Stjepan Malovic, Gary W. Selnow, 2001-05-30 Malovic and Selnow examine the evolution of the press government relationship in Croatia from the Tito era to the present Their story is one of three interacting players the Croatian government which until recently has sat firmly in control the compliant press which seemed little motivated to change and the largely quiescent public which demanded little from its press or its government A provocative often first hand account that will be of interest to scholars and researchers involved with Balkan current affairs journalism and politics

Empty Signs, Historical Imaginaries Ágoston Berecz, 2020-03-20 Set in a multiethnic region of the nineteenth century Habsburg Empire this thoroughly interdisciplinary study maps out how the competing Romanian Hungarian and German nationalization projects dealt with proper names With particular attention to their function as symbols of national histories Berecz makes a case for names as ideal guides for understanding historical imaginaries and how they operate socially In tracing the changing fortunes of nationalization movements and the ways in which their efforts were received by mass constituencies he provides an innovative and compelling account of the historical utilization manipulation and contestation of names Bibliographic Guide to Slavic, Baltic, and Eurasian Studies , 1995 Second Thoughts Janet M.

Globalizing Southeastern Europe Ulf Brunnbauer, 2016-01-14 At the end of the nineteenth century Southeastern Europe became a prime sending region of emigrants to overseas countries in particular the United States This massive movement of people ended in 1914 but remained consequential long thereafter as emigration had created networks memories and attitudes that shaped social and political practices in Southeastern Europe long after the emigrants had left This book's main concern is to reconstruct the political and socioeconomic impact of emigration on Southeastern Europe In contrast to migration studies traditional focus on immigration this book concentrates on the sending countries The author provides a comparative analysis of the socioeconomic causes and consequences of emigration and argues that migrant networks and emulation effects were crucial for the persistence of migration inclinations It also brings the state back in the emigration story and discusses political responses towards emigration by governments in the region before 1914 Emigration policy became closely aligned with nation building and social engineering These stances continued even after emigration had subsided interwar Yugoslavia which is studied in detail tried to create a Yugoslav diaspora in America by turning emigrants from its territory into expatriate citizens Hence a nationalizing state exploited transnational linkages The book closes with the emigration policies of communist Yugoslavia until the early 1960s when experiments and experiences of the government were crucial for its eventual decision to liberalize labor migration to the West the only communist government to do so A paramount reason for this was the fact that emigrants both as a place of memory and a source of remittances continued to be significant This book therefore presents emigration as a complex social phenomenon that requires a multifaceted historical approach in order to reveal the effects of migration on different temporal and spatial scales Nordic, Central, and
