The Dictionary of Muslim Baby Boys and Girls Names The Way of Islam UK,2016-09-03 It is the infant s vested right to be honored with a good name When choosing a name for the child it should be done with the intention that the child will be blessed with the barakah of that name Here are some Ahadeeth to show the importance of selecting a good and correct name Ibne Umar RA relates Rasoolullah Sallallaahu layhi Wasallam as saying Truly the most loved of your names by Allah are Abdullah and Abdur Rahmaan It is also reported in the Aboo Dawood that Rasoolullah Sallallaahu layhi Wasallam said Keep the names of prophets And the most desirable names by Allah Ta ala are Abdullah and Abdur Rahmaan And names that depict honesty are Haarith planter and Hammaam thoughtful And the most disliked ones are Harb battle and Murrah bitter

THE BARAKAH OF NAMING A CHILD AFTER THE BELOVED NAME OF RASOOLULLAH Sallallaahu layhi Wasallam Rasulullah Sallallaahu layhi Wasallam said Whoever is named after me with the hope of being blessed he will be blessed and will be in peace till the day of Qiyaamat He also said To whomever is born a boy and he names him Muhammad solely for the love of me and for the blessings of my name then both he the father and his son will enter Jannah

THE IMPORTANCE OF KEEPING GOOD NAMES HADITH On the Day of Qiyaamah you will be called by your own names and the names of your fathers Therefore keep good names Aboo Dawood HADITH To whoever is born a child the child should be given a good name and sound education And when he becomes of age he should be married It Was Rasoolullah s Sallallaahu layhi Wasallam practice to enquire the names of persons and villages If they were pleasant it became apparent on his face If not his displeasure could be seen

NAMES MAY INFLUENCE THE LIVES OF PEOPLE Sa eed ibne Musayib RA relates from his father that his grandfather went to Rasoolullah Sallallaahu Alayhi Wasallam and was asked What is your name He replied Hazn sorrow Rasoolullah Sallallaahu Alayhi Wasallam said You are Sahl contended He replied I will not change the name my father had given me The narrator says that thereafter sorrow continually remained with them

KEEP AWAY FROM NAMES IMPLYING SHIRK As Muslims we should always abstain from keeping names implying any elements of Shirk like adjoining the word Abd servant to names or epithets other than those of Allah Ta ala Rasoolullah Sallallaahu Alayhi Wasallam also forbade keeping pompous and self glorifying names for this reveals arrogance and haughtiness human elements most abhorred by Allah Ta ala BE PROUD OF YOUR IDENTITY AND FAITH Muslims should always be proud of their identity and faith Nowadays to conceal his identity it is common practice for a person to westernize his name like substituting Yoosuf with Joe or Joseph Sulaimaan with Solly or Sully Faatimah with Fatli Sumay yah with Summi etc Efforts to distort such beautiful names merely reveal an un Islamic and sacreligious attitude Remember there exists behind each Islamic name an Islamic spirit and meaning which when distorted is ruined For example there is intended love for the Prophet of Islam and barakah when naming a child Muhammad But when Muhammad is called Mahmad or Gammat this spirit of love for Rasoolullah Sallallaahu Alayhi Wasallam and the acquiring of barakah by such a name is shattered Should we not then refrain from such sacreligious practices May Allah Ta ala guide us on the Right Path

Forms of Muslim Children's Spirituality Fahimah Ulfat, 2022-12-12 The empirical study on the broad spectrum of Muslim children in Germany and their relations to God is fundamental for the scientific understanding of the development and formation of their faith At the same time the findings of this work are also highly relevant for the further development of an academic and empirically based Islamic religious education both in a secular and in a highly individualized society The aim of this book is to provide a framework for the life of young believers in a religiously plural society in which the individual relationship to God and the reflexivity of one's own religion are a decisive prerequisite for preventing radicalization and moral rigidity This book favors an anthropological shift and an approach that takes the potential of children with their theology and their search for the meaning of life seriously The Child in Islam Norma Tarazi, 1995 This book is a mothers book not that it can't be read by fathers as well the outgrowth of a mothers study group which met in Kuwait before the Gulf War focused on rearing children in an Islamic way The mothers were mostly American and British converts to Islam although in cosmopolitan Kuwait there were women from many other backgrounds The group was an offshoot of meetings for English speaking Muslim women held weekly in the home of Sister Zainab Ashry in Kuwait for more than ten years prior to the Gulf War From their knowledge of Islam the women involved wanted to study the implications of their faith on their child rearing practices The first step was to collect information any Qur'anic verse or hadith that a participant found relevant Other information was collected from such knowledgeable people and books as were available Monthly discussions were organized on different topics Since the war some of the participating sisters have returned to Kuwait but many of our group are now scattered all over the world All the notes and papers collected by the study group were in my home in Kuwait when the invasion occurred fortunately my husband was able to salvage them and bring them here to our new home in the States I felt an obligation to compile this collected information to share with other Muslims especially converts like myself My deepest thanks must go to my husband whose support and cooperation gave me the means to carry out this task This book begins with the birth of a child to Muslim parents and the traditional Islamic response to the birth following the example of Prophet Muhammad S Very few specific actions are defined and these mostly relate to practices at the time of birth All of these fall into the category of sunnah following the Prophet's example or what he approved of in others and though highly recommended they are not fard obligatory actions. Aside from these few simple practices carried out when a baby comes into the world, Islam has no ceremonies devoted exclusively to children, no first communion, no coming of age celebrations. Children are not segregated into a special world separate from that of adults; they are members of families in the great embracing cycle of human life. The family supports them when they are young, they support the family in their productive years, and in old age they are again supported by the family. They grow and develop gradually in a system that encourages growth and learning but places little emphasis on milestones and anniversaries. A large portion of this book is given to defining relationships from the Qur'an and hadith. To understand the significance of the child in Muslim society, it is necessary to recognize the total number and value of his or her relationships within it, which are different from the relationships defined by other societies. Chapter 1 includes some of the traditions of the Prophet Muhammad that apply to the newborn. Chapter 2 describes the nature of the child's relationship with Allah and the spiritual world, with some suggestions for encouraging spiritual awareness. Chapter 3 contains Qur'anic verses and ahadith relevant to the child's relationship with his or her parents. In light of these definitions and with reference to the Islamic teachings concerning morals, manners, and the purpose of life, an attempt is made in chapters 4, 5, and 6 to present an organized structure dealing with the practical how-to of rearing a child in an Islamic way from a parent's viewpoint. Chapters Introduction, ix, 7, and 8 progressively broaden out the child's world by adding brothers and sisters, extended family, and community relationships. The practical suggestions for improving relationships among adult family members in order to pave the way for improving the child's relations with his or her extended family are an important aspect of chapter 8. The only relationship which really changes for the child as he or she grows up is that of accountability to Allah, since no child is accountable for his or her actions before reaching the age of understanding. All other relationships develop and deepen as the child grows but remain basically the same for the general commands to honor parents, show respect to elders, be gentle with younger ones, and honor family ties continue for a Muslim throughout his or her life. I pray to Allah that this book may bring only good to mothers and their children and that He protect them from any mistakes or misunderstandings. I have done my best to prepare the material contained within it in a suitable manner and hope to see other literature published on this important subject, expanding and enriching it. While I alone am responsible for the contents, I am deeply indebted to the many sisters who helped collect references and discussed the practical implications of our findings. I have no list to prompt me and consequently may have unwittingly forgotten some names, but I will remember Terry, Lianna, Salma, Noura, Mia, Khadijah, Sandra, Hicleir, Debbie, Sara, Maryam, Aneesah, Dianne, Karen, Kauthar, and Nawal from Kuwait, all of us working together on this project. My friend Daaiyah Saleem in Ohio has also been very helpful, offering many suggestions for improvement and clarification as she aided in proofreading. My sister-in-law Ghada, of course, has helped along the way. In the course of preparing this book for publication, sister Zeba Siddiqui was chosen by the publisher to edit the text I have known Zeba a mother of four and a grandmother and author of several excellent childrens books as well as the THE CHILD IN ISLAM Parent s Manual A Guide for Muslim Parents Living in North America for several years When I heard she had taken on this task I asked her to add anything she felt was missing from her years of experience and knowledge of the subject She has supplied all of the hadith reference numbers in the text in itself an enormous task In addition to editing she has filled out and amplified several topics checking and adding material where needed The sections on the Hereafter tahara respect for religion and hospitality are prepared and written by her It was only fair therefore that her name should appear on the title page of this book in recognition of her valuable contribution I am deeply grateful to her for her help and input I also need to thank my children who suffered through my learning experience and projects for self improvement in parenting skills and my mother whose life long interest in the growth and development of children helped me understand the importance of the matter and the need for a book such as this A final note to the book s non Muslim readers I have chosen to use the word Allah throughout the book instead of the word God The words are interchangeable in English for Muslims but all of the women involved in this project have the habit indeed they have the love of referring to God the God of Abraham Moses Jesus and Muhammad by His Arabic name Allah
