The Names Leave the Stones Steven Michael Berzensky, Catherine Hunter, 2002 Sharing the Past J.A. Weingarten, 2019-09-05 Sharing the Past is an unprecedentedly detailed account of the intertwining discourses of Canadian history and creative literature When social history emerged as its own field of study in the 1960s it promised new stories that would bring readers away from the elite writing of academics and closer to the everyday experiences of people Yet the academy's continued emphasis on professional distance and objectivity made it difficult for historians to connect with the experiences of those about whom they wrote and those same emphases made it all but impossible for non academic experts to be institutionally recognized as historians Drawing on interviews and new archival materials to construct a history of Canadian poetry written since 1960 Sharing the Past argues that the project of social history has achieved its fullest expression in lyric poetry a genre in which personal experiences anchor history Developing this genre since 1960 Canadian poets have provided an inclusive model for a truly social history that indiscriminately shares the right to speak authoritatively of the past Saskatchewan Writers University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004 The more than 175 biographies in this volume together tell the story of writing in Saskatchewan As David Carpenter notes in his Introduction to the volume The writers whose lives are told in these pages are part of an extraordinary cultural community that has touched and been touched by the people and landscape of this province Line by Line Heather Spears, 2002 Line by Line offers a glimpse of poetry in action through the expressive drawings of Heather Spears Fifty of Canada's most revered poets contemplate the subject line lines of poetry landscape or art each poem accompanied by a portrait capturing the poet in performance Journal of Canadian Poetry, 2003 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler, 2002-02 Canadian Book Review Annual, 2003 The Soul Is a Stranger in This World Micah Mattix, 2020-01-07 The Soul Is a Stranger in This World is a timely examination of some of the best modern and contemporary poets and a trenchant defense of poetry as a narrative musical and theological art While it is common today to view the poet as a revolutionary who breaks old forms in the name of aesthetic and political freedom this volume begins with the classical view of the poet as a man speaking to men as Wordsworth put it Poetry may challenge and shock but it also consoles probing the contours of the human soul in a broken world Collected from essays and reviews first published in The Wall Street Journal The New Criterion Books and Culture First Things and other outlets the volume traces these concerns in the work of modern masters such as Rilke and Eliot avant garde exemplars like Andre du Bouchet and Basil Bunting and contemporary writers such as Dana Gioia and Franz Wright Acts of Mind Richard Jackson, 1984-05-30 There have been any number of books of interviews with contemporary writers but none precisely like this one The author editor has somehow managed to get these very different poets to follow his lead and in many cases for the first time anywhere to reveal much about their intellectual habits assumptions and preconceptions In almost every case he has been able to get these poets to talk more openly and freely than
