MotorBoating , 2011-07     The Romance Continues Goody Niosi, 2005 Illustrated with lush reproductions of Grant and Nixie's art and photographs of their amazing garden The Romance Continues is a love story an art appreciation adventure and a garden tour all wrapped up in one gorgeous volume Nationally known artists Grant Leier and Nixie Barton are also husband and wife parents and the creators of an astonishing and whimsical garden on Vancouver Island Their paintings differ greatly though both artists make extensive use of rich luminous and vibrant colours and both are widely admired and collected Over their long careers Grant and Nixie have experimented with subjects and styles and observing the growth and change in their work is fascinating When they moved to a rural seven acre property they turned their love of colour and sense of fun onto the land and the rambling witty garden they created is a visual spectacle that draws thousands of delighted visitors every year     The Rice Queen Diaries Daniel Gawthrop, 2010-07 In this moving autobiography Daniel Gawthrop writes about the politics and pleasures of being a self identified rice queen a gay man who is attracted to Asians Navigating through the urban jungles of Western cities like Vancouver and London as well as the humid streets of Bangkok and Saigon Daniel explores the multicultural minefields of sexuality and culture as he articulates the manners and contradictions of his desires The politics of race and the unspoken rules of gay Asian culture in both Western and Eastern settings underscore Daniel's personal journey in which he recalls his teen years spent idolizing Bruce Lee and his fixation on an Asian schoolmate whose hazing becomes a sexual spectacle for him As he enters adulthood his desires become manifest as he explores the subcultures of Long Yang Clubs where gay Asians and their admirers can meet before departing for Asia where his encounters often become transactions and he learns the hard way that sexual desire has a human and emotional cost Evoking the themes of Edward Said's Orientalism The Rice Queen Diaries is as much a personal statement about culture and otherness as it is about gay desire Traversing three continents these diaries are a personal reckoning a bold coming to terms with the nuances of sexuality that has relevance for all of us

Kilts on the Coast Jan Peterson, 2012 When the Hudson's Bay Company decided to establish its new Pacific coast headquarters at Fort Victoria on Vancouver Island in 1843 the Island was a pristine paradise or an isolated wilderness depending on one's point of view that had sustained its First Nations inhabitants for millennia It was one of the last places to be discovered and settled by Europeans in North America It was Scots who came to the Island to manage the Company's business in Fort Victoria engaging in the fur trade and establishing coal mining ventures around what is now Nanaimo where black diamonds were found in abundance From founding father James Douglas and other high placed Company men to the humble miners from Orkney and Ayrshire who were brought over on harsh voyages around Cape Horn to work Nanaimo's mines the Scottish influence on the young Colony of Vancouver Island was indelible Nanaimo author and historian Jan Peterson focuses on events and people who sparked settlement and growth in BC's first Crown Colony over six critical years 1848 to 1854 and delves deep into the roots of the Island's Scottish presence tracing the lives of such pioneers as Dr William Tolmie Robert Dunsmuir and their descendants
