Nanjing 1937 A Love Story:

Nanjing 1937 Zhaoyan Ye,2002 Centers on the life of Ding Wenyu a privileged womanizing narcissistic professor of languages and traces the course of the affair that transforms him from outlandish rake to devoted lover Jacket 1937 Ye Zhaoyan, 2003 Ding Wenyu is a spoilt university professor in a sterile marriage caught in a cycle of drinking and debauchery He falls in love with Yuyuan and publicly professes his love for her to great ridicule from others As Japanese troops invade Nanjing Yuyuan's marriage crumbles and she turns to Ding A History of Pain Michael Berry, 2011 This work probes the restaging representation and reimagining of historical violence and atrocity in contemporary Chinese fiction film and popular culture It examines five historical moments including the Musha Incident 1930 and the February 28 Incident China at War Hans van de Ven, 2018-02-12 China s mid twentieth century wars pose extraordinary interpretive challenges The issue is not just that the Chinese fought for such a long time from the Marco Polo Bridge Incident of July 1937 until the close of the Korean War in 1953 across such vast territory As Hans van de Ven explains the greatest puzzles lie in understanding China's simultaneous external and internal wars Much is at stake politically in how this story is told Today in its official history and public commemorations the People's Republic asserts Chinese unity against Japan during World War II But this overwrites the era's stark divisions between Communists and Nationalists increasingly erasing the civil war from memory Van de Ven argues that the war with Japan the civil war and its aftermath were in fact of a piece a singular process of conflict and political change Reintegrating the Communist uprising with the Sino Japanese War he shows how the Communists took advantage of wartime to increase their appeal how fissures between the Nationalists and Communists affected anti Japanese resistance and how the fractious coalition fostered conditions for revolution In the process the Chinese invented an influential paradigm of war wherein the Clausewitzian model of total war between well defined interstate enemies gave way to murky campaigns of national liberation involving diverse domestic and outside belligerents This history disappears when the realities of China s mid century conflicts are stripped from public view China at War recovers them dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature Rethinking Chinese Popular Culture Carlos Rojas, Eileen Chow, 2008-12-08 Through analyses of a wide range of Chinese literary and visual texts from the beginning of the twentieth century through the contemporary period the thirteen essays in this volume challenge the view that canonical and popular culture are self evident and diametrically opposed categories and instead argue that the two cultural sensibilities are inextricably bound up with one another An international line up of contributors present detailed analyses of literary works and other cultural products that have previously been neglected by scholars while also examining more familiar authors and works from provocative new angles The essays include investigations into the cultural industries and contexts that produce the canonical and popular the position of contemporary popular works at the interstices of nostalgia and amnesia and also the ways in which cultural texts are inflected with gendered and erotic sensibilities while at the same time also functioning as objects of desire in its own right As the only volume of its kind to cover the entire span of the 20th century and also to consider the interplay of popular and canonical literature in modern China with comparable rigor Rethinking Chinese Popular Culture is an important resource for students and scholars of Chinese literature and culture Mapping Modern Beijing Weijie Song, 2018 Mapping Modern Beijing investigates the five methods of representing Beijing a warped hometown a city of snapshots and manners an aesthetic city an imperial capital in comparative and cross cultural perspective and a displaced city on the Sinophone and diasporic postmemory by authors travelling across mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas Sinophone and non Chinese communities The metamorphosis of Beijing's everyday spaces and the structural transformation of private and public emotions unfold Manchu writer Lao She's Beijing complex about a warped native city Zhang Henshui s popular snapshots of fleeting shocks and everlasting sorrows illustrate his affective mapping of urban transition and human manners in Republican Beijing Female poet and architect Lin Huiyin captures an aesthetic and picturesque city vis vis the political and ideological urban planning The imagined imperial capital constructed in bilingual transcultural and comparative works by Lin Yutang Princess Der Ling and Victor Segalen highlights the pleasures and pitfalls of collecting local knowledge and presenting Orientalist and Cosmopolitan visions In the shadow of World Wars and Cold War a multilayered displaced Beijing appears in the Sinophone postmemory by diasporic Beijing native Liang Shigiu Taiwan sojourners Zhong Lihe and Lin Haiyin and migr martial arts novelist Jin Yong in Hong Kong Weijie Song situates Beijing in a larger context of modern Chinese language urban imaginations and charts the emotional topography of the city against the backdrop of the downfall of the Manchu Empire the rise of modern nation state the 1949 great divide and the formation of Cold War and globalizing world Drawing from literary canons to exotic narratives from modernist poetry to chivalric fantasy from popular culture to urban planning Song explores the complex nexus of urban spaces archives of emotions and literary topography of Beijing in its long journey from imperial capital to Republican city and to socialist metropolis A Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Yingjin Zhang, 2015-08-07 This wide ranging Companion provides a vital overview of modern Chinese literature in different geopolitical areas from the 1840s to now It reviews major accomplishments of Chinese literary scholarship published in Chinese and English and brings attention to previously neglected important areas Offers the most thorough and concise coverage of modern Chinese literature to date drawing attention to previously neglected areas such as late Qing Sinophone and ethnic minority literature Several chapters explore literature in relation to Sinophone geopolitics regional culture urban culture visual culture print media and new media The introduction and two chapters furnish overviews of the institutional development of modern Chinese literature in Chinese and English scholarship since the mid twentieth century Contributions from leading literary scholars in mainland China and Hong Kong add their voices to international Wronged by Empire Manjari Chatterjee Miller, 2013-08-21 Although India and China have very different experiences of colonialism they respond to that history in a similar way by treating it as a collective trauma As a result they have a strong sense of victimization that affects their foreign policy decisions even today Wronged by Empire breaks new ground by blending this historical phenomenon colonialism with mixed methods including archival research newspaper data mining and a new statistical method of content analysis to explain the foreign policy choices of India and China two countries that are continuously discussed but very rarely rigorously compared By reference to their colonial past Manjari Chatterjee Miller explains their puzzling behavior today More broadly she argues that the transformative historical experience of a large category of actors ex colonies who have previously been neglected in the study of international relations can be used as a method to categorize states in the international system In the process Miller offers a more inclusive way to analyze states than do traditional theories of international relations The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2010-04-01 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature Li-Hua Ying, 2010 The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature China William A. Callahan, 2012-02-16 China is fast becoming the next superpower a rise that presents a challenge to the world economically politically and culturally Drawing on extensive new Chinese sources Professor Callahan sheds fascinating light on how Chinese people understand their changing place and what that might mean for the The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory Sharon Deane-Cox, Anneleen Spiessens, 2022-05-29 The world Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory serves as a timely and unique resource for the current boom in thinking around translation and memory The Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of a contemporary and as yet unconsolidated research landscape with a four section structure which encompasses both current debate and future trajectories Twenty four chapters written by leading and emerging international scholars provide a cross sectional snapshot of the diverse angles of approach and case studies that have thus far driven research into translation and memory A valuable far reaching range of theoretical empirical reflective comparative and archival approaches are brought to bear on translational sites of memory and mnemonic sites of translation through the examination of topics such as traumatic postcolonial cultural literary and translator memory This Handbook is key reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in translation studies memory studies and related areas Contemporary Chinese Novels in Translation since 1978 Yun Wu, 2024-10-14 This book aims to complement the traditional focus of translation studies which has primarily centered on translating English into other languages It presents a comprehensive analysis of the reverse translation trajectory exploring the movement of Chinese literature into the core English literary domain The book aims to explore the ideological and sociological dynamics that underlie the translation of contemporary Chinese novels This is achieved through an examination of the translation selection process translation paratexts and the roles of translation agents Case studies are employed to illustrate specific linguistic literary and cultural challenges within translation It dissects the cultural and literary implications of translating genres such as women s writing science fiction and Internet literature The argument presented is that the translation of peripheral literature is indispensable in shaping global literature Beyond its literary implications the book identifies the political significance inherent in such reverse translation endeavors It suggests that the translation of Chinese literature holds notable political interest for the Chinese government which aims to reshape China s image and bolster the nation s soft power through literary translation This work will be an essential read to students and scholars of translation studies comparative literature and Chinese studies Where Whip-Poor-Wills Call: A World War II Love Story Wilmer Nichols, 2022-04-15 JJ Johnson was born prematurely to a poor family of sharecroppers in northeast Mississippi He was accepted to Vanderbilt University at the age of 13 years and graduated at the age of 15 He then entered Princeton University on a full scholarship with room and board to study under Dr Albert Einstein and graduated in 1941 with a PhD in Nuclear Physics at age 17 years While at Princeton II met and fell in love with Autumn Gamble from the consumer goods corporation

Proctor and Gamble When World War II broke out JJ volunteered for the U S Navy and became a fighter pilot After participation in four major battles on board the aircraft carriers Saratoga Lexington Yorktown and Enterprise he was transferred to Los Alamos to work on the atomic bomb In the summer of 1944 II returned to action aboard the Enterprise and then the new Lexington In early 1945 he crashed at sea and after 20 days adrift he was captured by the Japanese After a short stint on Chichi Jima JJ escaped but was recaptured and transported to Ofuna a prison near Yokosuka on mainland Japan After supplying fake information to the prison commander about the atomic bomb II was rewarded with visits and services of a beautiful Japanese girl named Asami As the war continued JJ and Asami fell in love After the US dropped atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki the Japanese surrendered and JJ was forced to leave Asami and return to America and reunite with Sinophone-Anglophone Cultural Duet Sheng-mei Ma, 2017-07-26 This book examines the paradox of China Autumn and the United States literary and visual relationships morphing between a happy duet and a contentious duel in fiction film poetry comics and opera from both sides of the Pacific In the 21st century where tension between the two superpowers escalates a gaping lacuna lies in the cultural sphere of Sino Anglo comparative cultures By focusing on a Sinophone Anglophone relationship rather than a China US one Sheng mei Ma eschews realpolitik focusing on the two languages and the cross cultural spheres where contrary to Kipling's twain East and West forever meet like a repetition compulsion bordering on neurosis over the self and its cultural other Indeed the coupling of the two duet cum duel is so predictable that each seems attracted to and repulsed by its dark half semblable in compatible for their shared larger than life ness

Translating Chinese Fiction Tan Yesheng, 2024-06-28 Drawing on the cognitive translatological paradigm this book introduces a situation embedded cognitive construction model of translation and explores the thinking portfolios of British and American sinologists cum translators to re examine their multiple voices and cognition in translating Chinese fiction By placing sinologists cum translators in the same discourse space the study transcends the limitations of previous case studies and offers a comprehensive cognitive panorama of how Chinese novels are rendered The author explores the challenges and difficulties of translating Chinese fiction from the insider perspectives of British and American sinologists and cross validates their multiple voices by aligning them with cross cultural communication scenarios Based on the cognitive construction model of translation the book provides a systematic review of the translation thoughts and ideas of the community of sinologists in terms of linguistic conventions narrative styles contextual and cultural frames readership categories and metaphorical models of translation It envisions a new research path to enhance empirical research on translators cognition in a dynamic translation ecosystem The title will be an essential read for students and scholars of translation studies and Chinese studies It will also appeal to translators and researchers interested in cognitive stylistics literary studies and intercultural communication studies

Translation, Disinformation, and Wuhan Diary Michael Berry, 2022-12-08

During the early days of the COVID 19 health crisis Fang Fang s Wuhan Diary provided an important portal for people around the world to understand the outbreak local response and how the novel coronavirus was impacting everyday people But when news of the international publication of Wuhan Diary appeared online in early April of 2020 Fang Fang s writings became the target of a series of online attacks by Chinese ultra nationalists Over time these attacks morphed into one of the most sophisticated and protracted hate Campaigns against a Chinese writer in decades Meanwhile as controversy around Wuhan Diary swelled in China the author was transformed into a global icon honored by the BBC as one of the most influential women of 2020 and featured in stories by dozens of international news outlets This book by the translator of Wuhan Diary into English alternates between a first hand account of the translation process and more critical observations on how a diary became a lightning rod for fierce political debate and the target of a sweeping online campaign that many described as a cyber Cultural Revolution Eventually even Berry would be pulled into the attacks and targeted by thousands of online trolls This book answers the questions why would an online lockdown diary elicit such a strong reaction among Chinese netizens How did the controversy unfold and evolve Who was behind it And what can we learn from the Fang Fang Incident about contemporary Chinese politics and society The book will be of interest to students and scholars of translation as well as anyone with special interest in translation US Chinese relations or internet culture more broadly Everlasting Sorrow Wang Anyi, 2008-02-22 The classic story of a woman in post World War II China A complex and penetrating portrayal that best displays Anyi s gifts as a novelist The New York Times Infatuated with the glitz and glamour of 1940s Hollywood Wang Qiyao a girl born of the longtang the crowded labyrinthine alleys of Shanghai s working class neighborhoods seeks fame in the Miss Shanghai beauty pageant This fleeting moment of stardom becomes the pinnacle of her life During the next four decades Wang Qiyao indulges in the decadent pleasures of pre liberation Shanghai secretly playing mahjong during the Anti Rightist Movement and exchanging lovers on the eve of the Cultural Revolution Surviving the vicissitudes of modern Chinese history Wang Qiyao emerges in the 1980s as a purveyor of old Shanghai a living incarnation of a new commodified nostalgia that prizes splendor and sophistication only to become embroiled in a tragedy that echoes the pulpy Hollywood noirs of her youth From the violent persecution of communism to the liberalism and openness of the age of reform this sorrowful tale of old China versus new of perseverance in the face of adversity is a timeless rendering of our never ending quest for transformation and beauty A beautifully constructed cyclical narrative ingenious As the novel builds to its tragic conclusion the manner in which character types and events recur against the city s shifting backdrop is impossible to forget Publishers Weekly starred review A literary masterpiece The story is spellbinding colorful and sad the writing is dense and thoughtful a page turner right up to the end Historical Novel Society Transformations Lionel M. Jensen, Timothy B. Weston, 2006-12-21 This successor volume to China beyond the Headlines takes the reader even farther beyond the front stage to explore a China few Westerners have seen The contributors argue that the great gap between what specialists understand and the general public believes has led to distorted and potentially dangerous misunderstandings of the most powerful emerging player on the global stage Seeking to bridge that gap a group of prominent scholars journalists and activists challenge readers to move past the typical images of China presented by the media and to think about the common problems shared by China and the United States In an entirely new set of essays they explore such critical issues as environmental degradation nationalism unemployment film and literature news reporting the Internet sex tourism and the costs of the economic boom to vividly portray the complexity of life in contemporary China and how surprisingly often it speaks to the American experience Contributions by Bei Dao Susan D Blum Timothy Cheek Martin Fackler John Gittings Howard Goldblatt Peter Hays Gries Sandra Teresa Hyde Lionel M Jensen Tong Lam Sylvia Li chun Lin Jonathan Noble Tim Oakes David Ownby Judith Shapiro Timothy B Weston and Xiao Qiang
