Decisive Phase of Columbia's War on Narco-terrorism Dario E. Teicher, 2005 In early 2002 the final days of Colombian President Andres Pastrana's administration were marred by an unending internal war against right wing and leftist narco terrorists and criminal cartels During his administration the narco terrorists reached their zenith of power The right wing paramilitary groups under the Autodefensas Unidas de Colombia AUC umbrella organization were demanding legal status and greater political power The two major leftist groups the largest being the Fuerzas Armadas Revolucionarias de Colombia FARC and the other the Ejercito de Liberacion Nacional ELN threatened the capital and were able to operate in every region of Colombia All of these groups were well armed due to their income from narco dollars In a desperate bid for peace Pastrana ceded to the FARC a vast safe haven known as the Zona del Despeje in exchange for participation in peace talks Regardless the FARC continued illicit trafficking and even engaged in terrorist acts while talking peace Pastrana's plan to make peace with the narco terrorists was Plan Colombia a 6 year strategy to overhaul almost every aspect of Colombian society The plan was developed with considerable U S assistance and it focused on five critical areas 1 curbing narco trafficking 2 reforming the justice system 3 fostering democratization and social development 4 stimulating economic growth and 5 advancing the peace process In January 2002 Pastrana's peace initiative failed after 3 years of peace talks with the FARC Nevertheless Plan Colombia served to commit the United States to assisting Colombia On August 7 2002 President Alvaro Uribe assumed office promising an uncompromising hard line towards the narco terrorists This paper describes Uribe's strategy to implement Plan Colombia with U S military assistance
