Narodnaia Slovesnost Sbornik Statei:

The Development of Soviet Folkloristics (RLE Folklore) Dana Howell, 2015-02-11 Crucial to the world history of folkloristics is this key study first published in 1992 of the development of folklore study in the Soviet Union Nowhere else has political ideology been so heavily involved with folklore scholarship Professor Howell has examined in depth the institutional development of folkloristics in the Soviet Union in the first half of the twentieth century concentrating especially upon the transition from pre revolutionary Russian to Soviet Marxist folkloristics The study of folklore moved from narrator studies to the description of the relationship of lore to larger contexts of social groups and social classes Showing an exceptional knowledge of Russian political theory and folkloristics Dana Howell provides a valuable window into the rise of folkloristics in a country undergoing almost unprecedented changes in social and political conditions A Coat of Many Colors Gregory Freidin, 1987 Friedin writes just the kind of criticism Mandelstam wrote and which he would have loved grounded in careful reading but never timid quirky but never merely eccentric the product of a mind and sensibility keenly alive to the times both historical and critical Nothing I have read on Mandelstam has so provoked my own thinking as has Freidin's work It is stimulating in every sense of the word and will move the study of Mandelstam off the point at which it has been stuck for far too long John E Malmstad Harvard University Combining as it does sensitive close readings of the Mandelstam texts with an uncommonly wide range of literary and sociocultural reference A Coat of Many Colors is a welcome and significant addition to the body of scholarship bearing on one of our century's finest poets Victor Erlich Yale University Imagining Creation Markham (Mark) Geller, Mineke Schipper, 2007-10-01 Imagining Creation is a collection of views on creation by noted authors from different disciplines Topics include creation accounts and iconography from Mesopotamia and Egypt and cosmologies from India and Africa Special attention is devoted to creation in the Scriptures Bible and Koran and related oral traditions on Genesis from Slavonic Europe as well as Kabbalah Some of the creations myths are earlier and some later than the Bible while a number of the discussed texts offer alternative approaches to the beginnings of the universe The contributions provide many new perspectives on the origins of man and his world from diverse cultures The volume is the proceedings of a symposium on creation stories held at University College London New Zealand Slavonic Journal, 2003 Guide to Microforms in Print, 1998 Guide to Russian Reprints and Microforms, 1973 Monthly Index of Russian Accessions Library of Congress.
