Narration And Knowledge:

Narration and Knowledge Arthur C. Danto, 2007 Now in its third edition Narration and Knowledge is a classic work exploring the nature of historical knowledge and its reliance on narrative Analytical philosopher Arthur C Danto introduces the concept of narrative sentences in which an event is described with reference to later events for example the Thirty Years War began in 1618 and discusses why such sentences cannot be understood until the later event happens no one could have said in 1618 that the Thirty Years War began today Danto compares narrative and scientific explanation and explores the legitimacy of historical laws He also argues that history is an autonomous and humanist discipline incapable of being reduced to scientific descriptions Lydia Goehr's new introduction illustrates Danto's main arguments by questioning her very role first as an introducer of a book that has not yet been read by readers and second as an interpreter of a book written forty years ago Frank Ankersmit's conclusion revisits the initial impact of the publication of Narration and Knowledge and considers its enduring legacy

Signs of Time Ursula Ganz-Blättler,2018 US prime time television drama of the earlier broadcast era featured self contained storylines and mostly amnesiac protagonists This changed with the arrival of what television scholar Horace Newcomb termed cumulative narrative Prime time series of a new era adopted narrative features more typical for daytime soap opera and leading characters began to remember where they came from This study explores the organisational patterns and generic implications leading to the rise of cumulative storytelling It also points to further venues of analysis for backstory narratives and diegetic memory in general      The British Comic Book Invasion Jochen Ecke,2018-12-06 What makes a successful comics creator How can storytelling stay exciting and innovative How can genres be kept vital Writers and artists in the highly competitive U S comics mainstream have always had to explore these questions but they were especially pressing in the 1980s As comics readers grew older they started calling for more sophisticated stories They were also no longer just following the adventures of popular characters writers and artists with distinctive styles were in demand DC Comics and Marvel went looking for such mavericks and found them in the United Kingdom Creators like Alan Moore Watchmen Saga of the Swamp Thing Grant Morrison The Invisibles Flex Mentallo and Garth Ennis Preacher migrated from the anarchical British comics industry to the U S mainstream and shook up the status quo yet came to rely on the genius of the American system      The Poetics of Primitive Accumulation Richard Halpern,1991      Approaches for Community

Decision Making and Collective Reasoning: Knowledge Technology Support Yearwood, John,Stranieri, Andrew,2012-06-30 This book focuses on how groups can structure their activities toward making better decisions or in developing technologies for the support of decision making in groups Provided by publisher      The Ethics of Narration Colin Riordan,1989

Science and Affect in Contemporary Literature Shannon Lambert,2024-11-14 Moving from the micro world of quantum physics to the macro scales of earth science and ecology this book considers how in contemporary literature affective experiences like desire suffering anxiety and joy shape scientific persons practices and products This book brings into dialogue close readings of scientific writing and contemporary literary works by authors like Jeanette Winterson Richard Powers Hanya Yanagihara Thalia Field and Jenny Offill Combining narrative and affect studies it uses formal strategies such as moving metaphor visceral or affective description plot level analogy contraction and rhythm to engage with western scientific epistemologies which still tends towards the impassive universal and objective While each chapter focuses on a different field or fields of science all foreground bodies human and nonhuman as a way of exploring knowledge production Through close readings the book argues that select scientific stories raise important questions about how knowledge is defined and who and what is invited into its processes of production      Education, Religion and Diversity L. Philip Barnes,2014-02-05 In this thoughtful and provocative book Philip Barnes challenges religious educators to re think their field and proposes a new post liberal model of religious education to help them do so His model both confronts prejudice and intolerance and also allows the voices of different religions to be heard and critically explored While Education Religion and Diversity is directed to a British audience the issues it raises and the alternative it proposes are important for those educators in the United States who believe that the public schools have an important role in teaching students about religion Walter Feinberg Professor Emeritus of Education Policy Organization and Leadership at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign Philip Barnes offers a penetrating and lucid analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of modern religious education in Britain He considers a range of epistemological and methodological issues and identifies two contrasting models of religious education that have been influential what he calls a liberal and a postmodern model After a detailed review and criticism of both he outlines his own new post liberal model of religious education one that is compatible with both confessional and non confessional forms of religious education yet takes religious diversity and religious truth claims seriously Essential reading for all religious educators and those concerned with the role of religion in schools Bernd Schr der Professor of Practical Theology and Religious Education University of G ttingen What place if any does religious education have in the schools of an increasingly diverse society This lucid and authoritative book makes an incisive contribution to this crucial debate Roger Trigg is Emeritus Professor of Philosophy University of Warwick and Senior Research Fellow Ian Ramsey Centre Oxford The challenge of diversity is central to education in modern liberal democratic states and religious education is often the point where these differences become both most acute and where it is believed of all curriculum subjects resolutions are most likely to be found Education Religion and Diversity identifies and explores the commitments and convictions that have guided post confessional religious education and concludes controversially that the subject as currently theorised and practised is incapable of challenging religious intolerance and of developing respectful relationships between people from different communities and groups within society It is argued that despite the rhetoric of success which religious education is obliged to rehearse in order to perpetuate its status in the curriculum and to ensure political support a fundamentally new model of religious education is required to meet the challenge of diversity to education and to society A new framework for religious education is developed which offers the potential for the subject to make a genuine contribution to the creation of a responsible respectful society Education Religion and Diversity is a wide ranging provocative exploration of religious education in modern liberal democracies It is essential reading for those concerned with the role of religion in education and for religious and theological educators who want to think critically about the aims and character of religious education

Who's Afraid of the Unmoved Mover? Andrew I. Shephardson, 2019-02-12 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian theology compatible A surprising number of Christian philosophers and theologians think so However these same thinkers argue that postmodern insights entail the rejection of natural theology the ability to discover knowledge about the existence and nature of God in the natural world Postmodernism they claim shows that appealing to nature to demonstrate or infer the existence of God is foolish because these appeals rely on modernity's outmoded grounds for knowledge Moreover natural theology and apologetics are often hindrances to authentic Christian faith Notions like objectivity and rationality are forms of idolatry from which Christians should repent This book carefully examines the nature of truth rationality general revelation and evangelism to show that the postmodern objections fail and that Christians ought to lovingly and faithfully use natural theology and apologetics to defend and commend the Christian faith to a world in need of the knowledge of God

Handbook of Narratology Peter Hühn, Jan Christoph Meister, John Pier, Wolf Schmid, 2014-10-10 This handbook provides a systematic overview of the present state of international research in narratology and is now available in a second completely revised and expanded edition Detailed individual studies by internationally renowned narratologists elucidate central terms of narratology present a critical account of the major research positions and their historical development and indicate directions for future research

Law and Life. Why Law? Peter van Schilfgaarde, 2019-03-25 This book is based on the assumption that the world is governed by a widespread field of interconnected laws In this field man made laws legal laws have to coexist with the laws of nature the laws of science and the laws of logic They have to find their place in relation to a certain society They have to relate to the demands of morality ethics custom and trust They have to follow the laws of language They have to deal with a variety of professional and esthetic rules They have to defend their position between art and craft Finally and significantly they have to cope with a host of different ideas about truth This book approaches law as a human construct meant to strengthen society as it develops through the ages Knowledge of the law legal knowledge is of doubtful value if it ignores the demands and ideals of society The same goes for the thinking leading to legal knowledge This book focuses on a basic concept That concept is met if the legal thinking leading to legal knowledge reaches the level of an independent law and society oriented contemplative discipline A discipline which is in that sense and to that extent in touch with cherished or less cherished parts of given law
