Aljoe, Ian Finseth, 2014-11-14 Focusing on slave narratives from the Atlantic world of the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries this interdisciplinary collection of essays suggests the importance even the necessity of looking beyond the iconic and ubiquitous works of Olaudah Equiano Frederick Douglass and Harriet Jacobs In granting sustained critical attention to writers such as Briton Hammon

Omar Ibn Said Juan Francisco Manzano Nat Turner and Venture Smith among others this book makes a crucial contribution not only to scholarship on the slave narrative but also to our understanding of early African American and Black Atlantic literature The essays explore the social and cultural contexts the aesthetic and rhetorical techniques and the political and ideological features of these noncanonical texts By concentrating on earlier slave narratives not only from the United States but from the Caribbean South America and Latin America as well the volume highlights the inherent transnationality of the genre illuminating its complex cultural origins and global circulation
