Narrative Religion And Science Fundamentalism Versus Irony 1700 1999:

Narrative, Religion and Science Stephen Prickett, 2002-03-28 Stephen Prickett explores the narrative in ways of thinking about the world over 300 years

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Health, Illness and Disease, 2021-10-25 The study of health care brings one into contact with many disciplines and perspectives including those of the provider and the patient There are also multiple academic lenses through which one can view health illness and disease This book brings together scholars from around the world who are interested in developing new conversations intended to situate health in broader social and cultural contexts This book is the outcome of the second global conference on Making Sense of Health Illness and Disease held at St Hilda's College Oxford in July 2003 The selected papers pursue a range of topics and incorporate perspectives from the humanities social sciences and clinical sciences This volume will be of interest to researchers and health care practitioners who wish to gain insight into other ways of understanding health illness and disease

Tradition and Innovation in English Retailing, 1700 to 1850 Ian Mitchell, 2016-02-24 Three decades of research into retailing in England from the seventeenth to nineteenth centuries has established a seemingly clear narrative fixed shops were widespread from an early date modern methods of retailing were common from at least the early eighteenth century shopping was a skilled activity throughout the period and consumers were increasingly part of and aware of being part of a polite and fashionable culture All of this is true but is it the only narrative Research has shown that markets were still important well into the nineteenth century and small scale producer retailers co existed with modern warehouses Many shops were not smart The development of modern retailing therefore was a fractured and fragmented process This book presents a reassessment of the standard view by challenging the usefulness of concepts like traditional and modern examining consumption and retailing as inextricably linked aspects of a single process and by using the idea of narrative to discuss the roles and perceptions of the various actors in this process such as retailers shoppers consumers local authorities and commentators The book is therefore structured around some of these competing narratives in order to provide a richer and more varied picture of consumption and retailing in provincial England

Nineteenth-Century Religion and Literature Mark Knight, Emma Mason, 2006-11-16 This work introduces key debates movements and ideas relating to the Christian religion and connects these to literary developments from 1750 1914 The authors provide close readings of popular texts and use these to explore complex religious ideas

Nature and Scripture in the Abrahamic Religions: God, Scripture and the rise of modern science (1200-1700) Jitse M. van der Meer, Scott Mandelbrote, 2008 These volumes describe how the development of the different styles of interpretation found in reading scripture and nature have transformed ideas of both the written word and the created world

Redeeming Science Vern S. Poythress, 2006 By delving into the intricate and immutable laws of nature as well as opposing beliefs the author presents a Christian response to science that urges the world to pay tribute to the God who created nature and cares for it Original

Dickens and the Bible Jennifer

Gribble,2020-12-10 At a time when biblical authority was under challenge from the Higher Criticism and evolutionary science what providence meant was the most keenly contested of questions This book takes up the controversial subject of Dickens and religion and offers a significant contribution to the interdisciplinary area of religion and literature In a close study of major novels it argues that networks of biblical allusion reveal the Judeo Christian grand narrative as key to his development as a writer and as the ontological ground on which he stands to appeal to the conscience of a Christian people Engaging the biblical narrative in dialogue with other contemporary narratives that concern themselves with origins destinations and hermeneutic decipherments the inimitable Dickens affirms the Bible s still active role in popular culture The providential thinking of two twentieth century theorists Bakhtin and Ricoeur sheds light on an exploration of Dickens s narrative theology

Storying Domestic Violence Jarmila Mildorf,2007-01-01 A master of driving pace exotic setting and complex plotting Harold Lamb was one of Robert E Howard s favorite writers Here at last is every pulse pounding action packed story of Lamb s greatest hero Khlit the Cossack the wolf of the steppes

Taking Psychoanalytic and Psychometric Perspectives toward a Binocular Vision of Religion Barbara Keller,2020-06-02 Psychoanalytic and Psychometric Perspectives on Religion suggests to combine perspectives from psychoanalysis and academic psychology from nomothetic and idiothetic research for more depth of vision for the current psychology of religion In this interdisciplinary study Barbara Keller demonstrates the potential of integrative perspectives by analysing topics such as religious development religion and personality and the process of working with religious issues in psychotherapy Options for the study of lived religion are discussed taking into consideration North American and European contexts of religious experience and of psychological and psychoanalytic discussion

Clergy: The Origin of Species Martyn Percy,2006-12-19 Explores the origins and development of the clergy using a variety of sources and insights from thinkers such as Darwin and Foucault
