Narrative Social Structure Anatomy Of The Hadith Transmission Network 610 1505:

Narrative Social Structure Recep Şentürk, 2005 This book presents the first attempt by a sociologist to unearth the long hadith transmission network from ancient historical sources and analyze it using the most recent qualitative and quantitative analytical tools Narrative Social Structure Recep Şentürk, 1998 Modern Islamic Authority and Social Change, Volume 1 Masooda Bano, 2018-03-07 Explores the interconnected creative partnerships of the Watts and De Morgans Victorian artists writers and suffragists Modern Hadith Studies Belal Abu-Alabbas, 2020-07-31 This book examines the various methods and trends in Hadith Studies across the globe Bringing together contributions from 10 scholars of Hadith it addresses the subject from a variety of methodological vantage points and historical premises Islam, Civility and Political Culture Milad Milani, Vassilios Adrahtas, 2020-12-04 This book provides a comprehensive and interdisciplinary exploration of civility and political culture in the Muslim world The contributions consider the changing interface between religion and politics throughout Islamic history and into the present Extending beyond saturated approaches of political and or militant Islam this collection captures the complex sociopolitical character of Islam and identifies tensions between the political secular and the sacred religious in contemporary Muslim life The alternative conceptual framework to traditional analyses of secularisation and civility presented across this volume will be of interest to students and scholars across Islamic studies religious studies sociology and political science civilisation studies and cultural studies Authority and Identity in Medieval Islamic Historiography Mimi Hanaoka, 2016-09-09 Intriguing dreams improbable myths fanciful genealogies and suspect etymologies These were all key elements of the historical texts composed by scholars and bureaucrats on the peripheries of Islamic empires between the tenth and fifteenth centuries But how are historians to interpret such narratives And what can these more literary histories tell us about the people who wrote them and the times in which they lived In this book Mimi Hanaoka offers an innovative interdisciplinary method of approaching these sorts of local histories from the Persianate world By paying attention to the purpose and intention behind a text's creation her book highlights the preoccupation with authority to rule and legitimacy within disparate regional provincial ethnic sectarian ideological and professional communities By reading these texts in such a way Hanaoka transforms the literary patterns of these fantastic histories into rich sources of information about identity rhetoric authority legitimacy and centre periphery relations Islam and the Politics of Secularism Nurullah Ardic, 2012 This book examines the process of secularisation in the Middle East in the late 19th century and early 20th century that transformed the Ottoman Empire and led to the abolition of the Caliphate The Sociology of Islam Armando Salvatore, 2016-02-23 The Sociology of Islam provides an accessible introduction to this emerging field of inquiry teaching and debate The study is located at the crucial intersection between a variety of disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities It discusses the long term dynamics of Islam as both a religion and as a social political and cultural force The volume focuses on ideas of knowledge power and civility to provide students and readers with analytic and critical thinking frameworks for understanding the complex social facets of Islamic traditions and institutions The study of the sociology of Islam improves the understanding of Islam as a diverse force that drives a variety of social and political arrangements Delving into both conceptual questions and historical interpretations The Sociology of Islam is a transdisciplinary comparative resource for students scholars and policy makers seeking to understand Islam s complex changes throughout history and its impact on the modern world

Oxford Studies in Experimental Philosophy Volume 3 Tania Lombrozo,Joshua Knobe,Shaun Nichols,2020-04-10 The new field of experimental philosophy has emerged as the methods of psychological science have been brought to bear on traditional philosophical issues Oxford Studies in Experimental Philosophy is the place to go to see outstanding new work in the field It features papers by philosophers papers by psychologists and papers co authored by people in both disciplines The series heralds the emergence of a truly interdisciplinary field in which people from different disciplines are working together to address a shared set of questions The papers in this third volume illustrate the ways in which the field continues to broaden taking on new methodological approaches and interacting with substantive theories from an ever wider array of disciplines Some recent research in experimental philosophy is going more deeply into well established questions in the field while other strands of research are exploring issues that scarcely appeared in the field even a few years ago Thus we see the introduction of new empirical and statistical methods network analysis new theoretical approaches formal semantics and the development of entirely new interdisciplinary connections in the emerging field of experimental jurisprudence

Being Muslim Today Dr. Saqib Iqbal Qureshi,2024-05-07 Qureshi promotes a moderate and inclusive view of contemporary Islam with the intellectual underpinnings to support it Booklist Starred Review Accessible introduction to Islam and the Qur an that explains how Muslims live and avoids the extremes of Orthodoxy and Islamophobia The truths of every religion are typically challenged and re written serving as potent grounds for some of history s most enduring debates and conflicts Perhaps no other religious tradition suffers as much from the dualistic fallacy of good and evil than does Islam What does it mean to be Muslim today Orthodoxy s interpretation is idyllic and omniscient simplistic to a fault Islamophobes at the opposite end of the spectrum cultivating damaging stereotypes that present a religion that most Muslims cannot relate to In Being Muslim Today Reclaiming the Faith from Orthodoxy and Islamophobia bestselling author Dr Saqib Qureshi silences the noise that obscures the message of Islam He provides a compelling and accurate presentation of the faith s beginnings its evolution throughout the last 1 400 years and its relevance for today Being Muslim Today simplifies complicated academic debates and reveals the heart and soul of a growing faith tradition that claims more than two billion adherents Chapters include lucid discussions of the origins of Islam the Prophet Muhammed and the rise of Islam through the ages Qureshi also describes the twin perils of Orthodoxy and Islamophobia both of which he contends badly misinterpret the true message of the faith In a final chapter Qureshi confronts the stereotype of Islam as an inherently violent religion asking the West to hold a mirror to its own voracious appetite for conflict and colonization Throughout Qureshi encourages Muslims to reject pious certitude the faithful must acknowledge the diversity of approaches and principals in the Islamic tradition he writes and adopt an attitude of theological humility Some things are simply unknowable
