Handbook of Constructionist Research James A. Holstein, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2013-10-21 Constructionism has become one of the most popular research approaches in the social sciences But until now little attention has been given to the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of the constructionist stance and the remarkable diversity within the field This cutting edge handbook brings together a dazzling array of scholars to review the foundations of constructionist research how it is put into practice in multiple disciplines and where it may be headed in the future The volume critically examines the analytic frameworks strategies of inquiry and methodological choices that together form the mosaic of contemporary constructionism making it an authoritative reference for anyone interested in conducting research in a constructionist vein

The Myth and Identity of the Romantic Artist in European Literature Elena Anastasaki, 2022-08-04 This study addresses the question of artistic identity and the myth of the artist as it has been shaped by the artists themselves While the term artist is to be understood in a broad sense the focus of this study is the literature of the Romantic tradition Identity is largely perceived as a construct and a central hypothesis of this book concerns its aesthetic value and the ways it creates dominant narratives of self perception that produce powerful myths The construction of the artist's identity be it collective or personal rests on a series of aesthetic praxes Caught between the mythic idealisation of poetic genius and its social devaluation the Romantic artist seeks to create a place for himself and in doing so he engages in his own mythmaking This process is studied in an interdisciplinary perspective approaching texts and writers from different traditions The study analyses various typologies of the artist numerous mythmaking strategies as well as several postural techniques all of which have sketched major direct or indirect fictional self portraits in the European tradition

Religious Identities and the Global South

Felix Wilfred, 2021-01-04 This book offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of religious identities in the Global South Drawing on literature in various fields Felix Wilfred analyzes how religious identities intersect with the processes of globalization modernity and postmodernity He illustrates how the study of religion in the Global North often revolves around questions of secularism and fundamentalism whereas a neo Orientalist quality often attends study of religion in the Global South These approaches and theorizing fail to incorporate the experiences of lived religion in the South especially in Asia Historically the religions in the South have played a highly significant role in resistance to the domination by the colonial forces an important reason for the continued attachment of the peoples of the South to their religious universe This book puts the two regions and their scholarly norms in conversation with one another exploring the social political cultural and economic implications

Narratives of Identity in Alban Berg's 'Lulu' Silvio J. dos Santos, 2014 This book explores the crossroads between autobiographical narratives and musical composition in Alban Berg's Lulu unveiling aspects of encoded social customs gender identity and personal experiences within musical structures Exploring the crossroads between autobiographical narrative and musical composition this book examines Berg's transformation of Frank Wedekind's Erdgeist and Die Bchse der Pandora the plays used in the formation of the libretto for Lulu according to notions of gender identity social customs and the aesthetics of modernity in the Vienna of the 1920s and 1930s While Berg modernized several aspects of the plays and incorporated serial techniques of composition from Arnold Schoenberg he never let go of the idealistic Wagnerian perspectives of his youth In fact he went as far as reconfiguring aspects of Richard Wagner's life as an ideal identity to be played out in the compositional process In composing the opera Berg also reflected on the most important cultural figures in fin de siècle Vienna that affected his worldview including Karl Kraus Emil Lucka Otto Weininger and others Combining analysis of Berg's correspondence numerous sketches for Lulu and the finished work with interpretive models drawn from cultural studies and philosophy this book elucidates the ways in which Berg grappled at the end of his life with his self image as an incorrigible romantic and explains aspects of his musical language that have been considered strange or anomalous in Berg scholarship Silvio J dos Santos is assistant professor of musicology at the University of Florida
