Narratives of Resistance Kole Collins, 2023-12-21 Narratives of Resistance Postcolonial Perspectives is a gripping tale of a city's journey from oppression to liberation. In this postcolonial fiction, the narrative unfolds through the intertwined stories of diverse characters who navigate the complexities of betrayal, internal strife, and external threats. Led by Raza and the enigmatic Amara, the Resistance Council faces the challenge of rebuilding a fractured city, both physically and emotionally. As shadows of the past linger, the city grapples with the delicate balance between truth and reconciliation. In the face of adversity, the characters strive for a Resurgence of Hope, culminating in an inspiring epilogue that explores the city's redefined narrative and the enduring echoes of liberation. This poignant and suspenseful tale celebrates the human spirit's resilience and the transformative power of unity.

Looking In, Looking Out: Jews and Non-Jews in Mutual Contemplation, 2024-04-08 Martin Goodman's forty years of scholarship in Roman history and ancient Judaism demonstrates how each discipline illuminates the other. Jewish history makes best sense in a broader Greco-Roman context; Roman history has much to learn from Jewish sources and evidence. In this volume, Martin's colleagues and students follow his example by examining Jews and non-Jews in mutual contemplation. Part 1 explores Jews' views of intercommunal stasis, the causes of the Bar Kochba revolt, tales of Herodian intrigue, and the meaning of Israel. Part 2 investigates Jews' depiction of outsiders: Moabites, Greeks, Arabs, and Roman authorities. Part 3 explores early Christians: Luke, Jerome, Rufinus, Syriac poetry, Pionius, ordinary individuals' views of Jews, and use of Jewish sources, and Josephus's relevance for girls in 19th-century Britain.

Narratives of Mediterranean Spaces Silvia Caserta, 2022-10-31 Narratives of Mediterranean Space: Literature and Art across Land and Sea presents a comparative analysis of contemporary literary and visual narratives of movement and migration produced in Italian, Arabic, and French. It analyzes how these works create a dialogue across the Mediterranean Sea. By paying attention to the multiple ways in which the Mediterranean is being narrated by contemporary writers and artists Silvia Caserta aims to propose a reconceptualization of the Mediterranean as a polyphonic space of movement and resistance The Mediterranean space that emerges from this study is a space that by virtue of the instability and porosity of its geographical and cultural borders is able to overcome normative dichotomies between north and south east and west local and global This book proposes the Mediterranean is a fruitful area from which to investigate the wider contradictions of the contemporary global world while avoiding the traps of Mediterraneanism For this reason the book highlights the contradictions and dissonances that emerge from reading Mediterranean works opening up multiple perspectives on the Sea and on the different lands that surround it

Narrativity, Coherence and Literariness Eva Sabine Wagner,2020-06-08 The search for the defining qualities of narrative has produced an expansive range of definitions which largely unconnected with each other obscure the notion of narrativity rather than clarifying it The first part of this study remedies this shortcoming by developing a graded macro model of narrativity which serves three aims Firstly it provides a structured overview of the field of narrative elements and processes Secondly it facilitates the classification of narratological approaches by locating them on different stages of narrativity Finally it focuses attention on narrative dynamics as interpretative processes by which readers seek to produce narrative coherence The second part of this study identifies three different narrative dynamics which characterise Laclos s Dangerous Connections Kafka s Castle and Toussaint s novels Wagner bases her analyses of these dynamics not only on the texts themselves but also on the ways in which literary scholars imbue the texts with narrative coherence This book provides a long overdue systematisation of the jumbled field of theories of narrativity and opens new perspectives on the difficult relationship between narrative theory and interpretation

Social Work Theory and Ethics Dorothee Hölscher, Richard Hugman, Donna McAuliffe, 2023-03-17 This reference work addresses the ideas that shape social work Much of the social work literature addresses questions of theory and ethics separately so that the body of thought that is represented in social work scholarship and research creates a distinction between them However the differences between these categories of thought can be somewhat arbitrary This volume goes beyond this simple separation of categories Although it recognises that questions of theory and ethics may be addressed distinctly the connections between them can be made evident and drawn out by analysing them alongside each other Social work's use and development of theory can be understood in two complementary ways First theory from the social sciences and other disciplines can be applied for social work second considered systematic examinations of practice have enabled theory to be developed out of social work These different approaches are usually referred to as theory for practice and practice theory The advancement of social work theory occurs often through the interplay between these two dimensions through research and scholarship in the field Similarly social work ethics draw on principles and concepts that have their roots in philosophical inquiry and also involve applied analysis in the particular issues with which social workers engage and their practices in doing so In this way social work contributes to wider debates through advancement of its own perspectives and knowledge gained through practice Social Work Theory and Ethics Ideas in Practice offers a unique approach by bringing together the complementary dimensions of theory with each other and at the same time with ethical research and scholarship It presents an analysis of the ideas of social work in a way that enables connections between them to be identified and explored This reference is essential reading for social work practitioners researchers policy makers academics and students as well as an invaluable resource for universities research institutes government ministries and departments major non governmental organisations and professional associations of social work
