Narrator As Interpreter Monograph Series 296:

Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich, 1999 Contains essential bibliographic and access information on serials published throughout the world The Gift of Tongues Christine F. Cooper-Rompato, 2010 The Gift of Tongues examines a wide range of sources to show that claims of miraculous language are much more important to medieval religious culture than previously recognized Auguries David J. A. Clines, Stephen D. Moore, 1998-03-01 For this volume sequel to The Bible in Three Dimensions the seven full time members of the research and teaching faculty in Biblical Studies at Sheffield Loveday Alexander David Clines Meg Davies Philip Davies Cheryl Exum Barry Matlock and Stephen Moore set themselves a common task to reflect on what they hope or imagine as century gives way to century will be the key areas of research in biblical studies and to paint themselves however modestly into the picture The volume contains as well as those seven principal essays a 75 page intellectual biography of the Department and a revealing sketch of the material conditions of its research and teaching together with a list of its graduates and the titles of their theses Anti-Judaism and Christian Orthodoxy Christine Shephardson, 2008 A critical reading of Ephrem's numerous poetic writings demonstrates that his sharp anti Jewish and anti Judaizing language helped to solidify a pro Nicene definition of Christian orthodoxy cutting off from that community in the very act of defining it his so called Judaizing and Arian Christian opponents both of whom he accused of being more like Jews than Christians Through carefully crafted rhetoric Ephrem constructed for his audience new social and theological parameters that reshaped the religious landscape of his community Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1980 Voice of the Buddha Maria Heim, 2018-09-12 What would a Buddhist theory of texts look like through the lens of the 5th century thinker Buddhaghosa In Voice of the Buddha Maria Heim reads from the principal commentator editor and translator of the Theravada intellectual tradition yielding fresh insight into all three collections of the early Pali texts Vinaya the Suttas and the Abhidhamma Buddhaghosa considered the Buddha to be omniscient the Buddha's words to be oceanic Every word passage book indeed the corpus as a whole is taken to be endless and immeasurable in Buddhaghosa's view Commentarial practice thus requires disciplined methods of expansion drawing out the endless possibilities for meaning and application Heim considers Buddhaghosa's theories of texts and follows his practices of exegesis to discover how he explored scripture's infinity By examining the significance of the immeasurability of scripture in commentarial practice and as a general principle this book offers new tools to understand the huge scriptural and commentarial literature of the Pali tradition And by taking seriously a traditional commentator's theory of texts it beckons us to learn from commentaries themselves how we might read and interpret them and the texts on which they comment News Notes of California Libraries California State Library, 1921 Vols for 1971 include annual reports and statistical summaries Reciprocal Constructions Vladimir P. Nedjalkov, 2007-11-06 This monograph constitutes the first comprehensive investigation of reciprocal constructions and related phenomena in the world's languages Reciprocal constructions of the type The two boys hit each other The poets admire each other s poems have often been the subject of language particular studies but it is only in this work that a truly global comparative picture emerges Nine stage setting chapters dealing with general and theoretical matters are followed by 40 chapters containing in depth descriptions of reciprocals in individual languages by renowned specialists The introductory papers provide a conceptual and terminological framework that allows the authors of the individual chapters to characterize their languages in comparable terms making it easy for the reader to see points of commonality between languages and constructions that have never been compared before This set of volumes is an indispensable starting point and will be a lasting reference work for any future studies of reciprocals Research in Education ,1968 Resources in education ,1991 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1970 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 The Academy and Literature ,1890

Reflections and New Perspectives on Virgil's Georgics Nicholas Freer,Bobby Xinyue,2019-02-21 Virgil s Georgics the most neglected of the poet s three major works is brought to life and infused with fresh meanings in this dynamic collection of new readings The Georgics is shown to be a rich field of inherited and varied literary forms actively inviting a wide range of interpretations as well as deep reflection on its place within the tradition of didactic poetry The essays contained in this volume contributed by scholars from Australia Europe and North America offer new approaches and interpretive methods that greatly enhance our understanding of Virgil s poem In the process they unearth an array of literary and philosophical sources which exerted a rich influence on the Georgics but whose impact has hitherto been underestimated in scholarship A second goal of the volume is to examine how the Georgics with its profound meditations on humankind nature and the socio political world of its creation has been re interpreted and appropriated by readers and critics from antiquity to the modern era The volume opens up a number of exciting new research avenues for the study of the reception of the Georgics by highlighting the myriad ways in which the poem has been understood by ancient readers early modern poets explorers of the New World and female translators of the twentieth and twenty first centuries National Library of Medicine Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1960 Studies in Language and Literature University of Minnesota,1916 The Academy ,1890 Romancing Human Rights Tamara C. discourses surrounding and informing human rights and in the process offers a new voice in the debates about representation racialization migration and spirituality Romancing Human Rights demonstrates how Burmese women break out of prisons both real and discursive by writing themselves into being Ho assembles an eclectic archive that includes George Orwell Aung San Suu Kyi critically acclaimed authors Ma Ma Lay and Wendy Law Yone and activist Zoya Phan Her close readings of literature and politicized performances by women in Burma the Burmese diaspora and the United States illuminate their contributions as authors cultural mediators and practitioner citizens Using flexible polyglot rhetorical tactics and embodied performances these authors creatively articulate alter native epistemologies regionally situated knowledges and decolonizing viewpoints that interrogate and destabilize competing transnational hegemonies such as U S moral imperialism and Asian militarized dictatorship Weaving together the fictional and non fictional Ho s gendered analysis makes Romancing Human Rights a unique cultural studies project that bridges postcolonial studies area studies and critical race ethnic studies a must read for those with an interest in fields of literature Asian and Asian American studies history politics religion and women s and gender studies Language ,1989 General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
