Emotions and Narrative in Ancient Literature and Beyond, 2022-04-25 Emotions are at the core of much ancient literature from Achilles heartfelt anger in Homer's Iliad to the pangs of love of Virgil's Dido This volume applies a narratological approach to emotions in a wide range of texts and genres It seeks to analyze ways in which emotions such as anger fear pity joy love and sadness are portrayed Furthermore using recent insights from affective narratology it studies ways in which ancient narratives evoke emotions in their readers The volume is dedicated to Irene de Jong for her groundbreaking research into the narratology of ancient literature

Thucydides : Narrative and Explanation Tim Rood, 2004-08-05 War is a harsh teacher wrote Thucydides in the fifth century BC Rood analyses the techniques through which Thucydides narrative explains the origin and course of the Peloponnesian War and exposes harsh truths about how individuals and states behave Rood concentrates on how the use of techniques such as selectivity interaction of speech and narrative and manipulation of time and perspective points at one level to general human constraints at another to the self destructiveness of Athens imperial power The book explores some techniques that have received little attention and offers new ways of reading others it gives new insight into Thucydides sophistication and the way he relates to his predecessors It is also important for its attempts to refute views that Thucydides History is made up of different compositional strata or inspired by pro Athenian bias And it addresses directly the way modern historians use Thucydides contributes to the contemporary debate over narrative history and shows the value of applying some of the concepts of recent narrative theory to historical texts

The Dark Fantastic Ebony Elizabeth Thomas, 2020-09-22 Winner 2022 Children's Literature Association Book Award given by the Children's Literature Association Winner 2020 World Fantasy Awards Winner 2020 British Fantasy Awards Nonfiction Finalist Creative Nonfiction IGNYTE Award given by FIYACON for BIPOC in Speculative Fiction Reveals the diversity crisis in children's and young adult media as not only a lack of representation but a lack of imagination Stories provide portals into other worlds both real and imagined The promise of escape draws people from all backgrounds to speculative fiction but when people of color seek passageways into the fantastic the doors are often barred This problem lies not only with children's publishing but also with the television and film executives tasked with adapting these stories into a visual world When characters of color do appear they are often marginalized or subjected to violence reinforcing for audiences that not all lives matter The Dark Fantastic is an engaging and provocative exploration of race in popular youth and young adult speculative fiction Grounded in her experiences as YA novelist fanfiction writer and scholar of education Thomas considers four black girl protagonists from some of the most popular stories of the early 21st century Bonnie Bennett from the CW's The Vampire Diaries Rue from Suzanne Collins's The Hunger Games Gwen from the BBC's Merlin and Angelina Johnson from J.K. Rowling's Harry Potter Analyzing their narratives and audience reactions to them reveals how these characters mirror the violence against black and brown people in our own world In response Thomas uncovers and builds upon a tradition of fantasy and radical imagination in Black feminism and Afrofuturism to reveal new possibilities Through fanfiction and other modes of counter storytelling young people of color have reinvisioned fantastic worlds that reflect their own experiences their own lives As Thomas powerfully asserts we dark girls deserve more because we are more

Kingsolver Ian Tan, 2024-04-11 The most up to date and unified study of critically acclaimed and best selling author Barbara Kingsolver In Understanding Barbara Kingsolver Ian Tan situates Kingsolver's oeuvre in an ecocritical and ecofeminist context and argues that her work puts forward an ethics of difference that informs a more egalitarian vision of the world Following a brief biography Tan explores ecocriticism as a literary strategy and analyzes Kingsolver's early nonfiction book Holding the Line Women in the Great Arizona Mine Strike of 1983 as an entry point to her thematic interests Subsequent chapters attend to Kingsolver's nine novels including her breakout The Poisonwood Bible and the Pulitzer Prize winning Demon Copperhead and the ways they engage with some of the most important issues of the twentieth and twenty first centuries including postcolonialism and climate change This book shows how Kingsolver gives her readers the aesthetic tools to begin to see the familiar and the ordinary in a different light allowing idealism to enrich our everyday lives
