Narrow Road To The Deep North Methuen Modern Plays

Maggie B. Gale, John F. Deeney

Narrow Road To The Deep North Methuen Modern Plays:

Adorno and Modern Theatre K. Gritzner, 2016-04-29 Adorno and Modern Theatre explores the drama of Edward Bond David Rudkin Howard Barker and Sarah Kane in the context of the work of leading philosopher Theodor W Adorno 1903 1969 The book engages with key principles of Adorno's aesthetic theory and cultural critique and examines their influence on a generation of seminal post war dramatists

Fifty Modern and Contemporary Dramatists Maggie B. Gale, John F. Deeney, 2014-11-27 Fifty Modern and Contemporary and Dramatists is a critical introduction to the work of some of the most important and influential playwrights from the 1950s to the present day The figures chosen are among the most widely studied by students of drama theatre and literature and include such celebrated writers as Samuel Beckett Caryl Churchill Anna Deavere Smith Jean Genet Sarah Kane Heiner Müller Arthur Miller Harold Pinter Sam Shephard Each short essay is written by one of an international team of academic experts and offers a detailed analysis of the playwright's key works and career The introduction provides an historical and theatrical context to the volume which provides an invaluable overview of modern and contemporary drama

The Function of Song in Contemporary British Drama Elizabeth Hale Winkler, 1990 This comprehensive study formulates an original theory that dramatic song must be perceived as a separate genre situated between poetry music and theater It focuses on John Arden Margaretta D'Arcy Edward Bond Peter Barnes John Osborne Peter Nichols Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Peter Shaffer and John McGrath

Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019 Metaphors of Confinement The Prison in Fact Fiction and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present as well as non penal situations described as confining or restrictive These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of imprisonment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods

A Companion to Modern British and Irish Drama, 1880 - 2005 Mary Luckhurst, 2008-04-15 This wide ranging Companion to Modern British and Irish Drama offers challenging analyses of a range of plays in their political contexts It explores the cultural social economic and institutional agendas that readers need to engage with in order to appreciate modern theatre in all its complexity An authoritative guide to modern British and Irish drama Engages with theoretical discourses challenging a canon that has privileged London as well as white English males and realism Topics covered include national regional and fringe theatres post colonial stages and multiculturalism feminist and queer theatres sex and consumerism technology and globalisation representations of war terrorism and trauma British Playwrights, 1956-1995 William W.

Demastes,1996-10-23 The year 1956 marked a point when British drama and theater fell into the hands of a group of young playwrights who revolutionized the stage During that time playwrights such as Samuel Beckett and Harold Pinter made the British theater as rich varied and vital as any national theater in history This reference chronicles the history of British theater from 1956 to 1995 by providing detailed information about the playwrights of that period Included are entries for some three dozen British playwrights active between 1956 and 1995 Entries are arranged alphabetically to facilitate use Each entry supplies biographical information the production history for particular plays a survey of the playwright s critical reception an assessment of the dramatist s work and primary and secondary bibliographies A selected general bibliography at the end of the volume directs the reader to important sources of additional information about this period in theater history

Drama on Drama Nicole Boireau,1997-05-13 This book gives an in depth and invigorating analysis of reflexivity in recent British drama the way drama comments on drama The interplay of dramatic forms the cross fertilization of historical traditions are explored in relation to major contemporary authors and theatrical practices When drama takes itself as its own object of study it paradoxically highlights the most vital issues of its time Key questions are raised about the nature of theatricality in play writing and performance in this the first full length treatment of the subject Saved Edward

Bond,2014-01-08 Described by its author as almost irresponsibly optimistic Saved is a play set in London in the sixties Its subject is the cultural poverty and frustration of a generation of young people on the dole and living on council estates The play was first staged privately in November 1965 at the Royal Court Theatre before members of the English Stage Society in a time when plays were still censored With its scenes of violence including the stoning of a baby Saved became a notorious play and a cause c l bre In a letter to the Observer Sir Laurence Olivier wrote Saved is not a play for children but it is for grown ups and the grown ups of this country should have the courage to look at it Saved has had a marked influence on a whole new generation writing in the 1990s Edward Bond is a great playwright many particularly in continental Europe would say the greatest living English playwright Independent Heritage, Nostalgia and Modern British Theatre Benjamin

Poore,2011-11-15 The stage portrayal of the Victorians in recent times is a key reference point in understanding notions of Britishness and the profound politicisation of that debate over the last four decades This book throws new light on works by canonical playwrights like Bond Edgar and Churchill linking theatre to the wider culture at large Re-visiting Female

Evil Melissa Dearey,Susana Nicolás,Roger Davis,2017-08-28 Reflecting current trends in scholarly analysis of evil and the feminine the chapters contained in Re-visiting Female Evil focus upon various re-interpretations of evil femininities as a cultural signifier of agency transgression and crisis re-interpreting them through rewriting of other stories hermeneutic re-interpretations of ancient classical texts and revised film stage adaptations These papers illustrate how gendered cultural myths of women's intrinsic connection to evil still persist in today's patriarchal society though in variant and updated forms Mischievous beguiling seductive lascivious unruly carping vengeful and manipulative from the Disney princess to the murderous Medea these authors grapple with our understanding of what it is to be and do evil exploring the possible sources of the fear and hatred of women and the feminine as well as their continual fascination and appeal and how these manifest in a range of real life and fictional narratives that cross times cultures and media
