Narrow Action:

Disjunctivism Adrian Haddock, Fiona Macpherson, 2008-01-31 Disjunctivism has attracted considerable philosophical attention in recent years it has been the source of a lively and extended debate spanning the philosophy of perception epistemology and the philosophy of action Adrian Haddock and Fiona Macpherson present seventeen specially written essays which examine the different forms of disjunctivism and explore the connections between them This volume will be an essential resource for anyone working in the central areas of philosophy and the starting point for future research in this fascinating field

Free Will & Action Filip Grgić, Davor Pećnjak, 2018-11-14 This book consists of eleven new essays that provide new insights into classical and contemporary issues surrounding free will and human agency They investigate topics such as the nature of practical knowledge and its role in intentional action mental content and explanations of action recent arguments for libertarianism the situationist challenge to free will freedom and a theory of narrative configuration the moral responsibility of the psychopath and free will and the indeterminism of quantum mechanics Also tackling some historical precursors of contemporary debates taken together these essays demonstrate the need for an approach that recognizes the multifaceted nature of free will This book provides essential reading for anyone interested in the current scholarship on free will

Clashes of Knowledge Peter Meusburger, Michael Welker, Edgar Wunder, 2008-04-15 Do traditional distinctions between belief and knowledge still make sense How are differences between knowledge and belief understood in different cultural contexts This book explores conflicts between various types of knowledge especially between orthodox and heterodox knowledge systems ranging from religious fundamentalism to heresies within the scientific community itself Beyond addressing many fields in the academy the book discusses learned individuals interested in the often puzzling spatial and cultural disparities of knowledge and clashes of knowledge

Amitabh Bachchan Susmita Dasgupta, 2018-03-10 The book is a set of philosophical essays on Amitabh Bachchan a star like no other in Bollywood Packed into the persona of Amitabh Bachchan is a star a person an expression of his writers directors cinematographers music directors choreographers and most importantly the viewer There are spaces where Amitabh Bachchan as a person spreads over to his screen persona and creates his stardom with many episodes and experiences from his life lived in flesh and blood The book discusses Amitabh against images and appeals of other popular stars like Raj Kapoor Dev Anand Dilip Kumar and Rajesh Khanna and even Shah Rukh Khan The book also discusses many of his films which were a remake of popular films of earlier days as well as many of Amitabh's films which were remade later with the present day stars The book finds that the star is an individual the self image of the viewer and essential in a modernizing society in which the individual is rooted in the institution of family and marriage and must operate within the structures of his class caste religion and even the city in which he lives In his desire to take charge of his life overcome the barriers that stand in the way of a fuller realization of his essence as an individual Cinema can be classified around the star and the principles of classification pertain to the existential questions of the star in his embeddedness into the world and also a desire to transcend those attachments into a purer state of being

The Metaphysics of Knowledge Keith Hossack, 2007-09-20 Keith Hossack presents an original approach to philosophy founded on the thesis that knowledge is an absolutely fundamental relation He takes knowledge as the key to understanding a wide range of issues in metaphysics philosophical logic and philosophy of mind and language Applying
