Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1876 Historical Dictionary of Neoclassical Art and Architecture Allison Lee Palmer,2020-05-15 Neoclassicism refers to the revival of classical art and architecture beginning in Europe in the 1750s until around 1830 with late neoclassicism lingering through the 1870s It is a highly complex movement that brought together seemingly disparate issues into a new and culturally rich era one that was unified under a broad interest in classical antiquity

The movement was born in Italy and France and spread across Europe to Russia and the United States. It was motivated by a desire to use ideas from antiquity to help address modern social, economic and political issues in Europe, and neoclassicism came to be viewed as a style and philosophy that offered a sense of purpose and dignity to art following the new enlightened thinking. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Neoclassical Art and Architecture contains a chronology, an introduction and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries covering late Baroque and Rococo tendencies found in the early 18th century and spans the century to include artists who moved from neoclassicism to early romanticism. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers and anyone wanting to know more about neoclassical art and architecture.

The Art of Writing Fiction Andrew Cowan, 2023-08-22. An elegant and intimate insight into the personal and practical processes of writing. Andrew Cowan's The Art of Writing Fiction draws on his experience as a prize-winning novelist and his work with emerging writers at the University of East Anglia. This new edition offers extended consideration to structure, point of view and the organisation of time in the novel, as well as the conduct of the Creative Writing workshop in the light of the decolonising the curriculum movement. It features additional writing exercises as well as an afterword with invaluable advice on approaching agents and publishers. The range of writers surveyed is greatly expanded, finding inspiration and practical guidance in the work of Margaret Atwood, Ayanna Lloyd Banwo, Richard Beard, Tsitsi Dangarembga, Richard Ford, Ashley Hickson, Lovence Anjali Joseph, James Joyce, James Kelman, Ian McEwan, Arundhati Roy, Sam Selvon, Vikram Seth and Ali Smith among many others.
