Perestroika Sunset A Daughters Lifelong Search For Her Mia Father In Vietnam:

Is Anybody Listening? Barbara Birchim, 2005-05-25 Thirty five long years and I was still seeking answers If I could make someone in the government listen to the facts I knew theyd want to act on them After all who wouldnt want to find one of our POW MIAs from the Vietnam War IS ANYBODY LISTENING tells of dignitaries presidents and those involved with the POW MIA issue as Ive known it since November 1968 when my husband a Special Forces officer became missing in action The pages reveal my feelings and torment during my many trips to Southeast Asia in search of answers and my frustrations while wandering the halls of Washington D C for help The book was written to show the issues insidious cover up and my commitment to the truth Letters from Vietnam Jacqueline Lundquist, Donald C. Lundquist, 2011 Perestroika

Sunset Alan Stang, 2000-09-01 Listen, Slowly Thanhha Lai, 2015 A California girl born and raised Mai can t wait to spend her vacation at the beach Instead though she has to travel to Vietnam with her grandmother who is going back to find out what really happened to her husband during the Vietnam War Mai s parents think this trip will be a great opportunity for their out of touch daughter to learn more about her culture But to Mai those are their roots not her own Vietnam is hot smelly and the last place she wants to be Besides barely speaking the language she doesn t know the geography the local customs or even her distant relatives To survive her trip Mai must find a balance between her two completely different worlds Daughter of the Sea Hiep Thi Le, 2021-10-22 An unforgettable Voyage Memoir of an 8 year old boat person who flees post war communist Vietnam in search of a father and brother rumoured to have escaped to the West Braving sea storms and pirates in a overloaded fishing boat Hiep and her younger sister are rescued by British sailors and interned in a series of horrific Hong Kong refugee camps Surviving by their wits these displaced children of the sea create their own primitive society amid the dispirited and desperate adults awaiting sponsors in the U S At the age of eight in 1979 the Vietnam born actress and her seven years old sister were separated from their parents and left their village in central Vietnam as boat people Their mother and older brother stayed behind with her other children The sisters lived in refugee camps in Hong Kong for three months where they were reunited with their father They then immigrated to California before reuniting with their five other siblings Her mother finally reunited with the family four years later Hiep was a premed student at UC Davis majoring in physiology when she came to the open casting call with one of her sisters for the Oliver Stone film Heaven Earth 1993 that was being held at San Jose State University because several of her friends were doing it for fun She was one of the sixteen thousand Vietnamese Americans seen by casting scouts for the film and was the one out of the thousands who got the starring role of Le Ly Hayslip Despite having no acting experience she had half dozen callbacks before she was finally chosen to play the role of Le Ly Hayslip between the ages of thirteen to thirty eight Since that time She acted in several films and television shows She has graduated from college She was the owner and operator of the China Beach Vietnamese Bistro in Venice California She is now owner and Chef of Le Cellier Restaurant Wine Bar in Marina Del

Rey California complications from stomach cancer on Dec 19 2017 in Los Angeles Hiep passed away She was 46 Above all Hiep is the proud mother of two Author Hiep Thi Le Co founder Jill Powell Since I've known her from Hiep always turned something negative into a positive As a child she faced her dangers adversities and self doubts with an innocence and sense of adventure which reflects the true resilience of refugee children separated from their families and left to fend for themselves Le Ly Hayslip Heaven and Earth Most of us come of age not just once but many times as we navigate life's passages Hiep's harrowing true life journey from innocent village girl to street wise refugee told with charm humor and precocious wisdom turns a boat person's Lord of the Flies into a true Vietnamese Exodus the portrait of a blossoming young American painted with a bamboo brush Like a river flowing to the sea Hiep's story sweeps us past many amazing people places and events that most of us can scarcely imagine It's a voyage you won't want to miss Jay Wurts coauthor of When Heaven and Earth Changed Places Fathers and Daughters Le Ly Hayslip, Jay Wurts, 2017-08-08 The youngest of six children in a close knit Buddhist family Le Ly Hayslip was twelve years old when U S helicopters landed in Ky La her tiny village in central Vietnam As the government and Viet Cong troops fought in and around Ky La both sides recruited children as spies and saboteurs Le Ly was one of those children In this harrowing selection from the memoir of a girl on the verge of womanhood in a world turned upside down is a poignant picture of Vietnam then and now and of a courageous woman who experienced the true horror of the Vietnam War and survived to tell her unforgettable story A Vintage Shorts Vietnam Selection An ebook short Finding Dad Jessica Dudley, 2024-07-24 Jessica Dudley is a child of the Vietnam War Her parents came from two different worlds and were not able to make things work between them With her father returning to the United States after his tour of service and her mother staying behind to have her baby Jessica is born into a home without love Ignored and abandoned she is saved by an elder relative who takes her in to raise as her own Going blind at the age of two she dreams of finding her dad and being loved by at least one of her parents She must find a way to take advantage of an immigration program available to children of US servicemen but being a child of poverty the process and the needed funds seem to be out of reach for Jessica After much pain and triumph she finds herself in New York's LaGuardia Airport with the question on her lips Do you know my dad His name is Lee he's white and he wears a leg brace She lives through foster homes marriage and divorce single motherhood and much blood sweat and tears yet she perseveres until she finds the clues that guide her search Jessica's life is a testimony to the strength that lies within and you will cry tears of pain and joy along with her as you read her true story in Finding Dad Family in Six Tones Lan Cao, Harlan Margaret Van Cao, 2020-09-15 A brilliant duet and a moving exploration of the American immigrant experience Ruth Ozeki author of A Tale for the Time Being A dual first person memoir by the acclaimed Vietnamese American novelist and her thoroughly American teenage daughter In 1975 thirteen year old Lan Cao boarded an airplane in Saigon and got off in a world where she faced hosts she had not met before a language she didn't speak and food she didn't recognize with the faint hope that she would be able to go home soon Lan fought her way through confusion and racism to become a successful lawyer and novelist Four decades later she faced the biggest challenge in her life raising her daughter Harlan half Vietnamese by birth and 100 percent American teenager by inclination In their lyrical joint memoir told in alternating voices mother and daughter cross ages and ethnicities to tackle the hardest questions about assimilation aspiration and family Lan wrestles with her identities as not merely an immigrant but a refugee from an unpopular war She has bigoted teachers who undermine her in the classroom and tormenting inner demons but she does achieve either despite or because of the work ethic and tight support of a traditional Vietnamese family struggling to get by in a small American town Lan has ambitions for herself and for her daughter but even as an adult feels tentative about her place in her adoptive country and ventures through motherhood as if it is a foreign landscape Reflecting and refracting her mother s narrative Harlan fiercely describes the rites of passage of childhood and adolescence filtered through the aftereffects of her family s history of war tragedy and migration Harlan s struggle to make friends in high school challenges her mother to step back and let her daughter find her own way Family in Six Tones speaks both to the unique struggles of refugees and to the universal tug of war between mothers and daughters The journey of an immigrant away from war and loss toward peace and a new life and the journey of a mother raising a child to be secure and happy are both steep paths filled with detours and stumbling blocks Through explosive fights and painful setbacks mother and daughter search for a way to accept the past and face the future together Surviving Twice Trin Yarborough,2005 Inspiring and sometimes tragic personal stories of five Amerasian children left behind after the Vietnam War My Vietnam, Your Vietnam Christina Vo,Nghia M. Vo,2024-04-16 My Vietnam Your Vietnam chronicles the divergent journeys of a Vietnamese father who fled war on a small boat to find refuge in the United States and his American born daughter who ventures to Vietnam as an adult capturing the stark contrast between their perspectives on their shared homeland In this dual memoir Christina Vo and her father Nghia M Vo delve into themes of identity and heritage with intertwined stories that present a multifaceted portrayal of Vietnam and its profound influence on shaping both familial bonds and individual identities across time Captivating in its fluid movement and evocative depictions of place My Vietnam Your Vietnam offers readers a rich multilayered exploration of Vietnam through two very distinct voices and perspectives The memoir aims to deepen readers understanding and appreciation of Vietnam and its culture by showcasing these two contrasting viewpoints After the Flag Has Been Folded Karen Spears Zacharias,2006-05-02 Karen Spears was nine years old living with her family in a trailer in rural Tennessee when her father David Spears was killed in the Ia Drang Valley in Vietnam It was 1966 in a nation being torn apart by a war nobody wanted in an emotionally charged Southern landscape stained with racism and bigotry and suddenly the care and well being of three small children were solely in the hands of a frightened young widow with no skills and a ninth grade education But thanks to a mother s remarkable courage strength and stubborn tenacity a family in the midst of chaos and in severe crisis miraculously pulled together to achieve its own version of the American Dream Beginning on the day Karen learns of her father's death and ending thirty years later with her pilgrimage to the battlefield where he died half a world away from the family's hometown After the Flag Has Been Folded is a triumphant tale of reconciliation between a daughter and her father a daughter and her nation and a poignant remembrance of a mother's love and heroism My VIETNAM Jack Billups,2022-12-11 Vietnam Ed Murphy,Zoeann Murphy,2006 Waltzing with the Dragons Juliette Mai Triozon,2019-05-28 Waltzing with the Dragons is the true story of a Vietnamese woman and her Eurasian daughter Born in 1922 in the north of Vietnam under French colonial rule Ly was the daughter of one of the last Mandarins a childhood friend of Ho Chi Minh After she rebelled against her family by refusing an arranged marriage at thirteen she was sent to live with her father's best friends a French couple It was the beginning of a life long love affair with French culture and lifestyle At seventeen she married a French army officer who shortly thereafter was killed in action She lived through the Japanese occupation during World War II escaped her captors and after many adventures found her way south From having lost everything In Cholon the Chinese quarter of Saigon she established herself as a successful business woman under the protection of the gangland bosses who dominated the city in the late forties It was during this time that she met the love of her life a doctor in the French army From this passionate affair she became pregnant with her only child Mai T m her daughter Her lover having returned to France she gave birth alone amid the dawning realization that he was not going to come back Born in Saigon in 1952 Mai T m grew up in the twilight of the French Colonial era which ended in 1954 with the defeat at Dien Bien Phu by the forces of Ho Chi Minh A child of mixed race she did not feel she belonged anywhere and it was only within her Vietnamese family that she felt loved and protected During her childhood she was victim of the increasingly aggressive Vietnam War as well as the disruptive and unhappy relationship of her mother with her second French husband Her parents sent her to the safety of France in July 1967 where they joined her one year later after the T t offensive in 1968 Ly who became Anna and Mai T m who became Juliette demonstrate how strength of character and determination can overcome all adversities In the Arms of Grace LeChristine Hai,2003 In the Arms of Grace is the powerful story of a modern woman warrior and her battle for physical emotional and spiritual victory As a Vietnamese and an American she provides a link between the two nations through her life experiences From her days as an orphan in Vietnam when she sang and danced for American G I s to her ideal life of having it all in the United States LeChristine Hai constantly searched for love security and belonging Her rags to riches story shows the underside of the American Dream Enduring years of emotional and sexual abuse at the hands of her adoptive American father LeChristine ultimately refuses to be a victim and transforms her life She takes charge of her own life and becomes a successful business woman only to discover that she still must confront the pain of abandonment in order to find true peace When LeChristine Hai's soul search leads her to a reunion with her lost and found Vietnamese mother and sister she comes full circle and learns how to heal the personal wars within As she embraces her authentic self she also opens her heart and life to reveal the healing power of love and
