

A dense, artistic arrangement of various luxury gifts. In the upper left, two elegant handbags are visible: one in a deep red and another in a metallic gold. The center is dominated by a large, light pink gift box tied with a wide, shimmering gold ribbon. Surrounding this central box are numerous other items: several perfume bottles of different shapes and sizes, some with gold caps; smaller gift boxes in white, silver, and gold, many adorned with large, decorative bows; and pieces of jewelry including a wristwatch with a white face and gold case, a ring, and several pendants. The entire scene is bathed in a warm, golden light, creating a rich, textured, and festive atmosphere.

presentation and incorporation of a gift into a person's life. The text explores the role of values in gift exchange, the influence of ethnic, generational, and subcultural differences in gift exchange, how gifts to the self are manifested, and new directions and topics in gift giving. In these essays, gift giving occasions are probed for the meanings that can be illuminated with respect to this pervasive yet not always positive phenomenon. For anyone interested in gift giving behavior, this volume should prove both enlightening and provocative.

Surviving Singleness Haley Hausman, Marlie Sawyer Motta, 2010-12-02. Is it possible to survive life as a single Christian woman in today's society? Is there more to life than waiting for the right guy to show up at my doorstep? The answer to these questions is YES. It is possible to survive in today's culture as a single Christian woman. There is more to life than just waiting for the right guy to come along. This weekend devotional is designed to help you with the answers to these questions and more. Whether you find yourself just trying to make it through another weekend alone at home or look forward to alone time on the weekends after a busy week, this book is for you. Each Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, you can have the opportunity to read a devotional that aims at helping you grow in your walk with Christ while living the single life. You can cry and laugh with us as we share our experiences as single Christian women in these devotions each weekend for a year. This devotional book also contains a bonus 40 Dates with Jesus section. These 40 extra devotionals are designed to help you grow even deeper in your relationship with Jesus Christ.

God Created Man in His Image and Likeness Oried E. Graves, 2012-10. Everyone who reads the Bible must admit that it tells us to do things that we never have done and cannot do in our fleshly bodies. One reason is that God, our Creator, is telling us what He wants us to be and do as created in His image and likeness. Our purpose is in our image and likeness of God, our Creator, not like the dust of the ground or the flesh of our parents. Most children don't know that they are created in the image and likeness of God, and their parents have not asked God for His spirit for their children so they can be taught this vital truth. The reason parents don't ask God for His spirit for their children is because they don't recognize the need for Him. There are several things mankind cannot do in the flesh, and they must recognize their origin in the image and likeness of God. Mankind must recognize being in the image and likeness of God to first love God with all their being and love his neighbors as himself, second to obey God and his parents as required in God's word, third to trust God with all his heart, fourth to worship God in spirit and in truth, and fifth to glorify God in his body and spirit, which are God. The devil does not want mankind to know that he is created in the image and likeness of God because man will always defeat Satan and fulfill God's will.

The Biblical Illustrator - James Joseph Samuel Exell, 1954

Luther's Epistle of Straw Jason D. Lane, 2017-11-07. This work challenges the common consensus that Luther, with his commitment to St. Paul's articulation of justification by faith, leaves no room for the Letter of St. James. Against this one-sided reading of Luther focused only on his criticism of the letter, this book argues that Luther had fruitful interpretations of the epistle that shaped the subsequent exegetical tradition. Scholarship's singular concentration on Luther's criticism of James as an epistle of straw has caused many to overlook Luther's sermons on James the many places where James comes to full expression in Luther's writings and the influence that Luther's biblical interpretation had on later interpretations of James Based primarily on neglected Lutheran sermons in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries this work examines the pastoral hermeneutic of Luther and his theological heirs as they heard the voice of James and communicated that voice to and for the sake of the church Scholars pastors and educated laity alike are invited to discover how Luther's theology was shaped by the Epistle of James and how Luther's students and theological heirs aimed to preach this disputed letter fruitfully to their hearers The Christian reformer; or, Unitarian magazine and review [ed. by R. Aspland]. Robert Aspland, 1846 Powerful Program Keys Christine Butler, 1998-12 Gifts, Romance, and Consumer Culture Yuko Minowa, Russell W. Belk, 2018-09-05

How do people communicate their romantic feelings Gift giving is one way Giving and receiving of gifts is a characteristic of intimate relationships Gifts are a message a form of communication with a tangible material object about love affection or concern for the recipient The romantic gift evokes a multitude of intertwined meanings passion intimacy affection persuasion care celebration altruism and nostalgia They can also connote the negative images of obligation and reciprocity Romantic gift giving may be practiced at rituals during rites of passage or for casual occasions to affirm the continued importance of the romantic relationship We may even romanticize the giving of gifts to the self to nonhuman companions and to others we do not know personally If loving and giving are a practice then romantic gift giving is a practice of loving with intimate or would be intimate others This book addresses gift giving among consumers attempting to express and construct romantic love It lies at the intersection of consumption markets and culture In societies shaped by the globalizing neo liberal economic order increasing wealth disparity and a partially digitized social environment that they help to co construct it may be time to rethink romantic love Gift giving is a key arena to do so as gifts make love tangible and act as carriers of meaning as well as cultural symbols In gift giving the meanings of romance are renewed renegotiated and reconstructed Gifts Romance And Consumer Culture demonstrates a wide variety of scholarly work bearing on romantic gift giving using an interpretive consumer research perspective The book introduces critical studies by scholars in this unfolding and new interdisciplinary field
