the Anglican eucharistic liturgies created in the last 25 years around the Communion which will be a useful resource for students clergy and all who serve on liturgical committees Whose Sacrifice is the Eucharist? Stephen B Sours, 2024-07-26 This book explores what Catholics and Methodists believe about eucharistic sacrifice Eucharistic sacrifice refers to the offering that Christ and his church make in the celebration of the Lord's Supper It is therefore both a Christian doctrine and a church practice The sacrificial dimension of the sacrament comes both from Christ's sacrifice on the cross and from his self offering at the Last Supper in which Christ gives himself to the Father on behalf of his people This is my body which is given for you Luke 22:19 The eucharist is a sacrificial meal because in the bread and cup Christians are united to the body and blood of Christ that was sacrificed for them on the cross Moreover the resurrected Lord is really present with his people in the eucharist and while his historic crucifixion is an event in the past Jesus' salvation continues and his grace is given to his people in the sacrament for this is my blood of the covenant which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins Matthew 26 28 Catholics and Methodists believe that Jesus instructs his followers to repeat his words and actions from the Last Supper in their celebration of the eucharist but a long running assumption is that Catholics and Methodists following the historic Reformation schism are deeply divided over eucharistic sacrifice This book challenges that assumption by analyzing what these churches teach on eucharistic sacrifice from historical sacramental liturgical and ecumenical perspectives Key figures like Thomas Aquinas and John Wesley help define eucharistic sacrifice in each tradition Subsequently authoritative texts such as ecclesial statements eucharistic prayers and hymns further specify what Catholics and Methodists believe they are doing when they offer the eucharist to God Sours argues that far from being divided Catholics and Methodists have much in common regarding this controversial doctrine

Upon This Rock and a Catechism of the Holy Rosary Edwin Gordon, 2005 This book represents the fruits of many years of prayer work and meditation by Fr Edwin Gordon The first part Upon This Rock with a foreword by Canon Francis Ripley provides a catechetical programme of instruction and is fully referenced to the Catechism of the Catholic Church It is published together with a series of meditations with Our Lady on the Catholic truths made manifest in the Rosary including the Luminous Mysteries A Catechism of the Holy Rosary with a preface by His Eminence Marcelo Cardinal Gonzalez Martin the former Primate of Spain The beauty of this book is that it is both food for the soul and the mind The catechetical material is presented in such an appealing yet striking manner that the truths it contains are absorbed very easily this is certainly not a dry catechetical text But it also illustrates that despite modern educational trends there is no substitute for a good knowledge of the teaching of the Church and equally that belief in the truths of Catholicism is not just a question of logical reasoning it is also a matter of faith Fr Edwin Gordon was born in Gibraltar spending the duration of the Second World war in Tangiers where he was educated by the Irish Christian Brothers Moving to Bristol in 1945 he studied law at university and was ordained priest in 1962 Working as a priest in parishes for many years he served in the 1970s as spiritual director of the English College at Valladolid Spain Fr Gordon became blind in the 1980s continuing to run a small rural parish until his retirement in 2002 He has published many articles given talks to students conducted retreats and taught at Catholic summer schools
