Midland Florist and Suburban Horticulturist, 1860      Theological Questions, Dogmatical Observations, and Evangelical Essays, Upon the Gospel of Jesus Christ, According to St. Matthew Richard Ward, 1640      The Mind of Consciousness Ray Morose, 2011

The Mind of Consciousness is a book unfolding a new way with new process methods to evaluate your existence. It is an experiential work written in textbook format that analytically delineates how and why consciousness and mind interface and function, exposing the interconnective dependency of non-biological consciousness and the biologically created mind. Knowing how that interconnectivity interrelates provides avenues of exploration that reveal the fundamental nature of existence, unveiling an innate purpose and direction embedded within consciousness. This book works through all the major questions of existence using reproducible and experiential logic, allowing everyone to experience the results of that exploration. Throughout your life you have two realities at war with one another: the primary I am reality formed from non-biological consciousness and the secondary I am this or that reality formed by the biological mind. You may not be aware of or even appreciate the internal conflict; these two interconnective and interdependent realities create. However, you experience the resultant turmoil and confusion; their subliminal battles establish by not having an experiential appreciation of how those realities are formed, function, and potentially control your life. The text delineates causation for those ongoing internal battles and outlines processes to help overcome the sense of frustration, isolation, and discord they generate. This experiential method of examination creates empirical processes that afford you the opportunity to make an informed choice rather than a conditioned reaction, providing a more secure, productive, directional, and enjoyable life. This book takes you into the core of your being, turning it inside out, exposing who and what you are by revealing a self-created shadow world controlling your life without you being aware that control exists.      A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning Leslie Nathan Broughton, Benjamin Franklin Stelter, 1925      Good Music John J. Sheinbaum, 2018-11-29

Over the past two centuries, Western culture has largely valorized a particular kind of good music: highly serious, wondrously deep, stylistically authentic, heroically created, and strikingly original. And at the same time, it has marginalized music that does not live up to those ideals. In Good Music, John J. Sheinbaum explores these traditional models for valuing music. By engaging examples such as Handel oratorios, Beethoven and Mahler symphonies, jazz improvisations, Bruce Springsteen, and prog rock, he argues that metaphors of perfection do justice to neither the perceived strengths nor the assumed weaknesses of the music in question. Instead, he proposes an alternative model of appreciation where abstract notions of virtue need not dictate our understanding. Good music can, with pride, be playful rather than serious, diverse rather than unified, engaging to both body and mind in dialogue with manifold styles and genres, and collaborative to the core. We can widen the scope of what music we value and reconsider the conventional rituals surrounding it while retaining the joys of making music, listening closely, and caring passionately.      Industrial Refrigeration, 1921      The Neighbours Fredrika
