Performing America Cultural Nationalism In American Theater:

Performing America Jeffrey D. Mason, J. Ellen Gainor, 2009 Performing America provides fresh perspectives on the development of visions of both America and America That is the actual community and the constructed concept on a variety of theatrical stages It explores the role of theater in the construction of American identity highlighting the tension between the desire to categorize American identity and the realization that such categorical uniformity may neither be desirable nor possible The topics covered include the links between politics and the stage during the Federalist period the appropriation of Indian artifacts an exploration of early gender roles and the metaphorical connections between the theater and western expansion Other essays treat vaudeville s artistically colonized cultures Chautauqua s attempt to homogenize culture and commercialize American ideals W E B Du Bois s pageant The Star of Ethiopia as a strategy for constructing African American as Other in an attempt to promote a vision of black nationalism and how theater was used to help immigrants form a new sense of community while joining the resident culture The collection then turns to questions of how various ethnic minorities through their recent theatrical work have struggled to argue their identities especially in relation to the dominant white culture Two final essays offer critiques of contrasting aspects of the American male Throughout the collection addresses questions of marginality and community exclusion and inclusion colonialism and imperialism heterogeneity and homogeneity conflict and negotiation repression and opportunity failure and success and above all the relationship of American stages at large It will appeal to readers of a wide range of disciplines including history American culture gender studies and theater studies Jeffrey D Mason is Professor of Theatre California State University Bakersfield J Ellen Gainor is Associate Professor of Theatre Studies and Women s Studies Cornell University

Performing America J. Ellen Gainor, 1999 DIV How theatrical representations of the U S have shaped national identity A History of Collective Creation Kathryn Mederos Syssoyeva, 2013-07-24 Collective creation the practice of collaboratively devising works of performance rose to prominence not simply as a performance making method but as an institutional model By examining theatre practices in Europe and North America this book explores collective creation s roots in the theatrical experiments of the early twentieth century

The Theatre of Richard Maxwell and the New York City Players Sarah Gorman, 2012-10-02 The theatre of Richard Maxwell and the New York City Players has received significant international recognition over the past ten years The company has received three OBIEs for House 1999 Drummer Wanted 2002 and Good Samaritans 2005 Maxwell received a Guggenheim Fellowship in 2010 and has been commissioned by venues in the United States the United Kingdom Germany Austria the Netherlands France Belgium and Ireland Although his productions generate a plethora of reviews there is a deficit of material providing a critical and sustained engagement with his work The aim of this book is to provide a critical survey of Maxwell s work since 1992 including his early participation in Cook County Theater Department Touching upon the acting production and rehearsal processes of NYC Player s work and Maxwell s representations of space community race and gender this volume provides scholars with an important overview of a key figure in contemporary drama Interrogating America through Theatre and Performance W. Demastes,2016-04-30 This collection of essays dissects American plays movies and other performance types that examine America and its history and culture From Amerindian stage performances to AIDS and post 9 11 America it displays the various and important ways theatre and performance studies have examined and conversed with American culture and history Memory-Theater and Postmodern Drama Jeanette R. Malkin,2025-10-01 Provides a new way of defining and understanding postmodern drama Staging Consciousness William W. Demastes,2002 How theater has challenged the mind body dualism that underpins much of Western thought Theatres of Value Danielle Rosvally,2024-07-01 Theatres of Value explores the idea that buying and selling are performative acts and offers a paradigm for deeper study of these acts the dramaturgy of value Modeling this multifaceted approach the book explores six case studies to show how and why Shakespeare had value for nineteenth century New Yorkers In considering William Brown s African Theater P T Barnum s American Museum and Lecture Hall Fanny Kemble s American reading career the Booth family brand the memorial statue of Shakespeare in Central Park and an 1888 benefit performance of Hamlet to theatrical impresario Lester Wallack Theatres of Value traces a history of audience engagement with Shakespearean cultural capital and the myriad ways this engagement was leveraged by theatrical businesspeople The Cambridge Companion to Edward Albee Stephen Bottoms,2005-07-21 Edward Albee perhaps best known for his acclaimed and infamous 1960s drama Who s Afraid of Virginia Woolf is one of America s greatest living playwrights Now in his seventies he is still writing challenging award winning dramas This collection of essays on Albee which includes contributions from the leading commentators on Albee s work brings fresh critical insights to bear by exploring the full scope of the playwright s career from his 1959 breakthrough with The Zoo Story to his recent Broadway success The Goat or Who is Sylvia 2002 The contributors include scholars of both theatre and English literature and the essays thus consider the plays both as literary texts and as performed drama The collection considers a number of Albee s lesser known and neglected works provides a comprehensive introduction and overview and includes an exclusive original interview with Mr Albee on topics spanning his whole career Playing Underground Stephen James Bottoms,2004-06-30 The first comprehensive history of Off Off Broadway The Stage Life of Props Andrew Sofer,2010-02-22 In The Stage Life of Props Andrew Sofer aims to restore to certain props the performance dimensions that literary critics are trained not to see then to show that these props are not just accessories but time machines of the theater Using case studies that explore the Eucharistic wafer on the medieval stage the bloody handkerchief on the Elizabethan stage the skull on the Jacobean stage the fan on the Restoration and early eighteenth century stage and the gun on the modern stage Andrew Sofer reveals how stage props repeatedly thwart dramatic convention and reinvigorate theatrical practice While the focus is on specific objects Sofer also gives us a sweeping history of half a millennium of stage history as seen through the device of the prop revealing that as material ghosts stage props are a way for playwrights to animate stage action question theatrical practice and revitalize dramatic form Andrew Sofer is Assistant Professor of English Boston College He was previously a stage director Sails of the Herring Fleet Herbert Blau,2009-12-11 Reflections on Samuel Beckett by renowned director and theorist Herbert Blau Performative Inter-Actions in African Theatre 3 Kene Igweonu,Osita Okagbue,2014-01-02 This book is part of a three volume book set published under the general title of Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre Each of the three books in the set has a unique subtitle that works to better focus its content and differentiates it from the other two volumes The contributors backgrounds and global spread adequately reflect the international focus of the three books that make up the collection The contributions in their various ways demonstrate the many advances and ingenious solutions adopted by African theatre practitioners in tackling some of the challenges arising from the adverse colonial experience as well as the one sided advance of globalisation The contributions attest to the thriving nature of African theatre and performance which in the face of these challenges has managed to retain its distinctiveness while at the same time acknowledging contesting and appropriating influences from elsewhere into an aesthetic that is identifiably African Consequently the three books are presented as a comprehensive exploration of the current state of African theatre and performance both on the continent and diaspora Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre 3 Making Space Rethinking Drama and Theatre in Africa offers essays that seek to re conceptualise notions of drama and theatre in Africa and therefore redefine our understanding of the practice role and place they occupy in a constantly evolving African socio cultural contexts Contributions in Making Space Rethinking Drama and Theatre in Africa range from essays that explore notions of space in performance to those that challenge the perceived orthodoxy of conventional forms and approaches to theatre Theatre, Society and the Nation S. E. Wilmer,2002-09-23 Theatre has often served as a touchstone for moments of political change or national definition and as a way of exploring cultural and ethnic identity In this book Steve Wilmer selects key historical moments in American history and examines how the theatre in formal and informal settings responded to these events The book moves from the Colonial fight for independence through Native American struggles the Socialist Worker play the Civil Rights Movement and up to works of the last decade including Tony Kushner s Angels in America In addition to examining theatrical events and play texts Wilmer also considers audience reception and critical response Body Knowledge Mary Simonson,2013-11 This book traces the deployment of intermedial aesthetics in the works of early twentieth century female performers By destabilizing medial and genre boundaries these women created compelling and meaningful performances that negotiated turn of the century American social and cultural issues Darkening Mirrors Stephanie Leigh Batiste,2011 In an important contribution to African American film and performance history Stephanie Batiste looks back at African American stage and screen productions of the 1930s Performing Democracy Susan C.
