Performing The Faith:

Performing the Faith Stanley Hauerwas, 2015-03-11 Folksy eclectic disarmingly humble and astonishingly wide ranging Hauerwas offers us a provocative reading of Bonhoeffer that not surprisingly assimilates him closely to John Howard Yoder At the same time Hauerwas replies to recent criticisms of his work by Jeffrey Stout Contending that truth depends on performance far more than on theory Hauerwas steps forward as a pacifist gadfly for a more truly faithful church and a more recognizably democratic society George Hunsinger Princeton Theological Seminary This book shows how lively and fecund Hauerwas's thought remains A dazzling performance capable of entertaining and instructing professional theologians as much as those who think the world might be a better place without theologians in it Paul J Griffiths University of Illinois at Chicago Stan Hauerwas has done it again He is able skillfully to blend into his book the passion for truth and justice of two of his greatest influences Dietrich Bonhoeffer and John Howard Yoder He takes these heroic advocates for peace into his own present day struggle for the soul of the American nation Hauerwas an admirable Christian pacifist himself dares Christians to be the Jesus people they claim to be and to follow Jesus into the gospel path of nonviolence Geoffrey B Kelly author of Liberating Faith Bonhoeffer's Message for Today Never totally predictable Always a fresh perspective And yet once again in these essays on narrative politics Bonhoeffer and the church we hear the engaging discerning and brilliant voice we have come to know as Stanley Hauerwas Mark Thiessen Nation Eastern Mennonite Seminary Contending with and learning from the witness of Dietrich Bonhoeffer whose life is often thought to provide a Christian alternative to pacifism Hauerwas deepens the account of Christian nonviolence he has been articulating for decades His theology is strengthened and clarified by his encounter with the exemplary figure of Bonhoeffer Alan Jacobs Wheaton College Without loss of the provocative edge that has made him a vital and distinctive Christian voice Hauerwas's Performing the Faith allows him to cast a retrospective eye on his work At the same time in a brilliant essay under the title of the book he develops a profoundly important description of faithfulness Dennis O'Brien University of Rochester

Performing Faith Marzanna Poplawska, 2020-02-10 This book is a study of music inculturation in Indonesia It shows how religious expression can be made relevant in an indigenous context and how grassroots Christianity is being realized by means of music Through the discussion of indigenous expressions of Christianity the book presents multiple ways in which Indonesians reiterate their identity through music by creatively forging Christian and indigenous elements This study moves beyond the discussion and charge of syncretism showing that the inclusion of local cultural manifestations is an answer to creating a truly indigenous Christian expression Marzanna Poplawska while telling the story of Indonesian Christians and the multiple ways in which they live Christianity through music emphasizes the creative energy and agency of local people In their practices she finds optimism for the continuing existence of many traditional genres and styles Indonesian Christians perform their Christian faith through music dance and theater generating innovative cultural products that enrich the global Christian heritage The book is addressed to

Secret Faith in the Public Square Jonathan Malesic, 2009-09-01 In this groundbreaking and provocative book Jonathan Malesic argues that the best way for Christians to be caretakers of their tradition and to love their neighbors selflessly is to conceal their religious identity in American public life The alternative insisting on Christianity's public visibility in politics the marketplace and the workplace risks severely compromising the distinctiveness of Christian identity Delving deep into the Christian tradition Malesic explains that keeping Christian identity secret means living fully in the world while maintaining Christian language prayer and liturgy in reserve He shows how major thinkers Cyril of Jerusalem Søren Kierkegaard and Dietrich Bonhoeffer sought to protect Christian identity from being compromised by the public sphere He then shows that Christians dual responsibilities for the tradition and for the neighbor must be kept secret
