Perfumes Of Yesterday:

Perfumes of Yesterday David G. Williams, 2004 Scents and Sensibility Catherine Maxwell, 2017-10-20 This lively accessible book is the first to explore Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature's relation with the senses Concentrating on aesthetic and decadent authors Scents and Sensibility introduces a rich selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent's carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility A key theme is the emergence of the olfactif the cultivated individual with a refined sense of smell influentially represented by the poet and critic Algernon Charles Swinburne who is emulated by a host of canonical and less well known aesthetic and decadent successors such as Walter Pater Edmund Gosse John Addington Symonds Lafcadio Hearn Michael Field Oscar Wilde Arthur Symonds Mark Andr Raffalovich Theodore Wratislaw and A Mary F Robinson This book explores how scent and perfume pervade the work of these authors in many different ways signifying such diverse things as style atmosphere influence sexuality sensibility spirituality refinement individuality the expression of love and poetic creativity and the aura of personality dandyism modernity and memory A coda explores the contrasting twentieth century responses of Virginia Woolf and Compton Mackenzie to the scent of Victorian literature

Yesterday's Perfume Cherie Nutting, Paul Bowles, 2000 Fifteen years ago Cherie Nutting returned to Morocco She had first visited it as a child with her mother and the images of mystery and the desert had stayed with her fueled over the years by accounts of expatriate life and by the literature created there In Tangier again she met the most famous of the expatriates and author of the classic The Sheltering Sky Cherie became a friend of Paul Bowles and part of his circle Over the years the friendship deepened and widened Yesterday's Perfume is a memoir of that friendship and of Cherie's love of Morocco She had unparalleled access to Paul and recorded journal like their conversations and the events of everyday life Interwoven among Cherie's narrative are bits and pieces of Paul's previously unpublished writings diarylike fragments retellings of dreams little stories a sharp counterpoint in his inimitable voice Unlike most memoirs Yesterday's Perfume is blessed with a wealth of extraordinary images Cherie has created a visual record of their friendship capturing intimate moments making formal portraits recording the comings and goings of celebrities and friends And here too the dialogue with Bowles continues for Paul has jotted down his reactions in the borders and on the prints Several other friends have contributed to these pages Peter Beard Ned Rorem and Bruce Weber among them But key is the collaboration of Cherie and Paul Together they have created a touching portrait of friendship and a road map to the mind of an artist

Chemistry of Fragrances David H Pybus, Charles S Sell, 2015-11-09 Modern perfumery is a blend of art science and technology with chemistry being the central science involved The Chemistry of Fragrances aims to educate and entertain and inform the audience of the very latest chemistry techniques and tools applied to fragrance creativity Beginning with the history of perfumes which goes back over fifty thousand years the book goes on to discuss the structure of the Perfume Industry today The focus then turns to an imaginary brief to create a perfume and the response to it including that of the chemist and the creative perfumer Consumer research toxicological concerns and the use of the electronic nose are some of the topics discussed on this journey of discovery Written by respected experts in their fields this unique book gives an insider view of mixing molecules from behind the portals of modern day alchemy It will be enjoyed by chemists and marketeers at all levels
