Permanent Red John Berger,2025-03-25 In Permanent Red John Berger argues that the contemporary artist should strive for a realism that aims for hope to transform the world Surveying the work of historical artists as well as that of near contemporaries such as Picasso Lger and Matisse he explores the role of the artist dividing these figures into those that struggle those that fail and the true masters He explains why we should study the work of the past in order to understand the present and to rethink the future First published in 1960 Permanent Red established John Berger as a firebrand critic willing to broadcast controversial opinions on some of the most important British artists of the day including Henry Moore and Barbara Hepworth
